Resumé of the 1917 Tennis Season

BY FRED B. ALEXANDER.

Nineteen years ago lawn tennis in the United States underwent the same upheaval that occurred in 1917, though perhaps in a lesser degree. At the outbreak of the war with Spain many of our best experts enlisted in the volunteer army, leaving the future of the game almost entirely in the hands of the youngsters. In the spring of 1917 history repeated itself.

Upon President Wilson's declaration of war on Germany a veritable flood of tennis players, all the way from the "dub" to the acknowledged expert, flocked to the colors. By mid-summer there was not a single man in the sacred first ten left to compete in tournament play. Perhaps the fact that the national patriotic singles date was changed to conform with the closing of the first officers' training camps and the ambulance drive operated by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association saved the game from the lusterless and dull condition which would otherwise have been its portion.

General lack of interest in the spring and early summer affected all the tournaments, the notable exception being the boys' and junior events, which increased materially in size, enthusiasm and standard of effectiveness.

One more important point was scored, namely, that the organization of the U.S.N.L.T.A. proved that they were useful not only to the game but to the country, when they organized the drive to collect sufficient funds to equip and recruit two ambulance sections for service under the Red Cross. This drive ended in a whirlwind tour of the Middle West, with two-day stands in all of the principal cities.

All the available players in the country volunteered their services at one time or another, but the star event was a series of matches between Miss Molla Bjurstedt, national women's champion, and Miss Mary Browne of California, former national women's champion. Almost every one of these matches were so close, so well played, and the rivalry so intense, that it might well be said that this alone made the season of 1917 one of the most memorable in tennis annals.

The schedule calling for practically continuous play day after day for over two months, without rest and much night traveling, was one which no tennis player had ever encountered before. The good nature and desire at all times to be of aid and general willingness of both ladies to do even more than their share was one of the finest exhibitions of pluck and character the writer has ever seen. The men on whom the brunt of the work fell deserve also honorable mention, but their efforts pale in comparison to the generous unselfishness of these two ladies.

In July the week-end exhibitions at the Yahundasis Golf Club at Utica, which were held in lieu of the New York State championships, witnessed the practical start of the season so far as expert play was concerned. The fact that William M. Johnston had just arrived to take part in the ambulance drive, that Lieutenant George M. Church had just finished his aviation training and spent his furlough there, that Lindley Murray dashed away for a couple of days from his chemical work in a munition plant, tended to lend an interest so far not visible in the earlier tournaments. Murray proved to be in the best form and won from a select field, which numbered, among others, Fred B. Alexander, Charles S. Garland, Harold A. Throckmorton and Irving C. Wright.

LIEUTENANT R. NORRIS WILLIAMS, 2D.
National Champion, 1916.

The national patriotic doubles at Longwood, held in one tournament instead of sections, was won by Alexander and Throckmorton from a field mostly composed of veteran players. Harold C. Johnson and Irving C. Wright were the runnersup. Nathaniel W. Niles and Theodore R. Pell were eliminated in the semi-finals by Alexander and Throckmorton in a five-set match, the best of the meeting.

The national patriotic singles was made a success by the presence of Lieutenants Richard N. Williams, Watson M. Washburn, Clarence J. Griffin and Dean Mathey, who had just finished their training at the officers' camps and were on furlough. R. Lindley Murray again proved his ability to play close to the top of his form with but little practice, and won the tournament after a close call in the fourth round from Craig Biddle, whose work and improvement were the sensation of the tournament.

Nat. W. Niles sprang the big surprise when he defeated champion R. N. Williams in the semi-finals with something to spare. It is only fair to state that Williams, though in prime condition from his training at Plattsburg, was naturally woefully out of practice, and the same applied to all the young officers who loyally entered the tournament in order to make it a success. Murray's final match with Niles was a pleasure to watch, illustrating two widely different types of games.

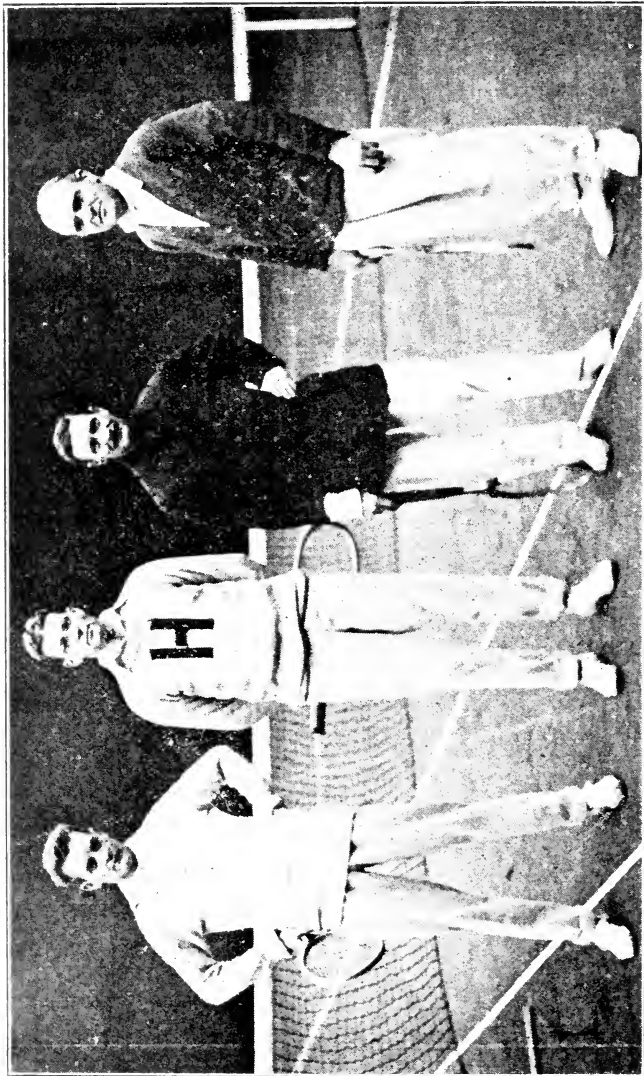

Charles S. Garland won the national junior title with plenty to spare and showed much improved form. Always a student of the game, he added a sting and speed to his shots which were not apparent earlier in the season. In the boys' event Vincent Richards captured the honors and thoroughly earned them. The standard of play, particularly among the boys, was high. J. D. E. Jones, Jr., son of the Providence expert, worked his way to the finals against Richards and showed the effect of his father's coaching.

In closing, it is interesting to note a list of the first ten men ranked in 1916 and the various branches of the service to which they are attached:

1. Richard N. Williams, Lieutenant, Artillery.
2. William M. Johnston, Ensign, U.S.N.
3. George M. Church, Lieutenant, Aviation.
4. R. Lindley Murray, Chemist, Munition Plant.
5. Ichiya Kumagae, Japanese subject.
6. Clarence J. Griffin, Lieutenant, Aviation.
7. Watson M. Washburn, Lieutenant, Artillery.

In addition to this it is even more interesting to note that Messrs. R. D. Vrenn and W. A. Larned were rated No. 1 and 2, respectively, in 1897, and enlisted in the Rough Riders when war was declared against Spain. At present writing both are majors in the United States Army. And last, but not least, our president, Major George T. Adee, also served in the army during the Spanish War.

I am sorry that space prevents my printing a list of the Voshells, Bulls, Callants et al who have answered the call. Suffice it to say that the printed list of the first ten is merely an example of what has happened all the way down the line of devotees of racket, ball and net.

Independence Day, 1917, was a fitting date for the launching of a new enterprise and the adding of a new page to lawn tennis history. Announcement was made by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association that all its efforts could be centered during the rest of the outdoor playing season on raising money to equip and recruit ambulance sections for the United States Army.

The idea originally emanated from Karl H. Bahr, for some years one of the best players in the United States. Enlarged upon and worked out by Major George T. Adee, president; Julian S. Myrick, vice-president, and Paul B. Williams, field secretary, the undertaking proved a great success. Two ambulance sections were equipped and recruited, and at present writing are fully organized and in working order for shipment abroad when they receive their call. It was originally decided to start the fund at the New York State tournament at Utica, July 16, but owing to arrangements having been made by the management with the local branch of the Red Cross, the Plainfield Country Club had the honor of starting the ball rolling.

The returns from all tournaments after July 22 went to this fund and in addition many exhibitions were played. The main tour, which started just after the national patriotic was finished, began with Rochester, August 27, and ended at Pittsburgh, September 29. The cities visited were Rochester, Cleveland, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Scranton, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville and Pittsburgh.

F. B. Alexander, who managed the team, played the greatest number of matches—fifty-five. The list of those who played ten or more matches is appended: Fred B. Alexander, 55; Miss Molla Bjurstedt, 53; Miss Mary Browne and Harold A. Throckmorton, 49 each; John R. Strachan, 46; S. Howard Voshell, 45; Charles S. Garland, 23; Karl H. Behr, 21; R. Lindley Murray, 14; William Johnston, 13; Samuel Hardy, 11; Fred C. Inman and Nathaniel W. Niles, each.

Exhibition Matches at Montreal

At the request of Harold Grier, president of the Montreal Indoor Tennis Club, the U. S. N. L. T. A. sent a team to play exhibition matches for the benefit of the Canadian Red Cross, Saturday, January 14, 1918. The players were Nathaniel W. Niles, Boston; Harold A. Throckmorton, Elizabeth, N. J.; W. Merrill Hall, New York, and F. B. Alexander, manager, New York.

The affair was a great success. The attractive setting, together with the unusual privilege of playing indoors on dirt courts with a howling blizzard raging outside, and the feeling that tennis from the United States was aiding our allies in a small way, all tended to spur the team to exert themselves to put forward their best efforts. An interesting singles was played between Niles and Throckmorton in which each won a set, when the match was stopped on account of the doubles. Both put up an excellent game, when it is considered that they had had very little practice. A fast doubles match followed in which Alexander and Throckmorton defeated Niles and Hall after losing the first set. Sunday informal exhibitions were played with and against the Canadian experts, in the most notable of which Mr. Harold Grier and Alexander defeated C. Gordon Cushing and Throckmorton, two out of three sets.

CO-OPERATION WITH THE WAR DEPARTMENT'S COMMISSION ON TRAINING CAMP ACTIVITIES.

The annual meeting voted to restore championships this season not merely for the sake of tennis, but in the belief that this action would stimulate more general interest in outdoor sports. The Association has consistently fostered competition, on the ground that anything which promotes the physical well being of the nation is a patriotic service. This belief has been strengthened by the approval of the War Department expressed last season and again voiced for 1918 by Raymond B. Fosdick, Chairman of the War Department's Commission on Training Camp Activities.

All the proceeds of tournaments will be devoted to a fund which the Commission will use to provide tennis facilities for the men in camps, both here and abroad. In addition to the money thus secured the Association will collect from members such gifts of rackets, nets, balls, etc., as are available. This apparatus will be turned over to the Commission and distributed under its direction through the workers of the Y.M.C.A., Knights of Columbus, Y.M.H.A. and other organizations co-operating for the welfare of the men in the service. Mr. Joseph E. Raycroft, director of athletics, is in charge of these activities in the camps.

The plan was cordially approved by the annual meeting and has been endorsed by Mr. Fosdick in the following words: "The value of participation in wholesome athletics as a factor in promoting physical fitness and mental alertness is not to be overestimated. The plan of re-establishing championship tournaments and ranking as a means of stimulating general interest in tennis is desirable. My suggestion that the net proceeds of tournaments be turned over to the War Department's Commission on Training Camp Activities for use in providing athletic facilities for soldiers in training camps is hereby approved." It has been agreed that the money thus secured will be used to supply tennis needs where these exist and any funds thereafter available will go for the promotion of general athletics.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN FOR PHYSICAL FITNESS.

Tennis and foot ball seem to be as utterly different as two sports can be. One depends on team play and the force of physical contact. The other is based on individual skill and strategy. On analysis, however, they are found to have many points in common. Success in tennis is founded on speed, mental alertness, stamina and that intangible characteristic called "nerve," which is generally taken to mean the possession of a fighter's heart. These same qualities make a great foot ball player, for he must be quick and sure of foot, ready to "pick up the ball," and in the game every second of play.

This is perhaps because of these facts that foot ball and tennis have given so generously to the great war game. The foot ball stars are in their country's service—almost to a man—and so are the ranking tennis players. And now comes Walter Camp, the best known figure in the foot ball world, as an advocate of tennis to help make the nation physically fit. Mr. Camp has been doing wonderful work in promoting the physical welfare of men in the navy. He has undertaken with the National Security League, a campaign to show men all over the United States that they must be strong and well if the country is to do its full share in winning the war.

When the League's programme was announced, Julian S. Myrick as vice-president of the National Association offered its co-operation. In this effort the Association's membership is being interested and responses thus far promise progress in this work of conservation. To prove the necessity for physical activity that continues through a man's middle and later life, Mr. Camp calls attention to the fact that one fault with present systems has been that they are too complicated or do not develop the trunk, which needs most attention.

LIEUTENANT GEORGE M. CHURCH.

another difficulty is that men give up their sports as they become engrossed in business or professional cares. "Men of all ages have taken up tennis and we have found it an ideal exercise," says Mr. Camp, "but at most it is an outdoor seasonal sport. And how many tennis players stick to it as a permanent condition? Does not the tennis player enjoy the sport a few years, then abandon it either temporarily or permanently, and thus destroy the hope of securing regularity and continuity in his physical condition, through the hope of even playing an excellent game as tennis really is?"

It was partly with this in mind that the annual meeting of the National Lawn Tennis Association voted to sanction handicap tournaments this season. With practically all the ranking players in uniform, tournaments now must be made up of those who have played in bygone seasons and youngsters below military age, who will make tennis history. By judicious handicaps, players of varying degrees of skill will have the sporting chance of winning that adds zest to any game.

The players' reluctance to enter tournaments while the nation is at war, which was complained of by committee chairmen last season, seems to be removed. All tournaments are being played for the benefit of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, so that the financial results accrue to a good cause. Moreover, in view of the strenuous efforts of Mr. Camp and others doing similar missionary work to build up the nation physically, the competition of this sort is put up to a man as his duty.

"Work? Yes; you and all the rest of us must work harder than ever before!" Uncle Sam says. But no one can work effectively unless he is fit, so outdoor sports is coming into its own as the great upbuilder of the country's people. The passage of the daylight saving bill will help tremendously by giving additional time for outdoor exercise. Young and old can find something to do that will make them stronger physically—and mentally, too—for "a sound mind in a sound body" is as true today as it was when the old Romans coined the phrase. Mr. Camp clinches the argument by saying:

The great question which is exercising us today is one which we now recognize we should have considered a generation ago. A social scientist, with what we now recognize as startling prescience, said, forty years back, that the greatest danger of the future would be the one that could send the most men to the top of the Matterhorn, and the world is proving his case today. Think of our country! And yet when war broke out we were fat, rich, flabby and helpless! It was not ten years after the War of Independence before we had begun to degenerate. The War of 1812 awakened us but little. Then came the Civil War, and when that ended we knew the value of hardened, trained men.

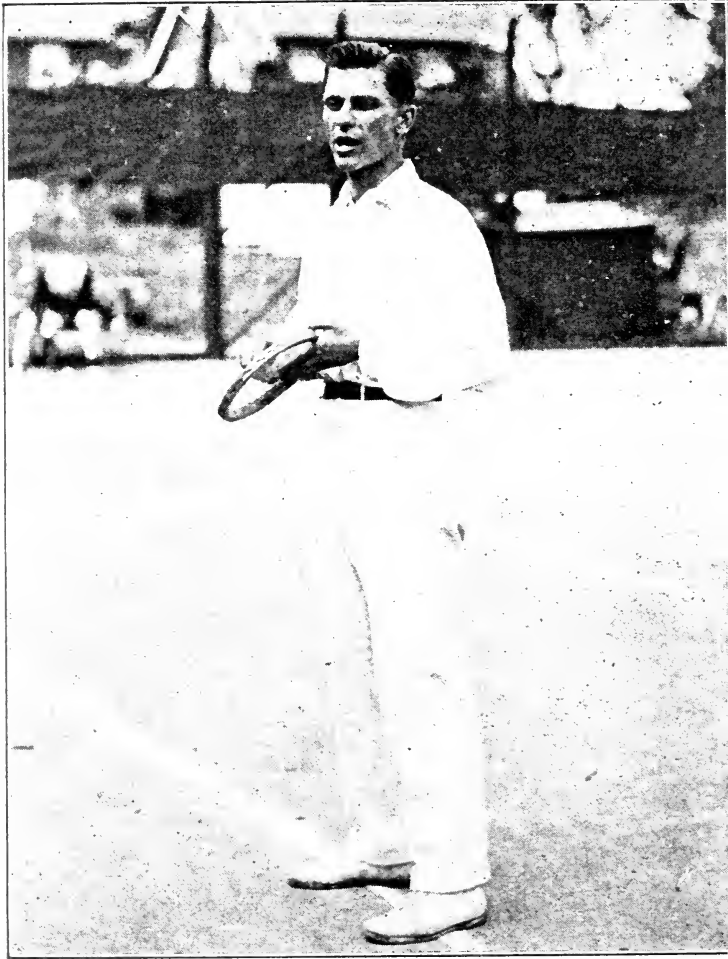

For a time there was a great boom on the physical side. It was then that our colleges began erecting gymnasiums and our people began athletics, notably baseball. We have kept the sports, it is true, but when you turn a nation into a city-drifting, money-mad race, even these sports help but little. No sooner does a boy today finish his school days or his college course than he drops his sports, for what? (more's the pity) for what we, as parents, have been wont to admire, namely, the serious purpose to make money or position in a few years. He gets his nose to the grindstone, and he does not take it up until his back is bent, his chest hollow and the spring of youth gone! Too late he realizes what he has done. Instead, what you want to make of your boy is a rough-bred; a strong, sound man with reserve power, with the stamina and courage to serve his race—and to finish in front."

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION CO-OPERATES WITH NATIONAL SECURITY LEAGUE.

"Upon every man rests the obligation to keep himself physically fit. War demands the nation's resources. None of us can tell what new duties the future may impose upon him. Therefore each and every one of us must make himself ready. Such preparation is patriotic and sensible; the more thoroughly it is made, the better for the future of our country."

In these words Julian S. Myrick, vice-president of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, states the principles on which the Association is urging general participation in outdoor sport. The annual meeting restored championships, which add zest to tournament competition. But this action did and the Association's effort, for the plans for junior and boys' tournaments, successfully developed last season, were elaborated for this year. Having been suspended in war time, they are now being advocated as a sound method of developing the youngsters' interest in athletics. So successful has the plan been that club events are now included under the same regulations as govern juniors'. Supplementing this activity, is the decision of the National Association to inaugurate the movement inaugurated by Walter Camp, to stimulate public interest in physical fitness. Backed by the National Security League, Mr. Camp's committee has written to thousands of mayors requesting them to appoint local committees to conduct this work. Based on the fact that modern warfare is a contest between nations, it is plain that such an effort to conserve the country's strength and power, must have a broad appeal.

At a conference between S. Stanwood Menken, president of the League, Mr. Camp and Mr. Myrick, the National Association's proffer of aid was cordially accepted. Edwin F. Torrey, secretary of the National Association, and Mr. Myrick have been appointed on the general committee headed by Mr. Camp. Through them the co-operation of the tennis public is to be enlisted in an effort to build up a tremendous body of opinion favorable to physical betterment.

As a sport which already appeals to thousands of players throughout the United States, tennis fits into the plan outlined by Mr. Camp. It provides plenty of exercise in a short time and yet is not so strenuous as to overtax those who lack the condition of an athlete. It makes for speed, endurance, sureness of eye and lightning-fast linking of thought and action. Requiring no expensive equipment or large areas for playing space, it is particularly suited for municipal recreation, and in recognition of this fact a great many cities have established public courts.

Answering the questions of those few who doubt the patriotism of sports in war time, is the message of Brand Whitlock, Minister to Belgium, who speaks with an intimate knowledge of European conditions:

"Don't let the young men neglect their games altogether. Remember that Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton and Harrow and that healthy outdoor sports do more to make the nation great than anything besides moral character. They make it physically clean and strong and they teach the lads a sense of fair play and honor—and that is what we are fighting for in this world today."

"Having already sent thousands of men into the service, tennis now stands ready to help those who are left—young and old. The Association has a definite war programme," says Secretary Torrey. "It aims to secure the greatest good for the greatest number. Its ideal is a nation physically fit, and in the accomplishment of that ideal, it seeks the co-operation of every true American."

TENNIS WOMEN ORGANIZE FOR WAR RELIEF.

An organized effort to enlist in war relief work women throughout the United States who are interested in tennis, has been started by the incorporation of the National Tennis Women's War Relief Association. The signers of the certificate of incorporation are Mrs. Lindley Z. Murray, Miss Elizabeth H. Moore, Miss Marie Wagner, Miss Bessie Holden, Miss Molla Bjurstedt and Miss Edith Egg.

This undertaking is the outgrowth of a chain of tournaments played last summer, which proved so successful in raising money that its possibilities are being enlarged this season. It really goes back to a bridge party, which was one of a chain of such events, being played for some charity. "If we can play bridge for such a purpose, why can't we play tennis?" someone asked, and here the plan started.

It was simple enough, for the sixteen women who took part in the first tournament pledged themselves each to hold another in which twelve of their friends could play. Each of the twelve, in turn, was to hold a tournament for eight of her friends, and so on. An entry fee of one dollar was charged each time and this money rolled up a fund which provided for an ambulance, in connection with the campaign of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

Everyone was so well pleased with what had been accomplished by a comparatively small effort on the individual's part that they decided to make it a larger proposition this season. Hence the incorporation of the National Tennis men's War Relief Association. Its purpose as set forth in its by-laws is "to raise, obtain and produce by its own instrumentalities, by any appropriate means, funds, and to furnish and apply the same to war relief." The first source of revenue will be a membership fee of one dollar. This is expected to provide a considerable sum, for the organization is being developed on national lines. Although the start has been made in New York, the idea has well received everywhere, and women who have been approached are enthusiastic as to the possibilities. The scheme of organization is to appoint local committees who will name their own committees in their respective clubs or cities. The local chairmen as members of the board of governors will decide upon the disposition of funds.

When going into every large city—and small ones, too—it is expected that a large number of members will be obtained so that the National Tennis Women's War Relief Association will be truly national in scope. All money received from the Association will be kept intact, as expenses are underwritten by the women interested. The basis is placed on this point, because those promoting the plan want it clearly understood that every cent paid into the treasury goes for relief work. It is not yet known what that will be has not been determined. Perhaps the Association will send women physicians to Europe and maintain them there; it may take up some other activity. Disposition of the fund is to be decided by ballot vote of the board of governors, composed of the officers and the local chairmen. Consequently, every part of the country will have its "say." Membership is open to "Tennis women who are members of clubs holding a membership in the United States National Lawn Tennis Association. Other women not so affiliated may, from time to time, be elected to membership, who, in spirit, intent and purpose, desire to co-operate in the efforts of this organization."

In addition to the membership fees as a source of revenue the Association will hold many one-day tournaments which were so successful last season. Anyone who joins will be expected to produce something for the treasury. A tournament seems out of the question, a dance may be given, or a candy party or anything else that will mean more for the fund. The organizers feel that by giving the women a chance to show just what they can accomplish, they will be placed on their mettle to achieve substantial results.

The plan was submitted to Julian S. Myrick, vice-president of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, for official approval and this was granted, with a cordial wish for the success of the undertaking. Payment of expenses, when determined, will be made through the treasurer of the U.S.N.L.T.A., Mr. W. Wightman of Boston.

Tournaments under the auspices of the National Tennis Women's War Relief Association will not conflict with events scheduled by members of the U.S.N.L.T.A.

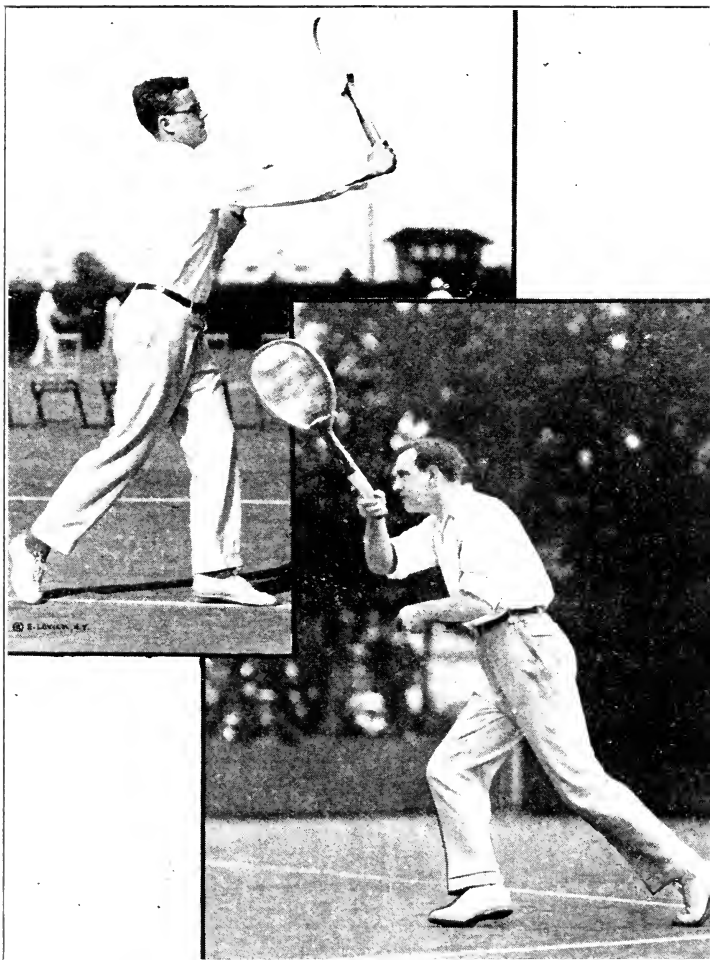

INTEREST IN HANDICAP TOURNAMENTS.

Lovers of tennis believe that the approval of handicap tournaments by the National meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, last season, will tend greatly to stimulate interest in the game this season. One of the chief difficulties tournament committees experienced last summer was to get a well balanced entry list. With the major portion of the country's leading players in military service, it was hard to arrange events that would hold the public's interest. The entry of some man who outclassed the rest of the list would make the tournament more of a procession than a competition.

The Association's decision to sanction handicap events is based on the belief that a good contest provokes more general interest than a one-sided exhibition between a very skillful player and one of lesser ability. This season's programme developed on lines which will make match play appeal to the largest possible number of men and women. By giving every entrant a possible chance to win the tournament, through judiciously distributed handicaps, it is believed that far more interest will be created than otherwise could be possible.

Of course, the handicapping will be the vital factor in determining the success of the programme. In this matter the National Association places all the responsibility of the handicaps in charge of the local committee. Obviously this is the sensible way to adjust the varying degrees of skill for thousands of players throughout the country. Comment on the innovation has been favorable and indications are that the tennis public approves the plan cordially.

PROMOTING JUNIOR AND BOYS' TOURNAMENTS.

is certain that much attention will be devoted to plans for the junior and tournaments during the coming season. Julian S. Myrick, vice-president of the Association, has written to the committee men urging them to take up by the appointment of representatives who will interest themselves in fostering competition for the youngsters.

The limits for these classes are nineteen and sixteen years, respectively, so that competitors attracted to these events are not of military age. They are, therefore, of an age when outdoor sports can be most beneficial in their physical development and consequently the plan has been cordially approved by practically everyone familiar with its details. Elimination tournaments are scheduled throughout the country, and the winners of these events meet in cities designated as tennis centers, to play for the tennis center championship. These winners in turn play for the national championship in each class in tournaments held at the end of the national singles.

Next season the finals brought together the most representative entry of youngsters who ever competed in this country, and the expectation is that this season's matches will attract a still larger entry. The National Association promises medals for the winners of the tennis center events. Applications for sanction of dates on the junior schedule should be sent to the office of the National Association, 20 Broad Street, New York City.

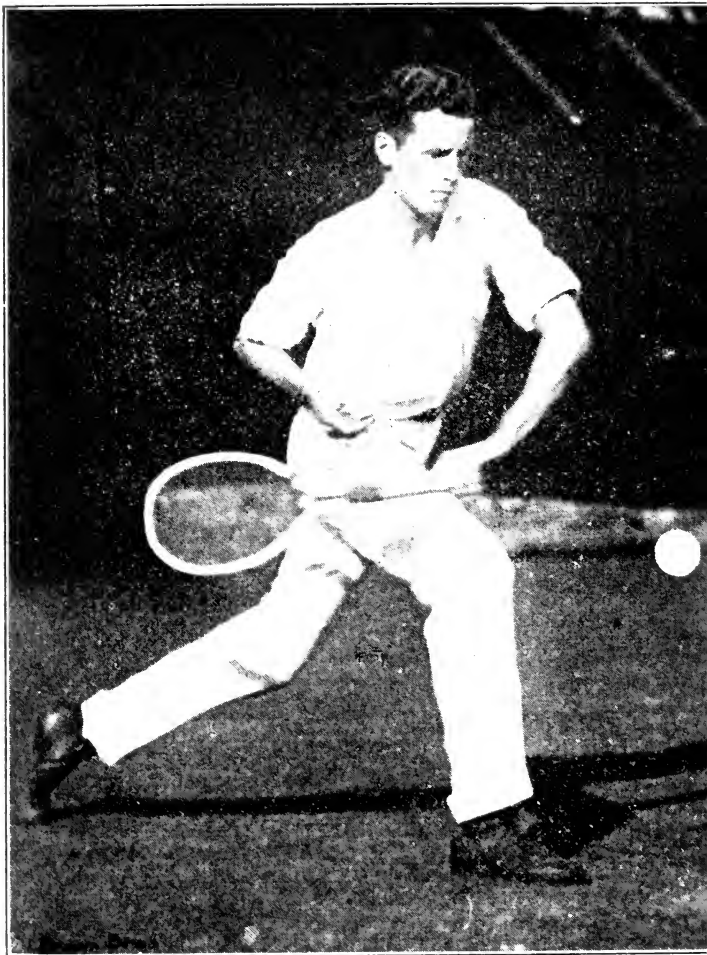

The plan has been broadened this season by including tournaments for girls. A national championship will be played in Philadelphia, June 17, in conjunction with the national women's championship. It is believed that the opportunity for girls to enter the tournaments throughout the country will be welcome and that many such events will be played.

The National Association is undertaking its programme with the full approval of the authorities at Washington. Last summer Major General Leonard Wood, commenting on the plan, said: "With reference to junior tournaments, I think a good plan to have them, especially for the younger boys who are not attending camps." In this connection also, it is interesting to have the opinion of the ally which has been our greatest rival in sport—England. In its discussion of the restoration of championships by the National Association the London Times says:

There is much to say for this decision. In England a similar resumption would have been impracticable, for the simple reason that the voluntary system of enlistment, in vogue here for the first two years of war, provoked a rally of classes and all ages. The men who played lawn tennis, as well as the men who made the materials and shared in its organization, left their bases and joined the national crusade. But in America the systematic calling up of men on the basis of conscription regulates the flow of recruits, leaving a large number of young men keen to pursue games either in civilian employ or in military training. These will not suffer in morale or physical efficiency by competition with the old. On the contrary, they will gain.

Moreover, the American Government is understood to have 'dated' the length of the war fairly accurately. It realizes that for a strenuously living people it would be folly to abolish outlet for national zeal. Nearly every schoolboy of twelve plays lawn tennis on the other side; it is well that these youngsters should have their minds diverted from a great, if inevitable, tragedy."

More attention is being paid to municipal tennis than ever before, in the belief that the thousands of players using public courts deserve support in their effort to procure more adequate equipment.

National Patriotic Tournament

BY FRED B. ALEXANDER.

er a distinctly bad start, tennis made a rapid recovery culminating in the national patriotic tournament, held at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, L. I. The decision of the executive committee of the U.S.N.L.T.A. not to hold championships and to withdraw challenge cups from competitions naturally killed these tournaments of much competitive interest; but the fact that all interested in the game were working tooth and nail to raise the necessary money to equip and recruit ambulance sections for the United States Army, and the fact that the matches between Miss Molla Bjurstedt and Miss Mary Browne, promised an exceptional treat to lovers of the game and aided materially to counteract this drawback. In addition to this, fortunately, the National Association of Tennis enabled to choose a date which coincided with the closing of the first off-training camps all over the country and four members of the first ten national players in 1916 were thus enabled to take part. Naturally their lack of fitness was more than noticeable, but their evident enjoyment of the relaxation afforded by the routine of trench digging and bayonet practice alone was worth the effort of admission.

The State of California belonged the honors, in the person of R. Lindley Murray. He took the blue ribbon of the 1917 season with something to spare. Surprisingly enough, his hardest match occurred in the round before the semi-final, his opponent being Craig Biddle of Philadelphia, before the tourney was considered even a contender. Biddle surprised the critics first by defeating Murray in the second round and then winning over Lieutenant Dean Mathey in the third round. The majority of "the tennis gossips" concluded by that time that he had shot his bolt or had simply struck a lucky streak which would hold out. To their surprise, however, he carried the patriotic champion to the very end of the sets and only succumbed after two hours and a half of gruelling play. The early surprise was the defeat of Karl Behr by Charles S. Garland, the national junior champion. Garland's steadiness and court generalship carried off a victory. Behr was erratic and at no time threatened his young opponent. In the next round Garland made a good showing against John R. Stratton of the Pittsburgher taking one set and making a strong bid for another. Stratton's semi-final against Murray was interesting and the former's famous backhand drive was much admired. However, Murray's rushing net tactics proved too much for him.

On the other side of the draw Nat. W. Niles, the veteran Bostonian, gave a most excellent exhibition of classic tennis form and succeeded in winning his way to the finals. Among the scapels he took was that of champion Lieutenant R. N. Williams, fresh from Plattsburg. Williams had just previously defeated H. A. Knickerbocker in a five-set match in which he showed flashy but erratic tennis. Knickerbocker was brilliant, but even more unsteady than Williams. It was a well worth seeing, if only for the marvelous gets and shots pulled off at unexpected times and pathetic errors made from what should have been easy points. Niles' match with Williams was steady accuracy versus erratic brilliancy. In addition, was played during a rainstorm. Williams gamely stuck to his post but found lack of practice his undoing.

The final match can be summed up in a few words. Murray had found himself out of his element all over the court. Nothing seemed too hard to get and his net play and overhead work was exceptionally good. Niles played the same game he had played throughout the meet and put up a strong fight. It was more or less modern California rushing tactics behind a tremendous service and general good all-around form play without the modern "forcibility," if one can coin a word to cover this case.

Miss Mary Browne, the California wonder, succeeded in taking two out of the three matches played during the men's tourney from Miss Molla Bjurstedt. The difference between the two was very slight and almost anything might have turned the tide.

Charles S. Garland's capture of the national junior championship from the previous year was a foregone conclusion, barring accidents, and he lived up to expectations. Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y., also showed great improvement and knowledge of the finer points of the game usually not seen in one so young. He won the national boys' championship and delighted his friends by his cool and imperturbability at critical times during his matches. The summaries:

National Patriotic Doubles

BY A. NICHOLAS REGGIO.

The decision of the National Association to play the national doubles in one tournament, instead of sections, proved a success the first time it was tried out. The historic courts of the Longwood Cricket Club staged this tournament and a small but select entry resulted. An interesting incident was the return to competition of Malcolm D. Whitman, national champion 1898 to 1900, who paired up with his brother. They were eliminated in the second round in four good sets by Alexander and Throckmorton, who eventually won the tournament.

The two teams which met in the finals, namely, the above mentioned pair and H. C. Johnson and I. C. Wright, had no easy road to the finals. Johnson and Wright had a narrow escape at the hands of S. H. Voshell and F. C. Baggs, and a five-set match was the result of the clash between the Alexander-Throckmorton and Niles-Pell teams, which, perhaps, was the most interesting match of the tournament on account of the hard hitting of the four men. Niles and Pell put up a beautiful exhibition of volleying and driving for three sets, while Throckmorton was a bit unsteady. With the score two sets to one against them, Throckmorton found himself and began to pull the highest type of spectacular tennis, which the veteran team found themselves unable to cope with.

The finals, though perhaps not as interesting to watch, brought out the most scientific tennis of the meet. Johnson and Wright, veterans of the game and masters of the defensive attack, if such may be the term used, depending on their steadiness at all times and ability to hold their own services, centered their attention in the first set on the youngster, Throckmorton. Twice he dropped his service when it looked as though he and his partner had the set salted away, more on account of the excellent play of his opponents than any weakening on his part. Eventually the New York team won the set, 11/9. As on the day before the youngster then found himself, and ably supported by his partner, who played steady, sound tennis throughout the match, they won the next two sets.

Invitation women's singles and mixed doubles events were held during the tournament, which resulted in some very pretty tennis, as several of the best women players in the country took part. Miss Mary K. Browne and Miss Molla Bjurstedt faced each other in the final round of the singles and a good match resulted, with the California girl having the edge all the way through and eventually winning, 6 4, 8 6. In the mixed doubles final Miss Browne and Nat W. Niles disposed of Mrs. George W. Wightman and Lieutenant R. N. Williams, 2d, 4 6, 6/1, 6/4.

MISS MARY K. BROWNE,
Winner Myrick Trophy.

National Women's Patriotic Tournament

BY FRED B. ALEXANDER.

Perhaps the most successful tournament of the 1917 lawn tennis season was the women's blue ribbon event, held as usual on the courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, beginning June 18. Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the young lady from Norway, but who has made her home in the United States, carried off triple honors, winning the singles, doubles and mixed doubles. Miss Eleonora Sears was her partner in the doubles and she was paired with Irving C. Wright in the mixed.

The entry list was classy in the singles. Besides all the local players of note and the star from Norway, Miss Eleonora Sears and Miss Marion Zinderstein came from Boston, while New York pinned her hopes on Miss Marion Vanderhoef, Mrs. Rawson Wood and others. Unexpectedly, Miss Bjurstedt had no easy road through the tournament. Her first hard match was with Miss Zinderstein in the third round. The latter, probably the youngest expert in the event, put up a sterling game, finally losing, 6 4, 7 5. The semi-finals brought out a peculiar match. Mrs. Gilbert Harvey sprung a surprise on the Norse girl, taking the first set, 6/4, but thereafter was unable to score a game.

On the other side of the draw Miss Vanderhoef, by steady, scientific tennis, had battled her way through Miss Thomson and Miss Moes rather easily, but had a hard match against Miss White, which she finally won in three sets. In the semi-finals she met Miss Sears and defeated her in an interesting contest in straight sets, 8 6, 6/3. An excellent match resulted in the finals. As in former matches, Miss Bjurstedt was slow to get started, and by excellent play Miss Vanderhoef won the first set, 6 4. Thereafter the champion improved and by brilliant play won the last two sets, 6 0, 6 2.

Miss Bjurstedt and Miss Sears went through the doubles without the loss of a set, though their first match against Miss White and Miss Disston was hard fought, both sets going to deuce, 8/6, 7/5.

It remained for the mixed doubles to provide the exciting match of the meet, and that one the finals between Miss Bjurstedt and Irving C. Wright and Miss Ballin and William T. Tilden, Jr. The Bjurstedt-Wright combination won out, 10 12, 6/1, 6/3, after one of the best exhibitions of this type of game ever seen.

TENNIS TOURNEY FOR WIVES AND HUSBANDS.

A championship tournament for husbands and wives has been scheduled by the New York Tennis Club to begin June 13, and has received the sanction of the U.S.N.L.T.A. The plan was copied from the English Lawn Tennis Association, that has for many years conducted a husband and wife meeting as a national championship on the courts at Nottingham. The titles there have several times been won by the famous George W. Hillyard and Mrs. Hillyard. It is proposed at the next meeting of the American governing body to establish the tournament in this country with a national title. Miss Marie Wagner, whose suggestion was chiefly responsible for the launching of the tournament, indicated that under the novel eligibility the greatest mixed doubles competition ever held in this country could be decided. Because of the active part the women have taken in launching the tournament the funds derived from it will be contributed to the Women's War Relief Committee. Mrs. William H. Pritchard was appointed to take charge of the details and entry list.

SAMUEL HARDY,
Chicago, Ill.

Winner Chicago City doubles; singles and doubles, Western Pennsylvania tournament; singles and doubles, Clay Court patriotic tournament at Cincinnati; Western doubles; Missouri Valley doubles; singles, doubles and mixed doubles, Ohio State tournament.

Clay Court Patriotic Tournament

The tournament opened July 7 on the grounds of the Cincinnati Tennis Club, the largest list ever enrolled in Cincinnati, there being one hundred and twenty-two individual entries. The following out-of-town players took part: Charles S. Garland of Pittsburgh and Samuel Hardy of Chicago in the men's events; Mrs. Walter E. Ellis of California and Miss Rachael B. Hanna of Columbus in the women's events. The committee in charge of the tournament made no effort to get out-of-town players, therefore they were doubly appreciative of the voluntary entries of the visitors. A great deal of interest was manifested in the local matches, for it was the first time in many years that an event strictly local tournament had been held in Cincinnati.

Hardy and Garland were in different halves of the draw, and both eliminated two of their opponents. The final round proved to be a beautiful exhibition of tennis. It went five sets before Hardy was able to nose out his younger opponent. Garland took the first set at 6/3 and it looked for a time as though he would win in straight sets. Hardy, however, got going in the second set and won it at 6/1. The third set was all for Garland, Hardy seeming to tire. In the fourth set, however, the Chicagoan came back and won, making the match two sets each. Garland appeared to have the upper hand at the start of the fifth set and won two games before Hardy got going. Due to the lateness of the hour, the light was bad, and this somewhat bothered Garland. Hardy's playing at this time was a revelation. After he had evened up the score to two-all, Hardy never was headed and won at 6/3. Hardy and Garland in the upper half of the Hopple and Emerson in the lower half came through to the finals in the men's doubles. The first named team won in straight sets.

In the women's singles Miss Ruth Sanders had no difficulty in going through to the final round, where she disposed of Mrs. Walter E. Ellis. Miss Sanders and Mrs. Gregg easily defeated Mrs. Ellis and Miss Adele Levy in the final round of the women's doubles. In the mixed doubles some very interesting matches occurred, as well as some upsets of the dope. The first upset occurred when Miss Sanders and Howard Cordes eliminated Mrs. Ellis and Samuel Hardy and Emerson defeated Miss Leonora Hofer and Charles Garland in the final. In these matches the success of the local teams was well earned.

Quite a sum was realized for the Red Cross, although bad weather kept many of the people away from the matches. The summaries:

S. HOWARD VOSHELL,
National Indoor Champion, 1913.

National Indoor Championships, 1918

By again winning the singles event in the nineteenth indoor championships for men, S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn, N. Y., fresh from his aviation work at Princeton, bracketed his name with that of W. C. Grant, T. R. Pell and G. F. Touchard, all of whom have held the title two or more times. In the doubles Lieut. King Smith gained access to the championship roll after years of endeavor; paired with G. C. Shafer (a winner twice before) he came to the final without being really pressed but once. The meeting was held as usual on the board courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory, New York, but unlike previous meetings, the time-honored February date was eschewed and the play scheduled for Saturday, March 30, and ending April 6. The war and attendant shortage of coal brought this about. It was impossible to heat the armory, so the date was set back about six weeks, in the expectation that artificial heat would not be necessary. This expectation was realized. The armory temperature was just about right and the daylight saving law being effective made late afternoon play much more pleasurable than in former years.

Taylor, Smith, Tilden and Manchester all won their third round matches easily. Alexander's match with Parker was a little closer. Rosenbaum about fulfilled expectations when he won from Shafer in three sets. He was lucky, however, to get the first at 7-5 after a severe struggle. Voshell was extended to the limit by Emerson. It was about as even as one could wish, and Voshell's victory at 9-7 was due to his greater steadiness in the pinches. In the fourth round all the matches were close. The Tilden-Taylor contest was marked by much brilliance, both men using great speed and aggressive tactics. Against Alexander, Rosenbaum tried hard enough, but he could make no headway against Alexander's brilliant work, and he did well to get that one game. Voshell had to go all out against Manchester in the second set, after taking the first at 6-3. Smith defeated Bowman in two 6-4 sets. The Alexander-Tilden match was a very fine one, abounding in brilliant strokes and fast play, while Smith was defeated by Voshell. In the final round Alexander was not as good as against either Rosenbaum or Tilden, but he was opposed to a very different game. Voshell employed exactly the right methods and his tactics were as good as his strokes. It was a beautiful match to watch and one so close that the tide might have turned at almost any time.

There were a number of surprises in the doubles. Cragin and Cunningham disposed of Voshell and Baggs in straight sets, both of them being close, however. The big match of the second round was the Alexander-Rosenbaum vs. Gallon-Gatcomb contest. It was played on a rainy day, when the light was so bad that artificial illumination was employed. Gallon's cannon ball service was difficult to see and almost unplayable when it went in and all four men were hitting hard and playing aggressively. Alexander and Rosenbaum lost the second set and won the first only at 8-6, but in the third Gallon and Gatcomb went off considerably and got only three games. It was fast tennis from start to finish and it was a great pity that there was not better light for it. In the final round Cragin and Cunningham were toppled over unexpectedly and almost unaccountably by Shafer and Smith, while Tilden and Donaldson took Alexander and Rosenbaum into camp in a close finish. The final round was very tame after the first set. Shafer and Smith played exactly the sort of game to win, and after the first set there was no real doubt of the outcome. The summaries:

National Indoor Women's Championships, 1918

Miss Molla Bjurstedt won the annual tournament for the women's indoor championship—the thirteenth of the series—held on the courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory, the scene of many previous contests, March 25, 1918, and following days. Miss Marie Wagner, last year's winner, did not play. In Miss Wagner's absence Miss Eleanor Goss was the most likely opponent of Miss Bjurstedt in the final round and expectations were realized. Before then Miss Bjurstedt was never pressed, while Miss Goss had her hardest match when she met Miss Helen Pollak. Miss Bjurstedt defeated Mrs. Johan Rogge—a fellow countrywoman—in the semi-final round, losing only one game. There was a great deal of very fine driving in the match and a majority of the games were stubbornly contested by Mrs. Rogge. Miss Pollak fought with Miss Goss on almost all terms, playing with snap and determination. Miss Goss played confidently well; she had no weakness, and her aggressive volleying was particularly noteworthy. She won, 7/5,6/4. The final round was the best in several years. Miss Goss showed very marked improvement over her play of the previous year, when she had faced Miss Wagner in the final round. Miss Bjurstedt's triumph was due to experience and concentration on certain decisive strokes. The match was in the second round of the doubles that the great upset occurred. Miss Bjurstedt and Mrs. Rogge won the first set from Mrs. Green and Miss Winn and needed to be in command of the match, but they fell down at critical points as their opponents took advantage of these lapses. In the final Mrs. Weaver and Miss Goss took the first set easily from Mrs. Green and Miss Winn and needed likely to do the same in the second. But the latter pair then braced themselves, after a bitter fight, were defeated at 11/9. The summaries:

Middle States Women's Patriotic Tournament

The Middle States women's patriotic tournament was held on the turf courts of the Staten Island Ladies' Club during the week of June 4. The singles began with an entry list of twenty-eight and only four defaults were registered. The doubles draw did not divide the strength of the tournament as evenly as was the case in the singles, where both semi-final and final matches furnished contests of unusual merit, and in the former event the lower half was distinctly top-heavy, four of the strongest teams being grouped there. On the last day of the tournament an exhibition match was played between Miss Florence Ballin and F. B. Alexander and Miss Molla Bjurstedt and Harold Throckmorton, which was won by the latter team. The gross proceeds of the tournament from entrance fees and gate receipts, amounting to over $180, were turned over to the Red Cross. The summaries:

Eagles Mere (Pa.) Athletic Association.—Despite the fact that no championship was at stake, the entry list for the annual tournament was well filled. Play began on August 27 on the Crestmont clay courts, but it was necessary to postpone play for two days on account of rain. The events were keenly contested; in fact, the word sensation would better express the quality of play in some of the matches. The men's singles was won for the second time in succession by J. M. Wistar of Philadelphia, giving him another leg on the cup, but he did not gain the honors without a struggle. His opponent in the final round, John Kunkel of Harrisburg, had two sets and a score of 30—love when Wistar pulled himself together and by a remarkable exhibition of nerve turned a seeming defeat into victory. F. H. Jarvis and C. W. Dickson won the men's doubles by defeating Endicott and Wistar in the final round, although they had to dispose of some excellent players to come through. The women's singles was won by Miss Elizabeth Osborne of Philadelphia, a thirteen-year-old girl, whose ability was far beyond her years and served to defeat more experienced players. Miss Paine and Endicott defeated Miss MacGowan and Thomas in the final round of mixed doubles. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—Wistar d. Miller, 6,4,6,2; Kunkel d. Endicott, 6,1,3,6,7/5. Final round—Wistar d. Kunkel, 6,3,5,7,4,6,7,5,6,0. Men's Doubles—Semi-final round—Jarvis and Dickson d. Miller and Thomas, 10,8,4,6,6,4; Endicott and Wistar d. Middle Atlantic Patriotic Tournament

The Middle Atlantic patriotic tournament, held on the courts of the Columbia Country Club, near Washington, D. C., during the week of May 28, brought out a good field of contestants and the tennis displayed was entirely satisfactory. J. Gore bowled over four opponents before reaching the final, his hardest test being with George Lewis in the third round. He met E. A. Leech in the deciding round, winning in straight sets. C. B. Doyle and A. B. Heaton won the doubles, while in the women's singles Miss A. M. Doyle defeated Miss M. Ballin in the final, 6/2,3/6,6/2. The summaries:

Shelville (N. C.) Country Club.—By disposing of A. J. Ware in the final round, 6/1,8/0, E. Phelps won leading honors at the annual open tournament which began August 7. Phelps repeated in the doubles final with Burthe as a partner, but they were forced to play good tennis to wrest the laurels from Rodgers and Allen, three deuce sets being necessary, 7/5,9/7,9/7. R. Rutledge won the consolation event from P. Foster, 3/6,6/4,6/9. Miss Chapman proved best in the women's singles, Mrs. Garrison, her opponent in the final, forcing her to go three sets, 6/1,1/6,6/4. The mixed doubles went to Miss Chapman and Phelps after Mrs. Robertson and Rodgers had put up stubborn resistance in the final set, the match ending, 6/1,7/5.

Pinehurst Mid-Winter Tournament.—Christian Mack of Ann Arbor, Mich., won the singles in the mid-winter tournament of the Pinehurst (N. C.) Country Club, beginning January 7, 1918. Hugh G. Otis and Whitehead in the final, 7/5,6/2,8/6. Tufts in the final, 6/2,6/3. The mixed doubles was taken by Miss Ballin and H. G. Whitehead, who defeated Miss C. Bogart and Charles Horton in the final.

Southern Intercollegiate Championships.—Tulane University and Georgia Institute of Technology were the only institutions represented in the Southern intercollegiate championships, held on the clay courts of the New Orleans Country Club, beginning April 28. In 1915 and 1916, Tulane swept the Georgians off their feet in both singles and doubles. Douglas S. Watters won the final round of singles from Edgar Morris, 6/2,6/3, and the pair triumphed over George Howard and Frank Owens in the final round of doubles, 6/0,6/3,6/3.

RALPH H. BURDICK.

WALTER T. HAYES.

Runnersup Western Patriotic Tournament.

Hayes defeated Burdick for singles honors in the Chicago City, Illinois State and Edgewater Beach tournaments. He also won the Western and Missouri Valley tournaments from Sam Hardy and defeated Ed Oelsner in the Chicago Tennis Club championship. Paired in doubles, Hayes and Burdick played good tennis throughout the season.

Western Patriotic Tournament

BY A. H. LAWSON.

For the first time in many years the Western tournament was held on clay courts. Hitherto it has been the custom for the tennisdom of Chicago to journey to the beautiful grounds of the Onwentsia Country Club, at Lake Forest, to watch the participants of this tournament play their matches on grass courts. It has long been felt by the followers of the game that it would be better if courts located more conveniently to Chicago could be secured. The Chicago Tennis Club, being located within twenty minutes' ride of the business section of the city, proved an ideal place, and here the tournament was played, beginning July 28. Although they could not furnish the grass courts available at Onwentsia, their clay courts were considered the best in the city. The heat during the early part of the tournament was terrific, but this seemed to agree with the players, and all matches were run off according to schedule.

War conditions interfered with the entries of out-of-town players, though. Fortunately, Charles S. Garland, the boy wonder of Pittsburgh, entered in the singles and in the doubles with Sam Hardy. In the singles nothing spectacular occurred, everyone playing true to form, Hayes, Garland, Hardy and Burdick reaching the semi-finals without having to extend themselves. Here age and experience proved too much for youth, Hayes defeating Garland in four sets, 6,6,3,7/5,6/2, and Hardy winning from Burdick in the same number, 1,6,6,0,2,6/2. To one who watched the doubles matches, from the first round it was easily seen that the finals would be played by the Burdick-Hayes and Hardy-Garland teams. This prophecy proved correct and Hardy and Garland succeeded in downing the Western champions in a five-set match, 6,2,4,6,7,5,3,6,6,3.

In the women's tournament the out-of-town entries were more numerous than in the men's, Mrs. Walter Ellis of Los Angeles, Miss Evelyn Seavey and Mrs. L. S. Peer of Kansas City and Mrs. E. L. Thirlby of Travis City being the most prominent visitors. Miss Neely captured the singles honors by defeating Miss Voorhees in straight sets, 6,0,6,3, and Miss Neely and Miss Seavey won the doubles after a gruelling two-set match, 15'13,6/3. The summaries:

Denver City Patriotic Tennis Tournament.—As usual, the annual tourney was held on the city park courts, commencing August 4. The number of entries was larger than ever before and over $100 was realized for the good cause. E. R. Bailey, runnerup in 1916, won the singles title by defeating Jack Phelps in the finals, 6,2,7/5,3/6,2/6,6/3. Harker and Bailey won the men's doubles from Buell and Short in straight sets, 6,2,6/1,6/2. Mixed doubles were substituted for the junior women's doubles and proved a great success, Miss Stella Oberlander and Don Harker winning from Miss Annette Meyer and Allan Chamberlain, 6,2,6,1. Annette Meyer, the sixteen-year-old high school champion, won the junior women's singles, defeating Miss Adelaide Pivan in the finals, 6,3,6,1. Miss Oberlander, the North Denver champion, after striving for three years, annexed the women's singles title from Mrs. Cline 6/4,6/4. McKnight in the semi-finals in straight sets, 7/5,6/4,6/1, in the doubles, many thought that they would repeat in the finals. But the "dope" was again upset when Page and Williams won, 6/2,6/2,5/7,6/3. Miss Case won the women's singles, defeating Elizabeth Klotz, 6,2,6,3. The latter, with her sister, Dorothy, won the women's doubles. Ben Page and Miss Miriam Steever won the mixed doubles. The tightest match in the tournament was between this pair and Mrs. Malcolm McNeill, Jr., and J. R. McKnight in the semi-finals, the scores being 7/5,4/6,6/4, with almost every game deuce. The final match was won against H. Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Klotz in straight sets, 6/2,6/3.

Northwestern Patriotic Tournament

fact that there were no titles at stake in tennis competition last year did dampen the ardor of the racket wielders of the Northwest. The game was played to the height all through the year, with plenty of good court battles. The fact that a patriotic angle was woven into the tournaments brought out a larger number of players than in many years past.

The Northwestern tournament, of course, was the biggest net event of the year, and the meet was a success from a financial standpoint as well as from a competitive point of view. It was held on the courts of the Deephaven Tennis Club, Minnetonka, Minn., beginning July 22. Enough money was raised in this tournament alone to insure the required amount for an ambulance unit from the Northwestern Association. Joseph J. Armstrong of St. Paul carried off leading honors in this event, defeating a classy field of players in rather easy fashion. In the doubles final Philip Brain and Myron Hutchinson, former Pacific Coast champions, defeated the best pair of players the Northwest has ever turned out, Adams and Joe Armstrong. It was one of those five-set battles that lasted with interest at the boiling point all the way through.

Miss Marguerite Davis of St. Paul didn't have to play at the top of her game in order to eliminate Miss Carrie B. Neely of Chicago in the final round of the women's singles. She won hands down, 6/3,6,2,6 0. Miss Davis' opponent in the semi-final round was Mrs. W. Ellis, who was rather easily disposed of, 6/1,6,6,6. The other semi-finalist, Miss Eugenie Crosby, succumbed by the same margin. The summaries:

South Jersey Patriotic Tournament.—The eighteenth annual open tournament, held the courts of the Ocean City (N. J.) Perfect weather conditions prevailed and the tournament marked by exceptionally good tennis every day. Percy S. Osborne produced the surprise of the tournament by eliminating Dr. Philip B. Hawk, 1916 winner, in the semi-round, 6/2,8/6, and continued his good work in the finals by disposing of Everett Mosier, 6/4,6/2,6/3, thus earning the right to premier honors. In an exhibition round Harvey Y. Lake, the title holder, Osborne succumbed in straight sets, 6/1,6/4. 5 good teams were entered in the men's doubles, but Osborne with Thomas M. Pacific Coast Tournaments

Pacific Coast Patriotic Tournament

The Pacific Coast patriotic tournament, originally scheduled to take place at Long Beach, Cal., was switched to the Claremont Country Club courts of Oakland. Men's, mixed doubles and consolation events were dropped, and the four singles tournaments were played on Saturdays and Sundays, starting June 14.

William M. Johnston, who won the premier title three times, again stamped himself as the Coast's leading player, when he emerged from the tournament on top of the heap. Mrs. George W. Wightman of Boston regained the laurels she won so many times in years past as Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, going through a field of thirty-six players.

Ervin Griffin, one of "Peck's" younger brothers, went to a swift victory in the junior championship, completely outshining all his foes and winning from Wallace Bates in the final in straight sets. The boys' tournament, for under fifteen years of age, was handily won by a thirteen-year-old named Tommie, who shows every promise of reaching a high rank later on. The summary:

Pacific Coast Sectional Doubles

For a number of years Nat B. Browne and Claude A. Wayne of Los Angeles have been striving to win the Pacific Coast sectional doubles, and nearly every year they have been meeting defeat at the hands of a San Francisco team which is only a bit better. Last year, when the National Association changed the rules for the championship of the United States to a straight open tournament event, and because the war put the kibosh on championships, they won the sectional doubles! Although they defeated the team that for three years were national doubles champions, the victory avails them nothing but the honor of winning from Hughlin and Bundy. The final matches were concluded on the afternoon of the 4th of July. All contests were staged on the courts of the Hotel Virgil at Long Beach.

In an exhibition singles match of two sets only, "Billy" Johnston and M. McLoughlin divided the honors. Johnston won the first set at 6/3, McLoughlin playing in very poor form. In the second set the "Comet's" serving and d were quite up to their high standard of two or three years ago and they fairly sizzled over the net. He seemingly had Johnston at his mercy in the end and won easily at 6/2. Miss Mary K. Browne played snappy tennis against Miss Florence Sutton and won the finals of the women's singles at 6/3, 6/3; the mixed doubles Miss Mary Browne and her brother Nat had considerable difficulty in coming into the final round, where they met Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bundy. The Bundys played invincible tennis the first set and won a but lost the next two sets at 6/3, 6/1. The men's singles were not finished, Herbert Hahn and Victor Dixon being in the final round. The summaries

Pacific Northwest Patriotic Tournament

The twenty-seventh annual Pacific Northwest tournament was held on grounds of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis Club during the week of July 30. There was a large entry list among the men notwithstanding the fact that a large number of players had been called to the colors. The tournament also marked the beginning of the Pacific Northwest sectional doubles. Nothing has equaled it in interest shown by both players and spectators since the old international doubles, which added so much zest to tennis in this section of the country.

Marshall Allen of Seattle won the leading honors in a five-set match against Brandt Wickersham. The men's doubles went to Henry Hewitt and P. Denton, while the sectional doubles was won by Beals C. Wright and Brandt Wickersham, the winners being forced to play extra sets with all of their opponents to the end of the final round. Miss Sara Livingston defeated Miss Mayme McDonald, 6/3,8,6, in the finals, thus giving her the right to title honors. Miss McDonald and Miss Schreiner won the doubles and Miss Livingston and Marshall Allen annexed the mixed doubles. The summaries:

Willamette Valley Patriotic Tournament

The fourth annual Willamette Valley tournament, held July 19 and following days, on the Salem (Ore.) Wolfard, the Northwest and Oregon State champion, won the singles and with A. S. Frohman, another Portland player, annexed the doubles title. The third consecutive year Mrs. Northrup won the women's singles. She defeated Miss Campbell in the final round, 6/1,6/0. Mrs. Northrup paired with Fording in the doubles and carried off leading honors by defeating Miss Bell and Miss McBride, 6/1,6/1. Brookton (Mass.) Country Club.—The Plymouth County patriotic tournament was played on the courts of the Brookton Club, beginning July 9. With the exception of his first match, Dr. E. S. Chase had little trouble in disposing of his other opponents and carrying off premier honors. One of the most exciting matches occurred in the third round when A. R. Mack and C. W. Barrill fought a hard three-set match, which the former won, 7,8,6,6,4. The Dr. Keith-Aldrich set-to in the second round was another interesting match, with Aldrich leading at the finish, 8/10,6,1,7,5. The summaries: Semi-final round—Dr. E. S. Chase d. A. R. Mack, 6/2,6/1; Dr. I. W. Gifford d. W. M. Leonard, 6/1,6/1. Final round—Dr. Chase d. Dr. Gifford, 6/2,6/0.

Mountain Lawn Tennis Club, Jackson, N. H.—The ninth annual open patriotic tournament of the Iron Mountain Lawn Tennis Club commenced August 6, 1917, on the courts of the Iron Mountain House. The contest did not include the championship of the East Side of the White Mountains, but certificates were given to the runners-up and winners. There was a good entry list, although many entered simply to contribute to the Red Cross, there being numerous defaults in the early rounds. The headquarters of the American Red Cross was given twenty-five per cent of the net profits of the tournament, the balance divided equally between the Jackson and North Conway Chapters. The courts were in excellent condition and the weather, with the exception of one day, was ideal that could be desired. Considering the small number of young people in the area, the tournament was a great success. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—E. V. Page d. W. H. Abbott, 8/6,4/6,9/7; A. Lyle Leverich d. M. L. Lesser, 6/1,6/1. Final round—Page d. Leverich, 6/2,6/1,6/0. Men's Doubles—Semi-final round—Leverich and F. E. Ward d. J. S. Remond and A. D. Fowler by default; W. H. 10th Regiment Tennis Club, New York City.—W. Merrill Hall defeated Arthur S. in the title round, 6/2,6/3,6/4, at the annual indoor tournament, held on the board courts of the club, during January, 1918. W. Dickson Cunningham and Samuel R. Oster won the doubles title by disposing of L. Anderson and Fred Acker, 6/2,6/1,6/1. Oster has been playing well during the past year, his victories including the championship of Jersey City and the open invitation tournament of the Notlek Tennis Club, New York. In doubles he won the Hudson County, N. J., title and followed this up by winning the final on the clay courts of the New York Tennis Club, in October.

COMPETITORS IN SEABRIGHT PATRIOTIC ROUND ROBIN TOURNAMENT

Seabright Patriotic Tournament

The usual tournament at Seabright was abandoned and two round robins—one for men and the other for women—substituted. Miss Mary K. Browne won the latter and Fred C. Inman and Lyle E. Mahan captured the former. Play began August 1 and finished the following Saturday. The standing of the players follows:

MEN'S ROUND ROBIN.

- F. C. Inman and L. E. Mahan, won 4, lost 0.
 K. H. Behr and N. W. Niles, won 3, lost 0.
 F. B. Alexander and E. H. Binzen, won 2, lost 2.
 T. R. Pell and B. S. Prentice, won 1, lost 3.
 H. Ward and H. A. Plummer, won 0, lost 4.

WOMEN'S ROUND ROBIN.

- Miss Mary K. Browne, won 2, lost 0.
 Miss Molla Bjurstedt, won 1, lost 1.
 Mrs. L. R. Williams, won 0, lost 2.

Once more Inman and Mahan proved a winning pair. They played good tennis and did not lose a match, although Pell and Prentice captured the first set from them. Against Alexander and Binzen it was only in the first set that there was any doubt of the result; after winning that set at 9-7 the superior team work of Inman and Mahan prevailed. Holcombe Ward returned to competition for his meeting, pairing with Howard A. Plummer. The pair failed to win a match, but they made their best showing against Inman and Mahan, taking the first set at 9-7. Nat Niles came over from Boston to do his bit for the Ambulance Fund on the courts which were the scene of his two Achelis Cup victories, and he and Karl Behr got along well together.

The chief interest was centered in the play of Miss Browne and Miss Bjurstedt, who, with Mrs. L. R. Williams, played against each other. Mrs. Williams lost to both her rivals. The Miss-Browne-Miss Bjurstedt match was a remarkable one. In the first set Miss Browne could make no headway, although she was going well. The set was Miss Bjurstedt's at 6-1. She started well in the second set also, but Miss Browne changed her tactics, staying back more and meeting drives with drives. The change was a success, for after a bitter struggle she nosed out at 6-4. In the third set Miss Browne tried again to take command at the net, and again she failed. Miss Bjurstedt was driving well again, and she ran into a lead of 3-0 and 4-1. With defeat almost certain Miss Browne again switched, keeping back more and matching drive with drive. The tactics were successful, for she gradually gained, and after drawing level pressed on to victory, but only at 7-5. It was a fine burst of speed, and it seemed to carry Miss Bjurstedt almost off her feet.

Country Club of Pittsfield, Pittsfield, Mass.—George W. Pike and R. L. James were the finalists in men's singles at the Berkshire County patriotic tournament which began September 1. Leading honors went to Pike in a four-set match, two of which he won without much trouble and the other two being well played, with James getting the upper hand in one. Worth and McCabe took the doubles honors by disposing of Smith and Pike in straight sets. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—R. L. James d. E. S. Chase, 6/4,6/3; G. W. Pike d. A. H. Chapin, 6/0,6/4. Final round—Pike d. James, 6/0,6/3, 6/6,6/1. Men's Doubles—Semi-final round—W. Smith and G. W. Pike d. E. T. Buckingham and P. Smith, 1/6,8/6,6/2; H. Worth and McCabe d. N. H. Bangs and E. Dunn, 7/3,6/0. Final round—Worth and McCabe d. Smith and Pike, 8/6,6/0,6/2.

Jeannette (Pa.) Tennis Club.—James Hughes won leading honors in the Westmoreland county patriotic tournament, held on the courts of the Jeannette Club, beginning July 9. His opponent in the final round was L. Gordon Clark, who played consistently but could not overcome his rival's superior skill. Hughes and Harry Garman captured the men's doubles and Miss Riddle and Garman were successful in the mixed. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—James Hughes d. F. A. Galer, 3/6,6/4,7/5,6/2; L. G. Clark d. Robert Bloom, 6/4,6/2,6/1. Final round—Hughes d. Clark 6/3,6/2,6/4. Men's Doubles—Semi-final round—Robson and Cown d. Clark and Rylander, 6/1,6/2,6/3; Hughes and Garman d. Galer and Baum, 6/4,6/3. Final round—Hughes and Garman d. Robson and Cown, 6/1,6/4,6/3. Mixed Doubles—Final round—Miss Riddle and Garman d. Miss Rylander and Cown, 6/1,6/4.

Southampton Patriotic Tournament

It was planned to hold the usual Southampton invitation tournament, but as there were not enough acceptances to make it advisable, a round robin for men and one for women, both doubles, was put on instead, supplemented with a series of exhibition matches between well known players. The contests began Tuesday, August 7, and ended the following Saturday.

Strachan and Inman were best in the men's doubles, winning all of their matches. They made a good team, Strachan being the leader, with Inman backing him well. Alexander and Throckmorton were next. The standing of the four teams follows:

- J. R. Strachan and F. C. Inman, won 3, lost 0.
- F. B. Alexander and H. A. Throckmorton, won 2, lost 1.
- S. H. Voshell and F. C. Baggs, won 1, lost 2.
- L. E. Mahan and W. Rosenbaum, won 0, lost 3.

Mrs. Rawson L. Wood made the fourth in the women's round robin, the other three being Miss Browne, Miss Bjurstedt and Mrs. Williams. As at Seabright, Miss Browne carried off the honors, winning all three of her matches. When she met Miss Bjurstedt each had two wins and no defeats as their record. The standing follows:

- Miss Mary K. Browne, won 3, lost 0.
- Miss Molla Bjurstedt, won 2, lost 1.
- Mrs. L. R. Williams, won 1, lost 2.
- Mrs. Rawson L. Wood, won 0, lost 3.

When Miss Browne and Miss Bjurstedt took the court for their match Saturday afternoon the big gallery felt that a critical moment had been reached in the duel between the two players. But their hopes of a long and close match were speedily ended. Miss Bjurstedt did not play up to her usual form and was good only in streaks. Miss Browne played a snappy, aggressive game and won handily, 6/2,6 4.

Engleside Tennis Club, Beach Haven, N. J.—William T. Tilden, Jr., won the Central New Jersey patriotic tournament, held on the courts of the Engleside Tennis Club, beginning July 21. Tilden's opponent in the final round was Norman W. Swayne, a clubmate, and he was forced to show his best to overcome Swayne's fine defensive tactics in a five-set match. Rodney Beck was paired with Tilden in the doubles and they won the finals in straight sets from George Throckmorton and Hosmer W. Hanna, although the losers looked good at the start and came very close to capturing the first set. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—Norman W. Swayne d. Henderson for leading honors in singles, and Henderson and Elliott Binzen took the final round of doubles from Benjamin Letson and E. J. Clapp. Most of the finals produced exciting matches and the last set of the doubles was a thriller, forty games being necessary to decide the winner. Country Club of Scranton, Scranton, Pa.—The most interesting match of the patriotic tournament ending July 4 was the finals, in which John A. Magee of New York met Robert B. McClave of Scranton. McClave won the first set with comparative ease, 6/0, but the next two sets were won by Magee by some exceptionally fine tennis and a wonderful uphill game, by the deuce scores of 7/5 and 8/6. The fourth set went to McClave with a score of 7/5, making it necessary for the match to go into the fifth set, which McClave won, 7/5. The winners in the doubles play were Henry O'Boyle and Charles Hughes, both of West Pittston, who defeated R. B. McClave and Roland Von Maur of Scranton. A Red Cross contribution was taken and a substantial amount produced from a good sized and enthusiastic gallery. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—J. A. Magee d. James Hughes, 6/0/6/2; Robert B. McClave d. Henry O'Boyle, 6/0/8. Final round—McClave d. Magee, 6/0,5/7,6/8,7/5,7/5. Men's Doubles—Semi-final round—Robert B. McClave and Roland Von Maur d. J. New Haven (Conn.) Lawn Club.—Arthur L. Corbin emerged the winner in a field of twenty-three entries in the New Haven City patriotic tournament. Frank Hopkins, his opponent in the final round, started off well by taking the first set, after which Corbin tied down and took the next two. Twenty-six teams entered the doubles, and when the final round began Corbin and Hopkins were again opposed to each other, the former ed with Z. Sargent and the latter with E. Hopkins. Corbin and Sargent won, but not without a hard fight, as the losers were successful in the second set. A check for $94.15, representing the net receipts of the tournament, was sent to the National Association for Tennis Ambulance Fund. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—Arthur Corbin d. H. Westfield (N. J.) Golf Club.—Night play at the open men's doubles patriotic tournament held by the Westfield Golf Club, commencing July 9, proved very popular and attracted large crowds of spectators. Outside of the semi-finals and the finals the match between Fischer and Cawse and Dunham and Stockton perhaps attracted the greatest attention, being brilliantly played and exceedingly interesting. Summaries: Semi-final round—Lindsay Dunham and J. P. Stockton d. W. H. Brown, Jr., and R. Brown, 6/3,6/4; M. Kirkland and P. Van Deventer d. L. Sinclair and F. Embleton, 6/4,6/2. Country Club of Westchester Tournament

Although somewhat marred by defaults, especially in the singles, the annual invitation tournament of the Country Club of Westchester, N. Y., beginning June 9, was a distinct success. The turf was in excellent condition, and the meeting, under the capable direction of George T. Adey, was run off like clockwork. The opening day of the singles was Red Cross Day. The privileges of the club were extended to the public on that day and a collection was taken for the American Red Cross. In an exhibition match F. B. Alexander and H. Throckmorton defeated Karl H. Behr and Robert LeRoy, 6,3,4/6,6/3. A total $144 was raised, of which $108 was sent to the Bronx Country Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The feature of the meeting was the brilliant play of S. Howard Voshell. He was at the very top of his game, combining severity, steadiness and brilliancy in a most unusual degree, which enabled him to corral leading honors in the singles without the loss of a set. In the doubles Voshell and his former partner Fred C. Baggs, were forced to the limit by Fred C. Inman and Lyle E. Mahan, the 1916 winners. The two combinations met in the final round, as they had year earlier, and a rattling five-set match resulted. The summaries:

Hot Springs (Va.) Tournament

The annual open tournament of the Hot Springs Golf and Tennis Club, which was played as a patriotic event, was held as usual on the clay courts of the club at Hot Springs, Va., during the week of October 8. The entry list suffered in quantity and quality by comparison with the previous year, but the meetings were nevertheless both interesting and enjoyable. Herbert Ira Foster met Fred Inman in the final round of the men's singles, and the former won in straight sets. Count Otto Salm and M. Thomas Ackerland won the doubles, having the best half and clearly earning their victory.

Miss Phyllis J. Walsh of Philadelphia won three events—the singles, doubles and mixed. Her partners were Miss Margaret Moes and Otto Salm, and both combinations were smooth running and effective. In the semi-final round of the men's singles Miss Walsh had little trouble in disposing of Miss Margaret Moes, 6, 1, 6, 0, but Miss Marion H. Vanderhoef just managed to get the verdict over Miss Gwendolyn King, the other semi-finalist, 6, 4, 6, 4. The final was a hard three-set match, and Miss Walsh had to play stellar tennis to defeat Miss Vanderhoef, 8, 6, 4, 6, 9, 7.

Miss Walsh and Miss Moes won from Miss Katherine Force and Mrs. E. P. Kelly in the final of the doubles, 6, 4, 6, 4, after disposing of Mrs. Betz and Mrs. Richter in the semi-final round, 6, 3, 6, 4. Miss Force and Mrs. Scully eliminated Miss Vanderhoef and Miss Gladys Robbins, 6, 4, 3, 6, 6, 2. Miss Robbins and W. A. Carl were the opponents of Miss Walsh and Otto Salm in the final round of the mixed doubles, and the latter team triumphed, 6, 4, 6, 3. Boris H. Kuechen defeated S. W. Merrihew, 8, 6, 8, 6, in the consolation singles. The summaries:

The winners proved to be McKay and Hewetson, but they were first pressed in the semi-final round by Denham and G. Throckmorton and were compelled to play two deuce sets, the first of which they lost. An added feature of the tournament was an exhibition match, played on the last day, in which Harold A. Throckmorton and Fred B. Alexander defeated Karl Behr and Dean Mathey, 10, 8, 6, 4, 10/8.

New Jersey Coast Patriotic Tournament.—If the number of entries was smaller than at the annual tournament played at the Bay Head (N. J.) Yacht Club, which on August 7, the gallery was treated to one exhibition of quality and quantity tennis which more than made up any defection of entrants, no matter what the cause. In the final round of the men's singles Lindsay Dunham, runner-up in the 1916 tournament, met J. P. Stockton and then began one of the longest and best played three-set matches ever seen on the local courts. Dunham secured the verdict, 15/13, 5/7, 8/6, which enabled him to play through and eventually win championship honors. This round also furnished the other exciting set-to when W. Barclay defeated L. H. Rowland after two hard fought deuce sets, 7/5, 9/7. Some good matches featured the women's singles, the one between Miss F. Dalzell and Mrs. T. Vought being a nip and tuck affair which the former won, 9/7. Miss P. Walsh won from Miss C. Bannister in the final, thus earning the right to claim titular honors. The summaries: Men's Singles—Semi-final round—H. Norton d. W. Barclay, Jr., 6/3, 6/2; L. Dunham d. I. Starr, Jr., 6/3, 6/4. Final round—Dunham d. H. Norton, 2/6, 6/3, 10/8, 6/4. California State Patriotic Tournament

Fourteen separate events comprised the programme of the California patriotic tournament, which was played on the courts of the new Berkeley Tennis Club over ten days. William M. Johnston, who is now an ensign in the United States Army, won the singles and with William Marcus as partner also the doubles. He showed a lack of practice at the start, barely defeating Stanley Smith, 6/9,7/5. Upon reaching the final, however, he showed greatly improved form and defeated Mervin Griffin, a sixteen-year-old brother to "Peck" Griffin, in an most record-breaking match for brevity. Johnston and Marcus made their way through the men's doubles right enough, although it took nine sets and 109 games to decide the final against Roberts and Curley. They quit at two-sets-all on the first day of the deciding match, which necessitated playing it all over again. Miss Helen Baker defeated Miss Anita Myers, the 1916 winner, in the finals of the women's singles, 6/1,6/4, and the Misses Baker and Myers annexed the doubles, winning from Miss Marjorie Thorne and Miss Marjorie Wale, 6/1,4/6,6/1. For the first time a junior girls' championship was decided, Miss Helen Taylor of Oakland capturing the honors from Miss Helen Newman in the finals, 6/2,9/7. The mixed doubles event went to Mrs. Mitchell and Marcus, who defeated Mrs. Lanning and Axel Gravem in the final, 1/6,6/3,6/2. C. F. Stickney won the veterans' singles and J. O. Rohlf's and Charles D. Bates took the veterans' doubles. The junior boys' singles went to Mervin Griffin and the boys' consolation singles to Clayton Smith. Trevor Roberts won the men's consolation singles and Rohlf's and Bates the doubles. Miss Juniata Gomez won the women's consolation singles and Miss Eunice Hillard the junior girls' consolation. Peaslee, were defeated in the doubles by William Benedict and Davies, in the Connecticut patriotic tournament, held on the dirt courts of the new Norfolk Country Club, beginning July 31. Although Major played well in the singles, nothing could be said of Man, who was at the top of his game. The doubles produced a close and exciting five-set match.

Twelve teams competed in the mixed doubles, a new event on the programme. Miss Martin and Man, the winners, found it difficult to dispose of Miss Bigelow and Post in the first round, but in the final defeated Miss Quintard and Benedict quite handily, 6/1,6/3. Quinan of Hartford won the consolation singles. Summaries:

Delaware State Patriotic Tournament

William T. Tilden, Jr., the young Philadelphian, met with feeble opposition in his rise to the premier position in the Delaware State patriotic tournament, staged on the courts of the Wilmington Country Club, during the week of June 5. P. S. Osborne, the runnerup, made a gallant stand in the second set of his match with Tilden, but at no time did the latter appear to be in any danger. The doubles proved to be a different proposition for Tilden and his partner, E. Beck. They met with stiff opposition throughout the lower half of the draw, but reached the final round, where they were forced to bow to Alex Thayer and E. Dixon, but only after four fiercely contested sets. The summaries:

Florida State Patriotic Tournament, 1918

In place of the usual Florida championship, which was given up on account of conditions growing out of the war, an invitation mixed doubles tournament and a special men's doubles event was held by the Palm Beach Tennis Club, March 5 to 8. It proved to be highly successful from every point of view. Miss Eleonora Sears and G. W. Wightman won the mixed, defeating Mrs. Rawson Wood and Fred C. Inman in the final round. The losers made a good fight in the first set, and there were many exciting rallies. For the men's doubles Fred H. Harris, who is learning to fly at the Curtiss School, came up from Miami and joined forces with George Agutter, the club's instructor, against G. W. Wightman and F. C. Inman. A fine three-set match resulted, which kept the large and brilliant gallery excited from start to finish, and Harris and Agutter had to play good tennis to nose out their opponents, 6/2,7 5/7 5. The summaries:

Georgia State Patriotic Tournament

The Georgia State tournament held by the Cascade Tennis Club of Atlanta was marred somewhat by rain, and although play began on August 6, it was not until August 26 that the competition finished. Ed Carter, who was picked to win the men's singles, emerged triumphantly, defeating Eston Mansfield in the final round after a four-set match. B. M. Grant and Nat Thornton took the doubles after defeating Smith and Mansfield in one of the best matches of the tournament.

The women's singles attracted the largest entry list that ever entered a tournament in the South. Mrs. J. S. Milan of Greenville, S. C., carried off the honors by overpowering Mrs. B. F. Annis of Chattanooga, Tenn., in the final, 3/6,6 0,6/1. In the mixed doubles Miss Jean Barron and M. D. Berrien defeated Miss Gertrude Orr and F. M. Roebuck in the final, 6/3,6/3. The summaries:

Illinois State Patriotic Tournament

BY A. H. LAWSON.

The South Side Tennis Club staged its first real event of the season with the Illinois patriotic tournament for the benefit of the Red Cross. To their honor may it be said that they had the biggest entries registered—one hundred and seventy names. The greatest surprise of the tournament was the apparent ease with which Harry F. Vories, Jr., the young University of Chicago player, defeated the veteran Sam Hardy in the fourth round, 6/1,3/6,6/2.

Mel Rosenberg of California met Ralph Burdick, the local star, in the sixth round and the gallery was treated to one of the prettiest matches of the tournament. The match lasted only two sets, but it was nip and tuck all the time and anybody's match up to the time the last ball was played. Score, 9/7,9/7. Al Green gave Burdick another scare in the semi-finals and forced him to go the full five sets before acknowledging defeat. In the finals Walter Hayes defeated his doubles partner, Burdick, in an uphill fight. Burdick had the first two sets of the match in his favor and it looked like a walkaway for Ralph. Hayes, however, is never beaten until the match is over. He took the third set, 3/0, and allowed Burdick only three games in the next two sets, the final score being 9/11,4/6,6/0,6/1,6/2.

In the doubles everything ran true to form up to the semi-finals. In the latter, Ketchum and Green put Hardy and Waidner, the veterans, out of the running in an interesting five-set match, 6/8,6/2,6/3,4/6,6/3. Hayes and Burdick won the finals, at no time being in danger of having their laurels taken from them; score, 4/6,7/5,6/4,6/4.

Miss Voorhees and Miss Neely divided all the honors in the women's tournament, Miss Voorhees winning the singles by defeating Miss Neely, 2/6,6/2,7/5, and Miss Neely and Miss Voorhees winning the doubles by defeating Miss Leighton and Miss Higbee, 6/3,6/2. The summaries:

Indiana State Patriotic Tournament

Indians did not hold their usual State championship tournament last season, but in its place conducted a patriotic competition under the auspices of the Fort Wayne Country Club, from August 20 to 25.

Gage Hoag of Indianapolis, in the singles, came through to the final round by defeating Herbert Stephens, a promising young player from Fort Wayne. Robert Bastian faced Hoag in the final, but could not make much headway against the veteran Fort Wayne man, who won in straight sets. In the doubles Hoag and Bastian had to work hard to defeat Kunkle and Crites in the final. Miss Beck carried off the honors in the women's singles, and Miss Beck and Raymond Kunkle defeated Miss Draper and Reginald Barnard, 6/2,8/6. Kunkle won from Nussbaum in the consolation singles, 6,2,6,2,4,6,6 3. Summaries:

Montana State Patriotic Tournament

Kenneth Simmons, a Yale University student, sprung a great surprise in the Montana patriotic tournament, held at Hunter's Hot Springs, beginning August 13. The youngster was not regarded as a very dangerous contender until he met and decisively defeated J. D. McLeod, the 1916 champion, in the first round. Then Simmons met Harry Burton of Butte, who had won from the veteran D. D. McLoughlin. Burton's steadiness was no match for the fast net game of Simmons, who won by the close margin of 7/5,6/3. Simmons then defeated Wells in the semi-finals, 6/1,6/1,6/4. This put him in the final with Kleine. The match was played before a large gallery and was won by Simmons, 6/3,6/1,6/1.

New Hampshire State Patriotic Tournament

The twenty-fourth annual Pennsylvania State open tournament in men's singles and doubles was held on the courts of the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, Pa., beginning June 11. While the number of entries was somewhat smaller than the previous year, the brand of tennis furnished throughout was good and many close contests resulted.

The final round of singles between E. B. Mosier and C. S. Rogers was a nip and tuck affair for one set, after which Mosier gradually drew away from his opponent and won handily. Rowland Evans and A. D. Thayer were compelled to play at their very best to eliminate J. C. Thayer and Eugene Dixon in the final round of doubles. Four sets were required to settle this match and each one was closely fought. The summaries:

Texas State Patriotic Tournament

The Texas State tennis tournament was played on the courts of the University of Texas Tennis Association, beginning June 11. It was held as a patriotic event without prizes and championships and cups. Be it said to the honor of Texas that there was a large entry list. The weather was perfect, the courts were in first class condition, and there was not a hitch in the programme.

Stacy came through the upper half of the draw without the loss of a set, starting off with a bye and receiving a default in the semi-finals from the high school boy, Granger, who was saving himself for the doubles. Adoue of Dallas got to the finals in the lower half by playing only two matches, drawing a bye and two defaults. In the finals Adoue was playing unbeatable tennis and did not give Stacy a chance to win a set.

The surprise of the doubles was a team composed of a veteran nearly fifty years old, Dr. Penick of the University faculty, and the young high school graduate of seventeen summers, Charles Granger. They went to the finals, but lost a good team, the Walthall cousins of San Antonio.

The novice event was for all who had not played in a State meet before and was won by J. M. Greer, a 'varsity boy who had just won the intercollegiate championship for the Southwest. The consolation singles event was won by Egginbotham, a freshman. Miss Erin Miller of Austin won the girls' singles. Miss Pettit of Dallas and Miss Thatcher of Austin won the doubles. The mixed doubles went to Miss Celeste Miller and Gregory, both of Austin. Edward Linkin won the singles in the boys' tournament and with his partner, Robert Lifer, the doubles.

An interesting feature of the tournament was the number of challenges for the Temple inter-city cup, donated by Mr. Temple of Texarkana. Dallas, San Antonio and San Saba all challenged and all were defeated by Austin, the first two by Stacy and S. Thomas, the last by S. and J. Thomas.

Washington State Patriotic Tournament

The twenty-seventh annual tournament of the Seattle Tennis Club was held as a patriotic tournament instead of for the championships of the State of Washington. Owing to the absence at training camps and at the front of many players the entry list was much smaller than in previous years; but the quality of the tennis displayed was, except for the absence of the Californians, excellent.

In the men's singles Allen in the upper half and Tyler in the lower half ran true to form and met in the finals, where Tyler, as was expected, won the match, although only after a hard fight. Outside of the final the best matches were the two semi-finals, in one of which Marshall Allen defeated "Cap" Pringle of Tacoma in straight sets, though Pringle almost won the first set, while in the other Tyler defeated Mansel-Smith. The latter had greatly improved his playing and took the first four games before Tyler got into his stride and brought the set up to four-all, when Mansel-Smith again rallied and took the set. After this, however, Tyler got his shots to working and won the match without being headed.

In the men's doubles the draw was rather one-sided, the upper half containing most of the good teams. The semi-final between Pringle and Shannon and Tyler and Spidel was the best match and took all five sets to decide it. In the final Tyler and Spidel defeated Waller and Sanders, the University of Washington team, after many long and close rallies, though the result was scarcely ever in doubt.

In the women's singles Miss Livingstone and Miss McDonald fought it out, as they have done in almost every tournament for the last three years, and Miss Livingstone won, 6/1,6/4. In the semi-final round Miss Livingstone eliminated Miss Greene, 6/1,6/2, while Miss MacDonald disposed of Miss Schreiner, 7/5,6/2. Miss Livingstone and Mrs. Bragdon won the women's doubles, as was expected, defeating Miss MacDonald and Miss Wheaton in the final round, 6/1,6/2. The semi-finalists who opposed the winners were Mrs. Fenn and Mrs. Stafford, who went down to defeat, 2/6,5/7, and the runnersup outplayed Miss Benson and Miss Frye, 6/1,6/2. In the mixed doubles Miss Livingstone paired with Mr. Mansel-Smith won the final against Miss Wheaton and Mr. Sanders, after having defeated Miss MacDonald and Mr. Shannon in the semi-final. Thus Miss Livingstone came out as winner in all three events.

As the entry list was much smaller than for several years, the Seattle Tennis Club was able to handle the tournament on its own courts, which are of much easier access to down town. Except on Saturday afternoon, there was plenty of room for the gallery, and most of the players and the audience seemed glad to have the tournament back at the courts where it had been held for so many years. The summaries:

West Virginia State Patriotic Tournament

The patriotic tournament held at Parkersburg, W. Va., on August 20 and succeeding days was fairly successful. As many of the State players were at training camps and others in actual service, the entry list was not as full as in years previous. Thomas McK. Cummins, title holder in singles, was entered, but defaulted in the fourth round, having to leave for Fort Benjamin Harrison, where he entered the second Officers' Training Camp. Three of the old-timers, Joel A. Shrewsbury, John Purinton and Roy A. Johnson, showed the most class, the tournament finally simmering down to Shrewsbury and Purinton. Owing to rain the meet was not finished, and on two other dates set to wind it up rain interfered both times. The summaries:

Wisconsin State Patriotic Tournament

BY C. K. ROUNDS, MILWAUKEE.

The open State tournament, held on the Town Club courts, Milwaukee, in the first half of August, scarcely developed the grade of tennis that Milwaukee enthusiasts have come to expect in a State tournament, though it was on the whole rather stronger in its average play than tournaments of recent years. The winner was Christian Mack, a Michigan boy, a University of Michigan representative, and in every way a fine gentleman and an excellent tennis player. What Mack lacked in brilliancy and aggressiveness he amply made up in defensive tactics. His foot work, his steadiness, his prescience in sizing up the plans of his opponents, his excellent judgment on balls that were going out, his adaptation to the various styles of play he met, all were absolutely superb.

The only other feature of the tournament to share the limelight with Mack was the playing of Glenway Maxon, Jr., of Milwaukee. Maxon put up a better game than he has ever shown before. He developed better head work and greater steadiness and staying powers. His play reached its climax when he defeated Lieutenant Reginald Hamilton, for many years city champion of Milwaukee, who, though he went on the court with little practice, played very nearly up to his old championship standard.

The men's doubles play was not as near to the standard of former State tournaments as was that of the singles. Several of the players were paired together for the first time, and this lack of practice showed itself in rather ragged team work. Notwithstanding this fact, there were many vigorous and spirited rallies, although the play was marred in the semi-final round by an fortunate default. Hamilton and Mack, the winners, were going well at the end of their match, and it is a certainty they would make an exceedingly strong team if they could play together long enough to develop team work.

The women's tournament, which was run off parallel with the men's, developed a real champion in the person of Mrs. Helmar B. Wells, who had the satisfaction of defeating Miss Amanda Falcker of Chicago after the closest sort of a struggle in the women's championship singles. Mrs. Wells is exceedingly popular among the net enthusiasts of Milwaukee and her victory very greatly pleased the large gallery that assembled on the final day. She is the first Wisconsin woman, in modern tennis history at any rate, to win an open State championship. The summaries:

Lawn Tennis in the Metropolitan District

Metropolitan Patriotic Tournament

The courts of the Bronxville Athletic Association were again the scene of an annual Metropolitan event, which was held as usual in June. There were about fifty entrants. Walter Merrill Hall won the singles, defeating Count Otto Salm. In the semi-finals Hall defeated Elliott Binzen, the Fordham University star, 6/3,6/4. Hall took the net on his own service consistently and, by driving, broke through his opponent's service several times. Count Salm had as his opponent Leonard Beekman, whom he defeated, 6/3,4/6,7/5. In the finals Hall was slow in starting, but quickly caught up, and after the first set the match was settled in doubt. Hall was very steady, driving and volleying well, hitting hard and with confidence. Score, 7/5,6/2,6/3.

Metropolitan Women's Patriotic Tournament

The Metropolitan women's patriotic tournament was played on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club, at Forest Hills, L. I., commencing May 14. Considering the early season date and inclement weather, the entry list, composed solely of local players, was very good. There were a number of spirited matches in the singles, in practically all of which, strangely enough, Miss Eleanor Goss figured. With Mrs. Wood, Miss Tyndale, Miss Pollak and Mrs. Hitchins she played hard fought three-set matches, in which the interest was sustained until the last point was played. Mrs. Hitchins' greater experience, however, proved too much for Miss Goss. She lost in the semi-final round, 3/6,6/1,6/3. Miss Molla Bjurstedt won all three events, being partnered with Miss Marie Wagner in the doubles, which event they won with ease, and, paired with Alrick H. Morris in the mixed, won in a good match against Miss Florence A. Ballin and Fred Alexander, 6/4,8/6, after the latter team had defeated Miss Wagner and A. Ostendorf in the semi-final round, in a close three-set struggle. The summaries follow:

Notwithstanding war conditions and other causes, the New York Lawn Tennis Club's patriotic tournament, which supplanted the Bronx championship and Manhattan doubles, was a success. The competition was decided on the club's courts, Columbia Oval, beginning June 2. S. Howard Voshell, winner of the singles, put out Count Otto Salm, Allen Behr and Hugh Tallant in his flight to the final round, and then he met Henry Bassford. Although the latter stubbornly resisted and got four games in each of the last two sets, Voshell gained the honors in straight sets. The final round of the doubles was full of ginger, Count Otto Salm and Ingo Hartman having to play five sets to win. Summaries:

Northern Pennsylvania Patriotic Tournament

The patriotic tournament which was substituted for the Northeastern Pennsylvania championship, was held under the auspices of the Country Club at Scranton, beginning September 5. In view of the fact that all returns from matches were to be used for war purposes, the committee in charge of the courts, on advice of Mr. Adey, decided to refrain from making some needed repairs. At that, two rainy days during the tournament contributed somewhat to the condition of the courts, which warranted complaint by some of the exhibition players.

Some very fine tennis developed in both the men's and women's events. The playing of Charles Garland, Pittsburgh, and W. T. Tilden, Jr., of Philadelphia was a feature throughout the tournament. Both these star players were very kindly permitted by F. B. Alexander, manager of the Red Cross team, to remain in Scranton and play through. Garland won the singles in a most spectacular match in the finals, and it was with very much regret that he and Tilden had to default in the doubles owing to the illness of the latter.

The playing of the ladies was greatly appreciated. Miss Browne's versatility and finished game, both back court and at the net, was a feature. Miss Jan Storrs, the winner of the singles, was compelled to play three hard sets, 8/6,2,7/5, to wrest the laurels from Miss H. Morris. Miss H. Harvey was eliminated in the semi-final round by the ultimate winner, 6/3,6/0, while Mrs. Stevens succumbed to the runnerup, 7/5,6/3. Miss Storrs and Mrs. G. D. Belin defeat Mrs. Sloan and Miss Harvey in the final round of the doubles, 6,2,6/4. The winners disposed of Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Watson in the semi-final round, 6/1,6/6, and the Misses O'Boyle and Lee lost their opportunity to enter the finals, 6/4,6/6. The summaries:

Western Pennsylvania Patriotic Tournament

Western Pennsylvania patriotic tournament, held by the Pittsburgh Association, beginning June 23, brought out an entry list of sixty-four singles and a fair sized entry in the other events. Samuel Hardy of go gathered in the chief laurels, for he not only won the singles, but with Siverd as a partner the doubles as well.
 dy met A. T. Spaulding of Buffalo in the final of the singles. The latter's strokes had no terror for Hardy, who was ever ready with one of his court shots, which would give anybody trouble to return. The final of the produced an interesting contest, but the Buffalonians, T. W. Hendrick and ling, were compelled to accept defeat in straight sets.

entries in the women's singles showed an absence of some of the more ment local players, but some very good tennis was on tap in these matches, ay of Miss Frances Dalzell and Miss Eleanor Bergs and Mrs. Robert n being exceptionally good. Mrs. Carson finally won in straight sets from Dalzell, 6/0,6/4. The mixed doubles went to Miss Adelaide Brainerd and Hendrick, who won from Miss Jessie Thorp and C. S. Garland in the final,

Lawn Tennis in Pittsburgh

BY JOSEPH H. BIALAS.

The usual inter-club contests of the Pittsburgh Tennis Association were abandoned last year owing to the war. The Association, however, continued active, endeavoring to make the patriotic matches a success. On September 28 and 29 Pittsburgh tennis devotees received a rare treat in that an opportunity was afforded them of seeing the leading tennis players of the country in exhibition matches on the Pittsburgh Athletic Association courts. These matches were played by the Tennis Ambulance Team for the benefit of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, which was raising $100,000 to purchase ambulance sections for presentation to the Government for war use. The players were entertained lavishly during their stay in this city.

The local committee in charge of the patriotic matches was endeavoring to raise $5,000, part of which was obtained from the admission fee charged to witness the matches. In addition to the sum received, contributions were solicited from the clubs in this district and also from individuals.

The Women's Tennis Club of Western Pennsylvania also aided greatly in this work. Although in existence but one year, this club is one of the largest of its kind in the country.

Delightful weather was enjoyed for these events and the two days' matches were well attended, more than a thousand admissions being recorded. This, with the large amount realized from the solicitation of funds through the members of the local Red Cross on the grounds, assisted materially in obtaining the amount raised.

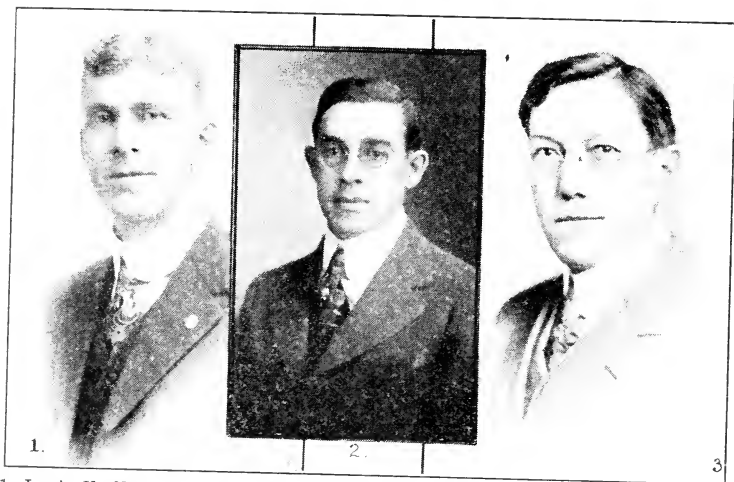

Featuring the first day's play was the wonderful work of Mrs. Felix B. Snowden, formerly Miss Martha Guthrie, and Charles ("Chuck") Garland. Both Mrs. Snowden and Garland played in the opening matches, Garland defeating Fred B. Alexander, 6, 8, 6, 2, 6, 3, and Mrs. Snowden triumphed over Miss Marion Vanderhoef, 2, 6, 6, 3, 6, 0. Probably the best match of the first set, at least the one that added the most thrills and suspense packed into it, was the men's doubles affair with Chuck Garland and S. Howard Voshell arrayed against Fred Alexander and Harold Throckmorton. The first set was bitterly fought, finally going to Garland and his partner at 11-9, after each team had missed several opportunities to take it over. The wonderful shots of every contestant and their constant volleying proved highly exciting to the spectators. The second set went to Alexander and Throckmorton at 6-3. Then a halt was called for the day in this match in order that others on the programme might be gone through with.

The mixed doubles affair saw Miss Bjurstedt and Throckmorton pitted against Miss Vanderhoef and William T. Tilden, Jr. After each side had won a set, play was called in order to give time for the last match, which was between Tilden and Voshell. Tilden had no difficulty in taking the first set, the score being 6-0, but Voshell came back viciously and nosed him out. The second set went to Voshell, 6-4, with a like score in the third set.

The second day's play was just as exciting and as full of interest. The two Pittsburghers, Mrs. Snowden and Garland, again participated and were engaged in two of the most enjoyable matches of the afternoon. In the first match Garland won from Throckmorton, 6, 2, 6, 2. In the last match of the afternoon Mrs. Snowden was defeated by Miss Bjurstedt, 6, 1, 6, 2, but only after the champion had been forced to extend herself to her limit.

No better tennis has ever been seen here, since the national clay courts championships were played, than that shown in the men's doubles between Garland and Tilden and Alexander and Voshell. The latter team won both sets, 6, 2, 6, 2. The going was fast and furious and it was marked by numerous fierce rallies. Garland had no difficulty in disposing of Throckmorton in their match, but both sets were speedy. In the match between Tilden and Voshell the crowd was treated to a scientific exhibition of tennis. Voshell won the first set, 6-3, Tilden taking the next two, 6/4, 6/4. The match between Miss Bjurstedt and Miss Vanderhoef was a well played one. Miss Vanderhoef seemed at a disadvantage compared with her more experienced opponent, but she quickly dispersed any such impression and neutralized Miss Bjurstedt's greater strength by her agility. Miss Bjurstedt won both sets, 6/2, 6/4.

Mrs. Snowden and Tilden met Miss Bjurstedt and Alexander in mixed doubles. The work of both teams was frequently applauded, but the combination of Bjurstedt and Alexander was too much for the losers, both sets going 6-1.

Lawn Tennis in Chicago and District

Chicago Associated Tennis Clubs

BY C. I. PIERCE, PRESIDENT.

C. P. PIERCE.

The Chicago Tennis Association entered its fourth year's existence with nineteen clubs having a total membership of over 2,000 members. In spite of the fact that the old Hyde Park and Wanderers' clubs have merged into the South Park Tennis Club and that other clubs have lost their grounds, our total membership shows a considerable increase over the previous year. This Association started with eight clubs in 1914 and the membership has increased by leaps and bounds each year since.

During the past season, in addition to the regular inter-club tournaments, this Association supervised the city patriotic invitation tournament at the Chicago Tennis Club and at the Edgewater Beach courts; also, tournaments were held for the juniors and boys of Chicago. The two-court division matches were introduced, permitting all clubs with only two courts to enter in active competition. The larger clubs organized second teams and entered them in the second team division, which was a new addition to the schedule. By this plan more members of the various clubs were permitted to develop their game in tournament play.

Winter indoor tennis was introduced last fall, all games being played on the Municipal Pier, at the foot of Grand Avenue, on the lake front. Three tournaments were arranged, with a large attendance at each. This will be a regular part of the winter programme for this year. In addition to having the Chicago Tennis Association incorporated under the State of Illinois, it became affiliated with the Western Lawn Tennis Association, thereby having charge of all the tournaments in Chicago and surrounding suburbs.

The proceeds taken at the patriotic tournament were turned into the Ambulance Fund collected by the U.S.N.L.T.A. for financing three units composed of tennis men for service in France. The Chicago Tennis Association is well represented in these units.

At the annual meeting held at the City Club, October 10, the following officers were elected: President, C. R. Pierce, Sherwood T.C.; vice-president, Walter S. Hubbard, Unatre T.C.; secretary, L. C. Nutter, West Maywood T.C.; treasurer, Philip C. Kressler, Chicago T.C. Directors, R. G. Crandall, Rogers Park T.C.; F. G. Wilbur, South Park T.C.; J. P. Stewart, Sherwood Park T.C.

In the inter-club contests held during the season the South Park Tennis Club, previous champion, won the Southern Division championship without losing a match. The Chicago Tennis Club won the North Division championship in a like manner and defeated the South Park Tennis Club for the championship of the Association. In the two-court division the Elmwood Tennis Club carried off the honors; in the second team division the South Park won the championship.

In the elimination singles, open to all unrated members of the Association, W. S. Miller of the Chicago Tennis Club won the championship, J. F. Kenfield of the same organization being the runnerup. In the doubles championship tournament E. Oelsner and J. F. Kenfield of the Chicago Tennis Association won repeating their victory of the preceding year. Edward O. Spear and Paul Thompson of the Wilson Avenue Tennis Club were the runnersup in this event. The details of the final results of inter-club matches and the championship matches are shown herewith:

Chicago Patriotic Tournament

By A. H. LAWSON.

Chicago opened its 1917 tennis season with a patriotic tournament for the benefit of the American Red Cross, held under the auspices of the Chicago Tennis Association, on the clay courts of the Chicago Tennis Club, June 9 to 17.

though the season was somewhat backward, the committee who had the tournament in charge, with the co-operation of affiliated clubs, secured an entry of over one hundred players in spite of the fact that many prominent local players, including Jerry Weber, Alister McCormick, Al Lindauer and William Blair, for military reasons, were unable to participate. The courts were in excellent condition and the clubhouse, having been entirely remodeled, furnished excellent facilities for the players.

Al Green, former Western collegiate and Michigan State champion, won his way to the semi-finals, but went down to defeat before the superior play of Walter T. Hayes, former National Clay Court champion, in a fast four-set match. In the lower frame, Samuel Hardy, who had not played in Chicago since 1900, teamed with his brother, Sumner, president of the California Tennis Association, to compete as a doubles team in the Western tournament, was pitted against Ralph Burdick, 1916 Missouri Valley champion, in the semi-finals. Burdick was forced to go five sets before subduing the former Californian. In the finals Hayes defeated his doubles partner, Burdick, after dropping the first set. The great surprise of the tournament, however, was furnished in the doubles, when Harry Waidner, president of the Western Lawn Tennis Association, and Samuel Hardy, two veterans of the game, defeated Hayes and Burdick, Western doubles champions, in a hot four-set match. The summaries:

Chicago Public Parks Tennis Association

At the beginning of the 1917 season the Chicago Public Parks Tennis Association consisted of eleven clubs. For different reasons, four clubs found themselves unable to re-enter. It was found that the Association had filled such a need in an unlimited field that it was no trouble to get new clubs. Five new clubs were received and many others were prevented from joining by the early closing of entries. This left twelve clubs for the year.

The twelve clubs were divided into two divisions, North and South, each division playing a double round robin. The divisions were as follows, the clubs being arranged in the order they finished the season: North Division—Speedway, Garfield, Mozart, Cornell, Kosciusko, Mark White, South Division—Benson, Palmer, Washington, Ogden, Grand Crossing, South Deering.

The play-off between Speedway and Jackson was held at the South Side Tennis Club with the following results: Singles—H. Forster (S.) d. D. Smith (J.), 6 8,6 4,6 0,6 3; M. Agay (S.) d. C. Fowler (J.), 6 4,7 5,6 8,2 6,10 8; A. Benson (S.) d. F. Guyton (J.), 7 5,2 6,6 4,6 4. Doubles—Agay and H. Forster d. Fowler and Burlingame (J.), 3 6,6 1,6 3,4 6,6 2; Benson and G. Forster d. Guyton and Pearson (J.), 2 6,1 6,7 5,7 5,6 4. As the scores denote, all matches were hard fought. Speedway proved the better team by taking all honors. This elects them as holders of the J. Ogden Armour Cup for one year.

The annual Labor Day tournament was held at Ogden Park with the following results: Singles—Semi-final round—Fowler (J.) d. Tannenbaum (W.), 9 7, 9 7; Benson (S.) d. Mertz (W.), 9 7,6 3. Final round—Benson (S.) d. Fowler (J.), 4 6,6 2,6 4. Doubles—Semi-final round—Pearson and Guyton (J.) d. Fasserman and De Swarte (O.), 8 6,1 6,6 1; G. Forster and M. Agay (S.) d. Mertz and Tannenbaum (W.), 6 3,6 2. Final round—G. Forster and Agay d. Benson and Guyton, 6 4,6 3. Again Speedway won all the honors, thus making a clean sweep for the year.

1. Edward Oelsner, winner final match for Chicago Tennis Club by defeating Roger Carver, at Ogden Park. 2. Mrs. McNeill, winner mixed doubles at Edgewater Beach tournament. 3. S. Miller, winner Chicago Tennis Association closed tournament.

TRIO OF CHICAGO PLAYERS.

Lawn Tennis in Cleveland

BY S. W. CABELL.

S. W. CABELL.

Many of Cleveland's younger tennis players were out of the game last season on account of the war. Every club in the city lost some of their active members, which had a tendency to diminish interest in the game. However, in spite of this drawback, there was a great deal of activity and the year was considered very successful. Credit for this is due principally to the new organization which has united all the tennis interest in Cleveland. This is called the Cleveland Associated Tennis Clubs. It was incorporated early in the year and was composed of eleven teams put out by the member clubs.

In order to produce better competition, the teams were arranged in two groups: Class A, composed of eight teams from regular clubs, and Class B, composed of teams representing industrial organizations. A schedule running through the season was arranged for each class and this led to a great deal of active inter-club playing. The Class A competition was won by the University team, with the East End No. 2 team close second. Class B competition was won by the Nela Park team. On account of its strength, the East End Club put two teams in the field instead of one.

The officers of the Association for the year were: President, H. W. Maynard; vice-president, S. W. Cabell; treasurer,

A. J. Hudson; secretary, B. F. Thorward. It is the feeling of all interested that the Association has been a great success. It has brought all the tennis players of the city together and produced a degree of good fellowship never before enjoyed. The results of the year may be briefly summarized as follows:

City tournament—Men's singles, won by S. W. Cabell; men's doubles, won by H. C. Wick, Jr., and H. F. Pettee; women's singles, won by Mrs. H. A. Peters; women's doubles, won by Miss Estelle Corday and Miss Lillian Hershey; mixed doubles, won by Miss Ruth King and Harold Grimes.

Municipal tournament—Men's singles, won by Ellis Corday; men's doubles, won by Ellis Corday and Milton Ganger; women's singles, won by Miss Marguerite Esch; women's doubles, won by Miss Marguerite Esch and Miss Mildred Rask; boys' singles, won by Jack Rice; girls' singles, won by Miss Estelle Corday.

The U.S.N.L.T.A. Ambulance Players staged some brilliant contests on August 29 and 30, on the courts of the East End Tennis Club. They were Fred E. Alexander, Harold A. Throckmorton, John R. Strachan, Charles S. Garland, Miss Molla Ejurstedt and Miss Mary K. Browne.

All tournaments except the Municipal are now held under the auspices of the Cleveland Associated Tennis Clubs. Every effort will be made during 1918 to keep up interest in tennis, but each of the clubs is certain to lose not a few more members, who will be drawn into war work of one kind or another.

Lawn Tennis in Louisville

BY CRIT C. YOUNG.

Despite the elimination of many of the more important features of the game by the U.S.N.L.T.A., the 1917 season in Louisville was almost as successful as that of 1916, which is saying much. Only one event, the Bi-State, was dropped from the schedule, and two other attractions were staged, which more than made up for the loss. One of these was the visit of the Red Cross stars and the other the junior tournament.

The exhibition given by the Misses Molla Bjurstedt and Marion Vanderhoef and Messrs. Harold Throckmorton and Fred Alexander took place September 26, at the Audubon Country Club, and drew the largest gallery that ever witnessed a tennis match in Louisville. The gate receipts exceeded by several hundred dollars the amount that was guaranteed.

Falls City Tournament

The season began at Central Park on June 24 with the Falls City Tennis Club's twelfth tournament. Owing to the number of players who had already entered the army, the entry list was not quite so large as in past years, but that it lacked in quantity it more than made up in quality. The summaries:

Lawn Tennis in Milwaukee

BY C. R. ROUNDS.

The 1917 tennis season in Milwaukee, notwithstanding the inroads made upon personnel of the various clubs by enlistments and the draft, was characterized by spirited matches, good tennis enthusiasm, and a reasonably high standard play. The city tournament, held in July on the West Side Club courts, was by odds the most interesting and successful meet of its kind ever staged in Milwaukee, rivaling indeed the State tournament both in interest and in quality of play, while in number of entries in singles it exceeded the State meet. The winner of the meet was Louis Rechcygl. The work of Benson of West Side, both in singles and with his partner, Harold Crawford, in doubles, deserves special mention.

The annual race between the ten clubs of the Milwaukee Tennis Association was even closer and more hotly contested than ever before. Washington Park was the winner for the fourth successive time, though more hardly pressed than ever before by its closest rival, the West Side Club. This club seems now to be "winning" fastest of all, while it cannot be denied that the Park boys are the best of them at any rate, slightly going back. If this general movement continues another year it is altogether likely the championship will go to the West Side Club in 1918. The general surprise of the Milwaukee Tennis Association remains to be recorded. Harry Effler of the West Side Club defeated Louis Rechcygl in the finals of the elimination tournament for the singles championship of the Milwaukee Tennis Association. It is true Rechcygl was tired by a hard battle match that immediately preceded the singles; but even so, Effler displayed first-class tennis. And though he had not been reckoned even among the top five ranking players in Milwaukee, that mistake will never be made again in estimating his prowess.

One other feature of the year in tennis should be recorded. By courtesy of the Milwaukee Automobile Dealers' Association, and particularly of the Diener-son Co., a beautiful Haynes car was placed at the disposal of the Association, and the players were taken on a tour whose idea was to boost the Wisconsin State Fair. The players representing Milwaukee were Bert Thelen, C. R. Rounds and J. E. Nelson. In five days of touring, covering between 150 and 175 miles of road by auto, they played six matches in as many different towns, the matches averaging seven or eight sets each. In all these towns they won the majority of sets, though in several of them the margin was very close. Thelen did not win a set of singles and Thelen and Rounds were undefeated in the doubles. The tour was a great success and will in all probability be repeated on a larger scale this year. The towns in which matches were played were the following: Manitowishwater, Janesville, Madison, Kilbourn, Oshkosh and Waupaca.

The ranking of the first ten players in organized tennis in Milwaukee for 1917 presents many difficulties, but the following represents the writer's careful judgment in this difficult decision:

- | | |
|---------------------|-------------------|
| 1. LOUIS REHCYGL. | 6. DR. PAUL. |
| 2. BERT THELEN. | 7. ED BENSON. |
| 3. HARRY EFFLER. | 8. LEO LUEDKE. |
| 4. RALPH KRUSE. | 9. E. CHERINGTON. |
| 5. WALTER STUCKERT. | 10. RAY LOEW. |

In All-Milwaukee team would include the names of Glenway Maxon, Jr., and G. Matteson; but Reginald Hamilton, Herbert Efflandt and the Weller brothers would have to be left out, as they all enlisted in various branches of war service. They would no doubt have made the "honor ten," but they are playing a harder game than tennis. Following is a condensed summary of the open city tournament:

OPEN CITY TOURNAMENT, WEST SIDE COURTS.

MEN'S SINGLES: Semi-final round—Stuckert d. Matteson, 3/6,6/1,6/1,6/0; Rechcygl d. Thelen, 6/4,6/0,6/1. Final round—Rechcygl d. Stuckert, 5/7,6/2,6/3 6/0. CONSOLATION SINGLES: Final round—Graebner d. Dooley, 6/4,6/3,6/2. MEN'S DOUBLES: Semi-final round—Benson and Crawford d. Hunter and Cherrington, 3/6,6/2,6/3,6/1; Lipman and Thelen d. Haskins and Kirchner, 6/2,6/1,8/6. Final round—Lipman and Thelen d. Benson and Crawford, 6/3,6/2,6/4. CONSOLATION DOUBLES: Final round—Amos and Arndt d. Crawford and Graebner, 0/6,6/3 6/3,6/4.

Lawn Tennis in St. Louis

St. Louis Tennis Association

BY DAVISON OBEAR.

Representatives of ten St. Louis tennis clubs met at the Washington Hotel, St. Louis, on April 19, 1917, and organized the St. Louis Tennis Association. Dwight F. Davis, donor of the cup which bears his name and a resident of St. Louis, was made honorary president and the following officers were elected: President, C. Drummond Jones; vice-president, Roland M. Hoerr; secretary, Davison Obear; treasurer, Dr. George Rice. The clubs constituting the membership included the Larned Tennis Club, Triple A Club, Westwood Club, Southampton Tennis Association, Ridgedale Country Club, Sunset Hill Country Club, Municipal Athletic Association, Shaw Courts Club, St. Louis Country Club and Wagner Electric Athletic Club. Plans were immediately prepared for inter-club competition and eight clubs formed teams to play on Saturdays during the summer. The standing of the clubs at the end of the season was as follows:

	Won.	Lost.		Won.	Lost.
St. Louis Country Club.....	7	0	Shaw	3	4
Triple A.....	6	1	Southampton	3	4
Municipal	5	2	Westwood	2	5
Larned	4	3	Wagner	1	6

The first annual meeting and banquet of the Association was held at the Bevo Mill, on October 9. The 1917 officers were re-elected to serve for the season of 1918. The executive committee elected was composed of the following: President, C. Drummond Jones, Secretary Obear, Rodowe Abeken, Will Milins, Arthur Von Reppert, Roland M. Hoerr, Theodore Drewes. Reports of the secretary and treasurer and all committees were read and accepted. The interest shown during the season was very encouraging to all followers of the game. William C. Connett of the Triple A Club was toastmaster at the banquet. The guest of honor was J. C. Stewart, secretary of the Western Lawn Tennis Association, who made a special trip to attend and gave an excellent talk on tennis conditions in the Western section. The following St. Louis tennis players are members of the National Umpire Association: William C. Connett, Henry S. Cushman, Drummond Jones, Roland M. Hoerr, Davison Obear, Arthur Von Reppert.

The Association took charge of the recruiting in St. Louis and vicinity for the two ambulance sections formed under the direction of the U.S.N.L.T.A. Secretary Obear secured the interest of some thirty-five or forty tennis players in St. Louis and secured four men for the first section and five men for the second, making a total of nine men from St. Louis out of ninety in the two sections. At the request of Julian S. Myrick, acting president of the U.S.N.L.T.A., the Association was asked to gather equipment for the soldiers in the training camp. Secretary Obear reported the securing of the following tennis equipment: 3 tennis rackets, 25 nets, 9 dozen balls. This material was forwarded to Dr. Joseph E. Rayeroff at Princeton, N. J.

At a meeting of the executive committee, held October 24, the Municipal Tennis Association was admitted to membership. Nelson Cunliff is honorary president and Rodowe Abeken honorary vice-president of this organization. The officers for the ensuing year include the following: President, Dr. George Rice; first vice-president, Elmer A. Schwartz; second vice-president, Fred Josties; secretary, Charles H. Borne; treasurer, V. Satterfield. The membership comprises the Forest Park Tennis Club, Fairground Park Tennis Club, St. Louis Park Tennis Club and O'Fallon Park Tennis Club.

Fred Josties won the municipal championship after a hard fight. His first match, against Ted Drewes, required five sets and two days' play to decide, as it had to be called on account of darkness at the end of the first day's play with the score a tie. Josties then met and defeated A. S. Blatterman, and once again it required five sets to determine the winner. In the doubles Josties and Drewes repeated their 1916 success by disposing of Finger and Hollingshead and the taking a five-set match from Walsh and Schwarz. Miss Corinne Gould won the women's championship and Dr. Olinda Stricker and Miss Angela Henske annexed the doubles title. Arthur Niroemoeller won titular honors in the junior boys' singles and Clyde Baessler was successful in the boys' singles. The summaries

St. Louis Triple A

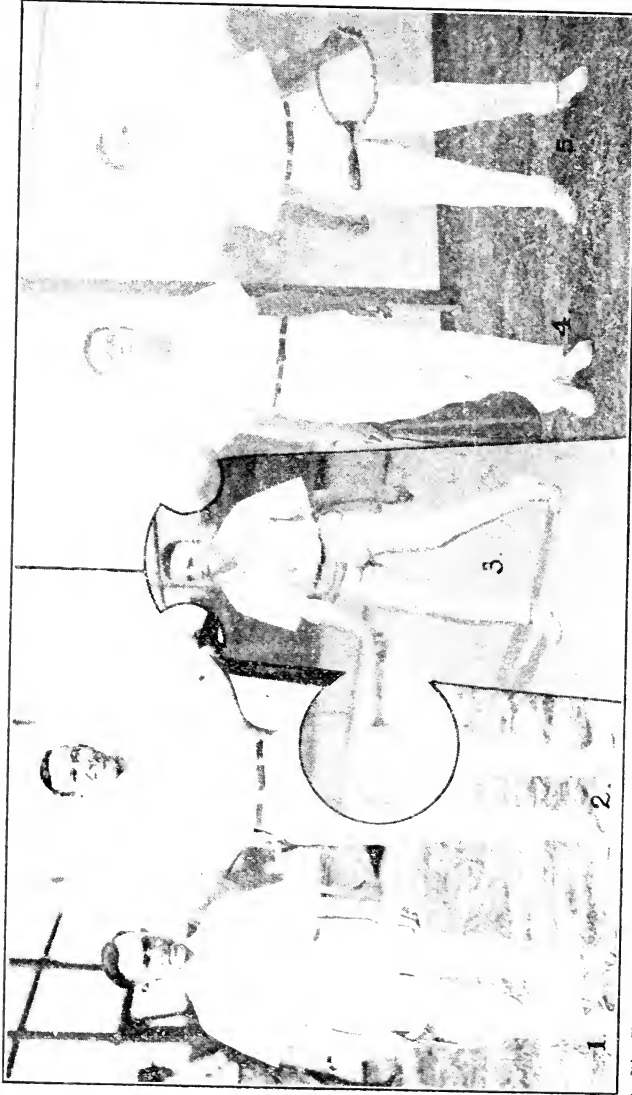

The Central States tournament was held by the club on its clay courts in Forest Park. The large Triple A Trophy Cups, which were won in 1916 by Yamagae and Mikami, the Japanese players, were not up for competition and will remain out for the duration of the war.

In the championship for the City of St. Louis, seventy-three players entered in the singles and thirty-two pairs the doubles. Many of the older players were missing, having gone to do their bit. Josties and Drewes succeeded in reaching the singles final. Josties eliminated Loessner, Rieger, Satterfield, Von Reppert and Finger, while Drewes disposed of Frost, Cushman, Bowman, Gamble and Hoerr. In the final Drewes won out in a hard five-set match, the score being 2/6,6/8,3/7,5,6/4. In the doubles Jones and Hoerr succeeded in reaching the finals, but Josties and Drewes fell before Von Reppert and Schwarz in the semi-finals, after one of the hardest five-set matches ever played on these courts. Three of the best sets and nearly all points were deuced, the final score being 2/6,6/8,7/5,5,6/4. Jones and Hoerr won over Von Reppert and Schwarz in the finals.

Sixty-two players entered the singles and forty-four the doubles in the club championship. Drewes won the final from Josties, the match going the full five sets. In the doubles final Josties and Drewes defeated Von Reppert and Gautier.

In conjunction with the Municipal Tennis Association the club held a Center preliminary tournament for boys under sixteen years and under nineteen years. Al Satterfield was successful in the boys under nineteen years and George Passmore won the under sixteen years event. Both boys went East to the national boys' tournament.

On September 18 the Tennis Ambulance players arrived in the city for a two-day exhibition on the courts of the Triple A. The club erected stands with a seating capacity for 2,500 people. The first day a fair crowd came out to the matches, but the majority were evidently waiting for the second day to see the match between Miss Bjurstedt and Miss Browne. The sudden illness of Miss Browne's mother caused her to leave that night for her home and lessened the interest considerably. Next day, as the crowds were beginning to gather, one of the worst rainstorms of the summer broke loose. Arrangements were made by the club whereby the players stayed over until Sunday, and by playing on Saturday and Sunday enabled the club to turn over to the Tennis Ambulance Committee a sum considerably over the guarantee set by the National Association.

GROUP OF KANSAS CITY PLAYERS.

Lawn Tennis in Kansas City

BY C. E. MCBRIDE.

Kansas City's tennis tournaments in the summer of 1917 were for the benefit of the Red Cross and there was a fine patriotic interest in the play, but local followers of the game have more than that to be proud of. Kansas City has given largely of its young men to the service and each branch of athletics is proud, and justly so, of its representation in the army, the navy, and the air forces. Tennis men and women of Kansas City are particularly proud of the athletes now in the services from Kansas City's realm of the great court game.

Four Kansas City tennis stars lauded captaincies in the Officers' Training Camp at Fort Riley, Kansas. John C. ("Jack") Cannon, several times city and Missouri Valley champion and once winner of the Missouri State championship, and Clarence Holcomb, always high in tournament play, won commissions as captains. Cannon and Holcomb represented the Kansas City Field Club in tennis circles. The tennis contingent of the Kansas City Athletic Club is represented

1—Captain W. P. Pinkerton, Kansas City Athletic Club; 2—Captain C. H. Holcomb, Kansas City Field Club; 3—Captain H. M. Pinkerton, Kansas City Athletic Club.

TRIO OF KANSAS CITY PLAYERS WHO WON CAPTAINCIES IN THE ARMY.

By way of showing how Kansas City tennis men have flocked to the colors it may be well to show a list of the ranking ten players of the 1917 season, as judged by the season's tournaments, giving the whereabouts of each at the time of this writing: 1—Lockhorn, Rockhill T.C., aviation school at Champaign, Ill. 2—Newell, K.C.A.C., passed exams for aviation school. 3—Teachnor, K.C.A.C., in ambulance corps already called out. 4—Holcomb, K.C.F.C., captain infantry, now in France. 5—Uhl, Rockhill T.C., studying medicine at University of Kansas; tried to enlist but was sent back to school to complete medical education, when he will be subject to call. 6—Wester, Rockhill T.C., two players who won the rank of captain, W. P. and H. M. Pinkerton. W. P. Pinkerton was president of the Kansas City Tennis Association at the time he went to the Officers' Training School. He was much interested in the development of tennis on the public courts and in creating a more harmonious working agreement among the various tennis clubs of the city. Numerous other commissions were won, first and second lieutenantcies, but these four are cited simply to flash in the spotlight the caliber of men who play tennis. Clifford Lockhorn, formerly of Cincinnati, who since he came to Kansas City several years ago, has tied with Jack Cannon for high honors in this section, chose the hazardous air game and got his training at Champaign, Ill.

1, Miss Marjorie Hires, and, 2, Miss Evelyn Seavey, Rockhill Club doubles champions; 3, Miss Marguerite Thompson, and, 4, Miss Marian Casper, Manual Training High School doubles team; 5, Miss Louise Hammann, and, 6, Miss Mary Morley, Kansas City Field Club doubles team; 7, Miss Ethel Clark, Manual Training High School; 8, Miss Elizabeth Forrester, twelve-year-old expert of the Rockhill Club; 9, Miss Marie Cahill, Central High School; 10, Miss Leslie La Beaume, St. Louis, and, 11, Mrs. W. A. Ellis, Chicago, doubles team that played in Kansas City tournaments last season.

von second lieutenantcy at Fort Sheridan. 7—Moore, Rockhill T.C. 8—Parker, K.C.F.C. 9—McCoy, K.C.F.C., schoolboy. 10—Ernest Primm, K.C.F.C., schoolboy. Other tennis men now in the service are: "Jimmy" Elwell, Quartermaster's Corps; R. Emmett Condon, Louis J. Hatch, Fred B. Foster, infantry; Lieut. A. C. Behrendt, now in France; John Lerche, C. J. Meyer, artillery; L. G. McFall, Quartermaster's Corps; Harry H. Pierce, L. E. Trautwein, Fred Gross, infantry; J. S. Wengert, artillery; Lieut. George Forster, infantry; Stephen T. Claffin, Horace Love, W. H. Knight, C. E. Ray, navy; Cliff Hollabaugh, aviator, and many others.

The one hundred public courts of Kansas City saw a busy summer's play. Owing to the fact that Cannon, Lockhorn, Pinkerton and other prime movers in the public course tournament were in the army the tourney was not held, but the public courts developed several players of fine merit who flashed surprising form in several of the tournaments.

1, C. J. Lockhorn, Rockhill Tennis Club, winner Great Plains patriotic tournament. 2, Heath Byford, prominent Chicago player. 3, Captain John C. Cannon, Kansas City Field Club, several times city and Missouri Valley champion and once winner of Missouri State title.

The tournament season opened May 25 with a quadrangular tourney among the four Kansas City high schools. Central, Westport, Northeast and Manual. The tournament resulted in a tie between Central and Westport. Merrill Dubach, Central, defeated Ernest Primm, Central, in the singles final in the boys' class, and Dubach and Primm, Central, defeated Paul Proctor and Willard Pierce, Westport, in doubles. In the girls' play, Miss Laura Small, Westport, defeated Miss Marie Cahill, Central, in singles, and Miss Mary Bess Meservey and Miss Marjorie Kerner, Westport, defeated Miss Anabel Megan and Miss Dorothy Ludwig, Westport.

The Missouri State, Great Plains, women's and men's; Missouri Valley, the classic of the Valley through its long years of existence, and the Central Westport women's tournaments followed, but comment is withheld, as all of these events are described on other pages of the ANNUAL.

Central States Patriotic Tournament

Theodore Drewes in the singles and Drewes and F. O. Josties in the doubles were the winners in the Central States patriotic tournament, which was held by the St. Louis Amateur Athletic Association, beginning June 29. There were one hundred entries in the singles and forty-five pairs in the doubles, and the meeting in every way was successful. It was a case of youngsters against veterans and the former captured the honors. Summaries:

Central West Women's Patriotic Tournament

Notwithstanding the fact that the Central West women's tournament was held late last year, everyone seems to have been well satisfied with the event; and, although the number of actual contestants was smaller than usual, still the high quality of the matches that were played stamped the 1917 tournament as one of the most successful ever given in Kansas City. The tournament was held under the auspices of the Kansas City Field Club, beginning August 27.

The singles event was won by Mrs. W. W. Yager, a Field Club member. Mrs. Yager played championship tennis throughout the entire tourney, and not only did she not drop a set during the entire tournament, but none of her opponents was able to force her to a deuce set. The doubles title was won by Miss Mary Morley and Miss Louise Hammann, both of the Field Club, and doubles champions of yore. The junior singles also was won by a Field Club contestant, Miss Martha McLendon, but she was compelled to yield the first set to her opponent, Miss Nona O'Donnell, each of the three sets ending at 6/3. Great Plains Patriotic Tournament

The Great Plains patriotic tournament for men, held at the Rockhill Tennis Club, Kansas City, Mo., the week of July 14, was a record breaker in point of entries. The crowds throughout the week were hardly so large as some of those in former years, but more than $200 was realized for the Red Cross.

The singles honors were won by Clifford J. Lockhorn of the Rockhill Club, who defeated his fellow clubman, Heath Moore, in a four-set match in the finals. In view of the fact that there was a strong list of entries in the tournament, it was quite a victory for the Rockhill Club to have both men in the finals. Lockhorn went through his bracket in rather easy style, losing only one set, but Moore completely upset the dope by defeating McCoy, Adoue and Uhls, all of whom were picked to defeat him. Among the out-of-town contestants who fell by the wayside were J. B. Adoue, Jr., George V. Peak, Jr., and J. H. Higginbotham of Dallas, Tex.; Charles T. Speice and C. R. Steele, Oklahoma doubles champions; Walter Newell, Missouri Valley intercollegiate champion, and Kenneth B. Uhls, University of Kansas and Mid-Continent title holder.

The Rockhill team, Lockhorn and Wester, also won the doubles honors. Adoue and Peak looked like sure winners in the first two sets, which they captured somewhat easily; but Lockhorn and Wester braced in the third and after taking it, 6-4, they raced on through the next two and to victory in the best match of the tournament. C. S. Selden Els triumphed over A. D. Fulton, 6/3-6-4-3-6/6/2 in the final round of the consolation singles, while Howard and Krebs defeated Porter and Sternberg in the doubles, 7-5, 6-0, 6-1. Great Plains Women's Patriotic Tournament

The Great Plains women's patriotic tournament, held at the Rockhill Tennis Club, Kansas City, Mo., the week of July 2, was the largest event of its kind in point of entries that has ever been played in this section. It was given, of course, as a benefit for the Red Cross and a nice sum was derived for that fund.

The singles honor went to Mrs. Walter A. Ellis of Los Angeles, who defeated Miss Marjorie Hires of the Rockhill Club in the finals. Miss Hires was forced into a defensive game from the very start and, although she tried repeatedly to force the play, her opponent broke up every effort by passing her when she came to the net and outplaying her with steadiness from the back court.

The doubles was captured by the Rockhill team, Miss Hires and Miss Evelyn Seavey, whose clever play won them the title in 1916. Mrs. Ellis was paired with Miss Leslie LaBeaume of St. Louis, and they went through to the finals without serious opposition. The final match was a splendid exhibition, but clever net work and team play won for the home aggregation. Miss Laura Small won the consolation singles by defeating Miss Peggy Thompson, 6/2,6/4. In a junior event for girls under sixteen, Miss Martha McLendon proved herself the victor over a field of ten other players. Her opponent in the final round was Miss Genevieve Pierce, whom she eliminated by the scores of 6/2,6/2. The summaries:

Junior Tournaments

National Junior and Boys' Championships

In what was considered the best competition ever held, Charles S. Garland of Pittsburgh, Pa., won the national junior singles and Vincent Richards of Yonkers, N. Y., the national boys' singles, on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, N. Y., played in conjunction with the national patriotic tournament in August.

Garland and Fritz Bastian of Indianapolis, Ind., met in the final round of the juniors, and with the exception of the third set Garland was invincible. Richards had almost a walkover in the final match with J. D. E. Jones, Jr., of Providence, R. I. Only in the second set was Jones able to make any stand, and by the arduous kind of work he got three games. The summaries:

Cleveland News Junior City Tournament

BY M. T. McDEVITT.

The fourth annual junior tennis tournament conducted by the Cleveland News, on the courts of the Lakewood Tennis Club, proved just as successful as the three which preceded it, in spite of the fact that the entry list failed to reach the 1916 high water mark. The Lakewood Club went into the hands of a diver just prior to the tournament and great difficulty was encountered in clearing the courts for the competition, but the event was staged as per schedule after the entry list had been closed prior to the original date.

The singles title was won by Kirk M. Reid, a Cornell boy, who defeated Vernon, Glenville High School champion, 6/3,6/1,4/6,5/7,6/3, in the final round. Poor condition cost Vernon the junior laurels, after he had apparently played the collegian. The victory was Reid's second in the News classic. Kirk M. Reid and George Ingersoll defeated Donald Burdett and Isadore Goldreich, 6/3,6/2,2/6,6/2, in the final round of the doubles. The News donated six prizes, winners and runners-up in all events being awarded. Complete scores for the tournament follow:

Annual Meeting of the U. S. N. L. T. A.

In a number of ways the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the U.S.N.L.T.A., which was held at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, in the afternoon and evening of Friday, February 15, was memorable. One was the restoration of championships, the meeting voting to stage the 1918 tournaments on a pre-war basis; that is, to have them be for titles (national, sectional, state, etc.) instead of being held, as in 1917, as "patriotic tournaments." But it was decided that the net proceeds of all tournaments should be devoted to the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities. The restoration of championships came after a debate that was long and animated. It revealed a much more considerate opposition to the restoration than had been anticipated save by a few; and the matter was discussed pro and con, well nigh a score of delegates expressing their opinions.

The report of the Committee on Codification of the Laws of Lawn Tennis and "Cases and Decisions" was read by Chairman S. W. Merriew, and was approved after the committee had made one minor change. The committee originally recommended the substitution of the words "at the center" for "in the middle," the purpose being to secure greater uniformity; but, upon further consideration, it is deemed that the wording of the present law is better, for the reason that there cannot be a center of a net. It must be in the middle.

Chairman Myrick read the report of the Committee on Development of Boys' and Junior Tennis and referred to the decision of the committee to recommend the adoption of a girls' championship. He stated that the Philadelphia Cricket Club had been asked to hold it in connection with the annual women's championship, but that the club did not regard it as feasible. Mr. Myrick was strongly of the opinion that the event should be held, and said that it could be staged at the West Side T.C. at the same time as the men's championship, but added that it would be much better to hold it at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, and he felt sure that the matter still could be arranged. The committee's report was accepted, and subsequently, upon applying for the women's championship, Joseph M. Jennings, chairman of its tournament committee, stated that the Philadelphia Cricket Club would take the girls' championship as well. This happy ending pleased everybody.

A resolution commending the efficient manner in which Acting President Julian S. Myrick had performed the duties of Major George T. Adee since entering the service last August, was adopted unanimously. The resolution was introduced to make valid all actions taken since that time. A vote of thanks was tendered Field Secretary Paul B. Williams for his untiring efforts to improve the standard of tennis throughout the country. The report of the Ambulance Committee was approved and it was moved that "sincere and hearty thanks" be given the committee, and that the Association thank each player for the self-sacrifices made to bring the movement to a successful conclusion.

Officers of the Association elected were as follows: President, George T. Adee, New York; vice-president, Julian S. Myrick, New York; secretary, Edwin F. Torrey, Clinton, N. Y.; treasurer, George W. Wightman, Boston, Mass. Incumbent sectional delegates were elected without opposition.

GEORGE W. WIGHTMAN,
Treasurer United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP.

At the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, February 9, 1917, the delegates voted to hold the National Doubles Championship of the United States at the Longwood Cricket Club, in one tournament, the champion team to play through. The attention of members of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association is directed to the following resolution adopted unanimously at the same meeting:

"The Executive Committee is authorized to award the sectional championships to all the sections of the country, one to the Middle States and New England as in the past, and one to each of the other sections; and each section is urged to send a team to play in the National Doubles Championship."

REGULATIONS GOVERNING JUNIOR AND BOYS' TOURNAMENTS, 1918.

The Plan of Competition—Competition for the National Junior and National Boys' Championships of the United States is planned on a series of elimination contests. These shall begin with preliminary tournaments whose winners only shall be eligible to compete for district championships in cities designated by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association as tennis centers. Winners of these tennis center events shall be eligible to compete for the national title, the same plan applying to both juniors and boys.

Tournament—Any club, college or park association, member directly or indirectly of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, may give preliminary sanctioned tournaments.

No dues are required by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association other than the regular dues (if any) of the organization giving the event.

Sanction must be obtained in the usual manner by application to the Field Secretary, Paul B. Williams, 20 Broad Street, New York City.

The National Interscholastic Championship has been discontinued, but interscholastic tournaments may, like junior tournaments, be given preliminary to tennis center tournaments.

Eligibility—Junior tournaments shall be open to boys who are not 19 years old on or before October 1 in the year of competition.

Interscholastic tournaments shall be open to boys complying with this age limit, and who are also attending schools preparing for college. Winners of interscholastic tournaments shall be eligible to compete in any one tennis center junior tournament.

Boys' tournaments shall be open to any boys who are not 16 years old on or before October 1 in the year of competition.

The winner of a preliminary tournament shall be eligible to compete in any one tennis center championship tournament.

A boy winning both a junior or interscholastic and a boys' preliminary tournament may compete in a tennis center championship in either class, but in one only.

There shall be no limit as to the number of preliminary tournaments a player may enter.

In case the winner of a tournament is unable to compete in the event to which he thus becomes eligible, the management of such tournament may nominate another participant.

Winners of tennis center championships shall be eligible to compete, in their respective classes, for the National Junior or National Boys' Championship, in tournaments to be held at the same time and place as the National Singles Championship.

The following cities have been designated as tennis centers:

RULES FOR RANKING.

On or before April 1 in each year the Executive Committee shall appoint a committee composed of five men, to be known as the Ranking Committee. On or before June 1 in each year the Executive Committee shall also appoint a sub-committee of three women to assist the Ranking Committee in making the women's ranking. Such sub-committee shall be under the direction and supervision of the Ranking Committee. It shall be the duty of the Ranking Committee to make the rankings for the ensuing season of play under and pursuant to the following rules, to be known as

RULES FOR THE RANKING OF PLAYERS.

(1) The results of all events sanctioned by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association occurring within the period of the playing season under consideration, including international and team matches, irrespective of whether the competitions took place in this country or abroad, shall be considered in the rankings.

(2) All returns, made pursuant to Rules 24 and 25 of Regulations for the Management of Lawn Tennis Tournaments, shall be filed with the Ranking Committee at the office of the Field Secretary of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

(3) The Field Secretary shall keep a separate card index for each season's play, in which there shall be recorded all matches in men's and women's singles and men's doubles played during that season in the events named in Rule 1 hereof. There shall be a separate card for each singles player and a separate card for each doubles team. As the returns are received under Rule 2, the data shall be recorded on the cards as soon thereafter as possible, with the result that the complete record of any individual or team shall appear on the card of such individual or team. The full names and post office addresses of all players shall appear on their respective cards.

(4) Each year there shall be three rankings, as follows:

1. Men's singles; in which at least 100 individuals shall be named.
2. Men's doubles; in which at least 20 teams shall be named.
3. Women's singles; in which at least 30 individuals shall be named.

In each case the individuals or teams shall be divided into classes. There may be one or more individuals or teams placed in any class. The player or players with the best season's records shall be placed in Class 1; the player or players with the next best records shall be placed in Class 2, and so on for any number of classes, according to the decision of the Ranking Committee.

(5) To be considered for a ranking, an individual or team must participate during the season in at least three sanctioned events, but on the unanimous vote of the Ranking Committee occasional exceptions to this rule may be made. An individual or team, however, need not necessarily be ranked because of having qualified under this rule, if in the opinion of a majority of the committee the data furnished by the record in question is insufficient for the purpose or the standard of play does not warrant any ranking.

(6) The rankings shall be based solely upon the records of the players for the season under consideration and not upon the opinion of the Ranking Committee. Middle and late season performance shall be given greater consideration than that of the early season.

(7) Any individual or team may be ranked irrespective of nationality or place of residence.

(8) The winners of National Championships shall be ranked on their season's records as are other players and shall not be arbitrarily placed at the head of the rankings, but in a comparison of their records with those of other players, they shall be given the benefit of any reasonable doubt as to the relative merits of such records.

(9) The Ranking Committee shall submit its report to the Executive Committee at the meeting of the Executive Committee held in December of the year for which the rankings are made. The Executive Committee may alter the rankings as submitted.

(10) Members of the Ranking Committee shall not divulge any of the results of their deliberations or any other information concerning the rankings prior to the publication thereof by the Executive Committee.

(11) The Ranking Committee's report shall be published in the official organ of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association in the first issue thereof following the meeting of the Executive Committee at which the report is submitted.

(12) These rules may be amended and additions thereto may be made by the Executive Committee at any of its meetings.

NATIONAL UMPIRES' ASSOCIATION.

Organization of the National Umpires' Association was undertaken after the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association in 1917. Declaration of war, however, interfered with the plans of the committee, so that a comparatively small membership was enrolled. Sentiment expressed at the annual meeting in 1918 favored further development of this organization. Consequently, a committee to conduct membership campaign was appointed as follows: E. C. Conlin, 280 Broadway, New York; Davison Obeare, St. Louis; Percy Osborne, Philadelphia; S. A. McAllister, New York; J. E. McLain, Pittsburgh. Correspondence should be addressed to the National Umpires' Association, Room 721, 20 Broad Street, New York City.

Membership is to be national in scope and it is particularly desired that all sections of the country be represented. Anyone wishing to join must have his application endorsed by the president of his club, if a member of a tennis club, or by the chairman of the tennis committee, if a member of a country club, or by a ranking player. In view of the fact that the United States National Lawn Tennis Association is undertaking to promote tennis among juniors and boys and as a municipal sport, efficient supervision of the matches becomes increasingly important. The National Umpires' Association has a great opportunity to develop proper standards of the play and seeks, therefore, the co-operation of everyone who is interested in promoting the best interests of the game.

APPLICATIONS FOR TOURNAMENTS.

Applications for officially sanctioned tournaments for 1919 must be made to Paul B. Williams, Field Secretary, 20 Broad Street, New York City, on or before March 10, 1919.

Any club failing to apply in writing before that date will not be awarded the tournament applied for.

By Order of the Executive Committee,

EDWIN FULLER TORREY, Secretary.

FOOT FAULT RULE

The Executive Committee urge players to carefully observe and clubs to rigidly enforce the Foot Fault Rule. Clubs holding officially sanctioned tournaments are requested to appoint a foot fault umpire for every match and to include in the printed announcement of their tournaments the direct information that "THE FOOT FAULT RULE WILL BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED," together with a copy of the rule (see page 176).

The National Umpires' Association will make every effort to help clubs obtain foot fault umpires.

Regulations for the International Lawn Tennis Association Davis Cup

Revised and Adopted by the United States, Great Britain, France, Belgium, Austria and Australia, 1906.

1. The competition shall be called "The International Lawn Tennis Championship," and shall be open to any nation which has a recognized Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization; and, for the purposes of the Regulations, Australia, with New Zealand, the British Isles, British South Africa, Canada, India, Sweden and Norway, and the United States of America shall, amongst others, be regarded as separate Nations.

2. The Nation for the time being holding the International Lawn Tennis Championship shall hereinafter be termed "The Champion Nation."

3. The Competition shall take place in accordance with the following regulations, and, except in so far as may be agreed upon by the competing Nations for their own Tie, with the Laws and Regulations of the game for the time being sanctioned by the Champion Nation.

4. The management of the Competition shall be entrusted to a Committee, hereafter termed "The Committee of Management," which shall be appointed annually by the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation.

5. The Committee of Management shall make all arrangements for the preliminary Tie or Ties (if any) of the Competition where such preliminary Tie or Ties are to be played in the Country of the Champion Nation, and also for the Challenge Tie, and its decision in respect of all such arrangements shall be final. The Committee of Management shall also have power to depute to others, in any preliminary Tie or Ties, the making of all or any such arrangements as may be deemed necessary.

6. Any Nation wishing to compete shall give notice to the Secretary of the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation, so that it shall reach him not later than the first Monday in March of the year, in which the Competition is to take place. Should more than one Nation challenge, they shall compete among themselves for the right to play the Champion Nation in the Challenge Tie. The Draw, at which each Challenging Nation may be represented, shall be made by the Committee of Management on the day following the first Monday in March, and particulars shall be notified to the respective Secretaries for the time being of the Lawn Tennis Associations or Corresponding Organizations of the several competing Nations, with an intimation of the latest date by which the Tie or Ties shall be concluded. Failure to conclude a Tie by the date fixed by the Committee of Management shall render both Sides liable to be scratched, unless in the opinion of the Committee of Management, the weather or other unavoidable hindrance, shall have made completion impossible. Competing Nations shall arrange among themselves for the playing of their respective Ties upon a ground or grounds, and upon a date or dates convenient to those concerned; but, in the event of an agreement not being arrived at, the preliminary Tie or Ties shall be played in the country of the Champion Nation upon a ground or grounds, and upon a date or dates, to be fixed upon by the Committee of Management.

7. When gate money shall be taken, one half of the profit shall belong to the visiting Nation; or, in the case of a Tie being played on neutral ground, one third each to the visiting Nations, and the remaining fraction of profit in each case shall go to the Nation in whose Country the Tie shall be played.

8. The Challenge Tie shall be played in the country of the Champion Nation at a date and upon a ground to be agreed upon by common consent. In the event of an agreement not being arrived at, the fixing of the date and ground shall be submitted to Arbitration.

9. A player shall be qualified to represent a Nation, if he shall have been born in that Nation, or shall have resided therein for at least two years immediately preceding a Tie, provided always that he be a bona fide Amateur; but, no one shall be entitled to play for more than one Nation in this Competition during the same year. During the time that a player may be qualifying to play for a Nation under the residential qualifications, he may play for the Nation for which he shall have been last previously qualified.

10. The Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of each of the Nations concerned shall appoint a Captain of its Side. In default of such appointment a Side shall choose its own Captain.

11. For each Tie a Referee, from whose decision there shall be no appeal, shall be appointed by common consent of the Captains of the competing Sides. He shall have power to appoint Umpires. He shall decide any point of law which an Umpire may profess himself unable to decide, or which may be referred to him on appeal from the decision of an Umpire by the players. He shall decide, if he be called upon to decide by the Captain of either Side, whether or not a Match or Matches shall be stopped owing to the state of the courts, the state of the weather, darkness, or other unavoidable hindrance.

12. (a) Each competing Nation shall, twenty-one days before the date fixed for the commencement of a Tie, nominate to the Committee of Management not more than four players, without specifying who shall play in Singles and Doubles. Different players, however, may be nominated by a Nation for different Ties.

(b) Each Captain shall, twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of play in each Contest, give notice of the composition of his Team to the Executive Committee, and his Team shall be selected from the four players previously nominated for the Tie. Such selection by the Captain, however, shall be regarded as solely for the convenience of the Executive Committee, and may be varied by him before the commencement of play.

(c) For the Second Round of the Singles Contest in any Tie, the Referee may sanction the substitution of another of the players nominated by a Nation for that Tie in the place of any player, who, in the opinion of the Referee, is incapacitated by illness, accident or other unavoidable hindrance; provided that such substitute shall not be the player who has already competed in the Singles Contest.

13. The time of cessation of play shall be fixed before the commencement of each day's play by the Captains of the opposing Sides, or by the Referee if they shall disagree. It shall be the duty of the Referee to stop play when this time arrives; provided, nevertheless, that he may extend the time with the consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides. A player shall not be called upon to play more than one Match a day, except with the unanimous consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides and the majority of the Executive Committee.

14. Each Tie shall be decided by the combined results of Singles and Doubles, and the Side which shall win the majority of Matches shall be the winner of a Tie.

15. In the Singles, each Team shall, subject to Regulation 12, Clause c, consist of two players, who shall play each against each of the opposing Team the best of five advantage sets. The order of play and courts shall be decided by lot. In the Doubles, each Team shall consist of two players, who shall play against the opposing Team the best of five advantage sets.

16. Unless otherwise arranged by the unanimous consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides and the majority of the Executive Committee, the Doubles shall take place between the two rounds of the Singles Contest. If, however, a player be chosen for both the Singles and Doubles Contests, and if, by a change in the above arrangements, he be called upon to play his two Singles Matches on consecutive days, then there shall be an interval of one day between the second and the third day's play. Provided, nevertheless, that if there be an interval between the first and second day's play, either from postponement, arrangement, or the interval of a Sunday, there shall not be an interval between the second and third day's play.

17. If any player be absent when called upon to play by the Referee, the opposing Side shall be entitled to three love sets.

18. Any Competing Nation whose Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization, or whose Representatives shall fail to conform to the above Regulations, may be disqualified by the Committee of Management in respect of the Competition for the year wherein such failure shall occur.

19. Winners of a preliminary Tie shall notify the result without delay to the Committee of Management, by telegram, which shall be confirmed by letter.

20. For purposes of correspondence and the giving of notices required by these Regulations, the Secretary for the time being of the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation shall be regarded as representing the Committee of Management.

21. The above Regulations shall be binding upon the Nations concerned, and shall not be altered except with the consent of two-thirds of the Associations or Corresponding Organizations whose Nations shall have from time to time competed and who shall record their votes.

NOTE.—In the above Regulations, one Nation playing against another is regarded as a "Tie"; Singles and Doubles are regarded as separate "Contests"; and the best of five advantage sets is regarded as a "Match". The players in Singles and Doubles are regarded as separate "Teams"; and the players in the combined Contests as a "Side".

Constitution

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This organization shall be known as the "UNITED STATES NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION," hereinafter referred to as the National Association.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. The membership shall consist of the following classes:

- (1) Clubs.
- (2) Active Associations.
- (3) Allied Associations.
- (4) Park Associations.

Allied associations shall consist of associations of schools or colleges, but such associations, if they so desire, may become active associations by notifying the Secretary of the National Association and paying the dues for an active association. Active associations shall consist of all associations other than allied and park associations and in each case the limits of an active association shall necessarily exclude to that extent the limits of every other association. Park associations shall consist of associations of parks, not more than one association from any one city, and approved by the park commissioner.

SEC. 2. An association, either (2) or (3), shall consist of five or more individual clubs, any one of which may or may not be itself a member directly of the National Association. Each club shall at all meetings be entitled to one vote. Each active association shall be entitled to two votes and to one additional vote for every five clubs or fraction thereof members of it over ten. Allied and park associations shall not be entitled to any vote. No club being itself a member of the National Association shall be counted as a member of an active association in determining the number of votes which may be cast by such association. No member of the National Association in arrears or failing to have paid its fiscal dues by the first of February each year preceding the annual meeting, shall be entitled to vote at such meeting, nor shall such club be awarded an officially sanctioned tournament held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

SEC. 3. On or before the first day of January in every year each sub-association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer and a list of clubs belonging to it on December 1st preceding, and each club directly a member of the National Association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer, holding office on December 1st preceding. The secretary of each association shall notify the Secretary of the National Association of any changes in its membership immediately upon their occurrence.

ARTICLE III.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. Proposals for membership must be made in writing to the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, with the name and address of the applicant, and signed by the proper officer of the club or association making the proposal, and shall give such information with regard to membership, grounds, etc., as shall be required by the Executive Committee. Where the applicant is an association, the names and addresses of each of its members shall be given with the application, together with a statement of the limits that it desires to represent.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have full power to elect candidates for membership, except that no association shall be deemed a member whose limits shall conflict with those of any other association until its election be confirmed by a two-thirds vote at the annual meeting of the National Association, or the associations upon whose limits it encroaches consent to such encroachment. The election to membership of such an association automatically decreases the limits of other associations to such an extent as shall preclude a conflict of limits.

SEC. 3. Dues, etc.—The annual dues to the National Association in the case of clubs shall be ten dollars ($10) and in the case of active associations shall be thirty-five dollars ($35), except that where any such association is composed of more than ten clubs its annual dues shall in addition be fifteen dollars ($15) for every five clubs or fraction thereof above ten. Allied and park associations shall not be required to pay any annual dues. No club or association shall be allowed the privilege of a member until after its first annual dues have been paid and no club shall be entitled to a vote at the annual meeting of the National Association unless it was a member thereof for the preceding fiscal year. The fiscal year of the National Association shall begin February 1st. All dues for the ensuing year are payable on or before May 1st.

SEC. 4. Limits of Payments, etc.—Any club or association which shall fail to have paid its annual dues on or before June 1st may be debarred from the privileges of a member by the Executive Committee until the same are paid, and, at their discretion, may be dropped from the roll.

ARTICLE IV.

RESIGNATIONS, EXPULSIONS, ETC.

SECTION 1. Resignations, etc.—Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing, addressed to the Secretary; and the resignation cannot be accepted until all dues for the current fiscal year are paid. Resignations must be received before February 1st to relieve the member from payment of dues for the ensuing year.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee of the National Association, hereinafter provided for, shall have the power to suspend or expel any member which may neglect or refuse a strict and honorable compliance with its Constitution, By-Laws, etc., or which shall, by its conduct, bring reproach or disgrace upon the National Association; or which shall, being itself an association, retain as one of its members any club objected to by notice in writing by the Executive Committee, subject to the right of any member, if expelled, to appeal to the National Association, at its next annual meeting, for reinstatement.

ARTICLE V.

Any article or section of these By-laws may be suspended for any one meeting by a two-thirds vote of all cast.

Laws of Lawn Tennis

For many years the Laws of Lawn Tennis and the "Cases and Decisions" of Dr. James Dwight have been in need of revision. In December, 1916, President George T. Adee of the U.S.N.L.T.A., carrying out the wishes of the Executive Committee, asked S. Wallis Merrihew, of New York, Editor of American Lawn Tennis, to become chairman of the Committee on Codification of the Laws of Lawn Tennis and "Cases and Decisions." Mr. Merrihew accepted, and selected as the other members of the committee, R. N. Williams, 2nd, and Beals C. Wright. Before the committee could begin its work diplomatic relations with Germany were broken, and in April, 1917, a state of war with that country was recognized by Congress. The abandonment of championships, the annual ranking, etc., followed. In September, Lieutenant Williams sailed for France.

In view of these facts it was deemed wise to make only such changes as were most needed, deferring until the end of the war a complete revision of the laws. The Committee presented its report to the Executive Committee at its December, 1917. meeting, and it was approved. At the annual meeting of the U.S.N.L.T.A., in February, 1918, the report was adopted without change.

THE COURT.

1. The singles court is 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to the tops of two posts, A and B, standing 3 feet outside the court on each side. The height of the net is 3 feet 6 inches at the posts, and 3 feet in the middle. The band at the top of the net shall be not less than 2 inches nor more than $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width, and shall not have any surplus material projecting below the sewing at the bottom of said band. At each end of the court, parallel with the net, and 39 feet from it, are drawn the base lines, C D and E F, the ends of which are connected by the side lines, C E and D F. Half-way between the side lines, and parallel with them, is drawn the half-court line, G H, dividing the space on each side of the net into two equal parts called the right and left courts. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it, and parallel with it, are drawn the service lines, I J and K L.

and equipment.

The marking of the half-court line between the service lines and the base lines shall be omitted; but the place where the half-court line would meet the base lines, if it were extended, shall be indicated by a mark immediately in front of the base lines. The maximum width of the half-court line shall be 2 inches.

Marking.

LAW 1.

Measurements.

The measurement of all lines (except the half-court line) shall be outside measurement; that is, the distance from the outside of one base line to the other shall be 78 feet; from outside of side line to side line 27 feet for the singles and 36 feet for the doubles court; from outside of service line to service line 42 feet.

THE BALLS.Size and weight.

2. The balls shall measure not less than $2\frac{9}{16}$ inches, nor more than $2\frac{10}{16}$ inches, in diameter; and shall weigh not less than 2 ounces nor more than $2\frac{1}{16}$ ounces.

THE GAME.Choice of sides and service.

3. The choice of sides and the right to be server or striker-out in the first game shall be decided by toss; provided that, if the winner of the toss choose the right to be server or striker-out the other player shall have the choice of sides, and vice versa; or the winner of the toss may insist upon a choice by his opponent. If one player choose the court the other may elect not to serve.

How game commences.

4. The players shall stand on opposite sides of the net; the player who first delivers the ball shall be called the server, and the other the striker-out.

Change of service.

5. At the end of the first game the striker-out shall become server, and the server shall become striker-out; and so on alternately in all the subsequent games of the set and following sets.

FOOT FAULT RULE.

6. Before commencing to serve, the server shall stand with both feet at rest behind (i. e., further from the net than) the base line and within the limits of the imaginary continuation of the half-court and side lines, and thereafter the server shall not run, walk, hop or jump before the service has been delivered, but the server may raise one foot from (and, if desired, replace it on) the ground, provided that both feet are kept behind the base line until the service has been delivered.

How player shall serve.

Official interpretation of Law 6:

If a foot be lifted and replaced, there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step.

Definitions and further interpretations made by the Executive Committee:

1. "The service has been delivered" at the instant of the contact of the ball and racket. (It makes no difference what the server does after the contact of the ball and racket.)

Definitions of proper service.

2. It is a hop or jump if both of a player's feet are off the ground at the same time.

3. The grounded foot may be twisted without committing a foot fault, PROVIDED that any part of it retains its contact with the ground.

4. After standing at rest preparatory to serving there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step, no matter how far back of the base line the server may take his stand. Moving one of the feet to another resting place is a step, but a step is not actually taken until the lifted foot is replaced on the ground.

5. The server must come to a complete stop before tossing the ball in the air. Both feet must be kept behind the base line and one foot must remain on the ground until the contact of the ball and racket. The racket and any portion of the body EXCEPT THE FEET may cross the base line prior to the contact of the ball and racket.

7. The service shall be delivered from the right and left courts alternately, beginning from the right in every game, even though odds be given or owed, and the ball served shall drop within the service line, half-court line and side line of the court which is diagonally opposite to that from which it was served or upon any such line.

Faults. 8. It is a fault if the server commit any breach of Law 7, or if he does not stand as directed in Law 6, or if the ball served drop in the net (or go through it), or beyond the service line, or if it drop out of court or in the wrong court. If the server, in attempting to serve, miss the ball altogether, it does not count as a fault; but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, or by the server or anything that he wears or carries, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

Fault cannot be taken.

9. A fault cannot be taken.

How ball is served after a fault.

10. After a fault (if it is the first fault) the server shall serve again from the same court from which he served that fault, unless it was a fault because he served from the wrong court.

When fault cannot be claimed.

11. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service has been delivered.

Ball not to be served till striker-out is ready.

12. The server shall not serve till the striker-out is ready. If the latter attempt to return the service, he shall be deemed ready.

When service or fault does not count.

13. A service or fault delivered when the striker-out is not ready counts for nothing.

Service can not be volleyed.

14. The service shall not be volleyed, that is, taken, before it has touched the ground.

When ball is in play.

15. A ball is in play on leaving the server's racket, except as provided for in Law 8, and remains in play till the stroke is decided.

LAW 16.

16. It is a good return even though the ball touch the net in going into the proper court; but a service, otherwise good, which touches the net shall count for nothing and shall be termed a "let."

Good return.

17. The server wins a stroke if the striker-out volley the service, or if he fail to return the service or the ball in play; or if he return the service or the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke, as provided by Law 20.

When server wins stroke.

18. The striker-out wins a stroke if the server serve two consecutive faults, or if he fail to return the ball in play, or if he return the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court, or if he otherwise lose a stroke as provided by Law 20.

When striker-out wins stroke.

19. A ball falling on a line is regarded as falling in the court bounded by that line.

Ball falling on line is in court.

20. Either player loses a stroke if the ball touch him, or anything that he wears or carries, except his racket in the act of striking; or if he touch the ball with his racket more than once; or if he, or his racket, touch the net or any of its supports, or the ground within his opponent's court, while the ball is in play; or if he volley the ball before it has passed the net.

When player loses stroke.

21. In case a player is obstructed by any accident not within his control, the ball shall be considered a "let." But when a permanent fixture of the court is the cause of the accident the point shall be counted. The benches and chairs placed around the court, and the umpire and linesmen, shall be considered permanent fixtures. If, however, a ball in play strike a permanent fixture of the court (other than the net or posts) before it touches the ground, the point is lost; if after it has touched the ground, the point shall be played out.

Scoring. 22. On either player winning his first stroke, the score is called 15 for that player; on either player winning his second stroke, the score is called 30 for that player; on either player winning his third stroke, the score is called 40 for that player; and the fourth stroke won by either player is scored game for that player, except as follows: If both players have won three strokes, the score is called deuce; and the next stroke won by either player is scored advantage for that player. If the same player win the next stroke, he wins the game; if he lose the next stroke the score returns to deuce, and so on until one player wins the two strokes immediately following the score of deuce, when game is scored for that player.

How winner of set is decided. 23. The player who first wins six games wins the set, except as follows: If both players win five games the score is called games-all; and the next game won by either player is scored advantage game for that player. If the same player win the next game, he wins the set; if he lose the next game, the score returns to games-all; and so on, until either player wins the two games immediately following the score of games-all, when he wins the set. But the committee having charge of any tournament may in their discretion modify this rule by the omission of advantage sets.

When players change sides. 24. The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set and at the end of each set, unless the number of games in such set be even, in which case the change is not made until the end of the first game of the next set. It shall, however, be open to the players by mutual consent and notification to the umpire before the opening of the second game of the match to change sides instead at the end of every set until the odd and concluding set, in which they shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of such set.

*25. In all contests the play shall be continuous from the first service till the match be concluded; provided, however, that at the end of the third set either player is entitled to a rest, which shall not exceed seven minutes; and provided, further, that in case of an unavoidable accident, not within the control of the contestants, a cessation of play which shall not exceed two minutes may be allowed; but this proviso shall be strictly construed, and the privilege never granted for the purpose of allowing a player to recover his strength or wind. The referee in his discretion may at any time postpone the match on account of darkness or condition of the ground or weather. In any case of postponement, the previous score shall hold good. Where the play has ceased for more than an hour, the player who at the cessation thereof was in the court first chosen shall have the choice of courts on the recommencement of play. He shall stay in the court he chooses for the remainder of the set. The last two sentences do not apply when the players change every alternate game, as provided by Law 24.

26. If a player serve out of his turn, the umpire, as soon as the mistake is discovered, shall direct the player to serve who ought to have served. But all strokes scored before such discovery shall be counted. If a game shall have been completed before such discovery, then the service in the next alternate game shall be delivered by the player who did not serve out of his turn, and so on in regular rotation.

Procedure when server plays out of turn.

The foregoing laws shall apply to the three-handed and four-handed games, except as follows:

27. For the three-handed and four-handed games the court shall be 36 feet in width; $4\frac{1}{2}$ feet inside the side lines, and parallel with them, but extending only to the service lines, are drawn the service side lines M N and O P.

Dimensions of doubles court.

Clubs and associations holding tournaments may, however, retain the customary method of marking (i. e., by extending the service side lines to the base lines) if this will avoid delay in the conduct of the meeting.

28. In the three-handed game, the single player shall serve in every alternate game.

When single player shall serve.

29. In the four-handed game, the pair who have the right to serve in the first game shall decide which partner shall do so; and the opposing pair shall decide in like manner for the second game. 31. The players shall take the service alternately throughout the game; a player cannot receive a service delivered to his partner; and the order of service and striking out once established shall not be altered, nor shall the striker-out change courts to receive the service, till the end of the set.

Faults.

Cases and Decisions

BY JAMES DWIGHT.

Officially recognized by the U. S. N. L. T. A.

I. A player standing outside the court volleys the ball or catches it in his hand, and claims the stroke because the ball was certainly going out of court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. It makes no difference where he was standing. The return is presumed good until it strikes the ground outside of the court.

II. A player is struck by the ball served before it has touched the ground, he being outside of the service court. How does it count?

Decision.—The player struck loses the stroke. The service is presumably good until it strikes in the wrong court. A player cannot take the decision upon himself by stopping the ball. If it is going to be a fault, he has only to get out of the way.

III. The service is delivered before the striker-out is ready. He tries to return it and fails. Is he entitled to have it played over again?

Decision.—No. If he attempts to return the service he is deemed ready.

IV. The striker-out calls "not ready," for a second service. The ball strikes beyond the service line, and the striker-out claims that the fact that he was not ready makes no difference, since a fault cannot be returned, and, therefore, that two faults have been served.

Decision.—The second service goes for nothing. A player cannot call "not ready," and then have the service count, or not, as suits his interests.

V. A ball having been played over the net bounds back into the court from which it came. The player reaches over the net and plays it before it falls. Has he a right to do so?

Decision.—Yes, provided he does not touch the net. He has a right to play the ball at any time from the moment it crosses the net into his court until it touches the ground a second time.

VI. A ball is played into the net; the player on the other side, thinking that the ball is coming over, strikes at it and hits the net. Who loses the stroke?

Decision.—It is simply a question of fact for the umpire to decide. If the player touch the net while the ball was still in play he loses the stroke.

VII. Can a player follow a ball over the net with his racket, provided that he hits the ball on his own side of the net?

Decision.—Yes, the only restrictions are that he shall not volley the ball until it has crossed the net, and that he shall not touch the net or any of its supports.

VIII. A player's racket slips out of his hand and flies into the net. Does he lose the stroke for hitting the net?

Decision.—Yes, if the ball be still in play. It does not matter if the racket be in a player's hand or not.

IX. A player's racket leaves his hand, but meets the ball and returns it over the net. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes. There is no law requiring a racket to be in a player's hand when the ball is returned. It would unquestionably be a good return if the racket were held against the ground by a player's feet, and the ball bounded back off of it.

X. A single match is played with a double net and inside posts. A player touches the net beyond the inside posts, and claims that he does not lose the stroke because there should be no net more than three feet outside of the court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. The net where he touches it is part of the supports of the net. He might, perhaps, have objected to the arrangement of the net before the match.

XI. A player returns the ball, and, finding that he cannot stop himself before reaching the net, jumps over it. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Law 4 requires that "the players shall stand on opposite sides of the net," and therefore the player invading his opponent's court loses the stroke.

XII. A ball passes outside the post of the net and strikes in court. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XIII. A ball going out of court hits the top of the posts of the net and bounds into the opposite court.

Decision.—It is a good return.

XIV. The service or the ball in play strikes a ball lying in the court. Can it be returned?

Decision.—Yes, if it is clear to the umpire that the right ball is returned.

XV. The server claims that the striker-out must stand in the court. Is this necessary?

Decision.—No. The striker-out can stand wherever he pleases on his own side of the net.

XVI. A bystander gets in the way of a player who fails to return the ball. May he then claim a let?

Decision.—Yes, if, in the umpire's opinion, he was prevented by an accident beyond his control. For instance, if the ropes or the seats are allowed to be so near to the court that a player is interfered with by them, the stroke should not be played again, because the ropes and seats form part of the arrangements of the ground. If, however, a spectator passes in front of those seats, or places a chair nearer than the original line, and so interferes with a player, the stroke should be played again.

XVII. A player is interfered with as above, and the umpire directs the stroke to be played again. The server had previously served a fault. He claims the right to two services.

Decision.—The fault stands. A let does not annul a previous fault.

XVIII. A return hits the umpire, or his chair or stand, the player claims that the ball was going into court.

Decision.—Stroke is lost.

XIX. A player receiving fifteen serves from the left court. His opponent claims a fault.

Decision.—It is a fault. The service starts from the right court under all circumstances.

XX. At fifteen-all the server by mistake serves from the left court, he wins the stroke and serves again (a fault), the mistake is then discovered. Is he entitled to the previous fault? From which court should he serve next?

Decision.—The previous stroke stands. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service, good or not, is delivered. The next service should be from the left court, the score being thirty-fifteen, and the server has served one fault.

XXI. A player serves from the wrong court, he loses the stroke, and then claims that it was a fault.

Decision.—If the stroke was played in his first service it is simply a fault, but if he serves twice into the wrong court he has served two faults, and lost the stroke.

XXII. The score is five games all, and the umpire directs the players to play an advantage set. The advantage game has been won, when it is discovered that no advantage sets are to be played. What is to be done?

Decision.—The set is won at the eleventh game. It is no part of the umpire's duty to decide on the conditions of the matches.

XXIII. A player serves. He hears the umpire call, but cannot hear what he says. He knows that the only two things that the umpire should call are "fault" and "let," and that in neither case can the ball be in play. He, therefore, does not return it, only to find that the umpire has called "play." Has he any redress?

Decision.—Yes. A "let" shall be called and the point played over.

XXIV. The umpire calls "fault," and then instantly changes and says "play." The striker-out fails to return the ball, and he claims he was prevented by the umpire, and also that the umpire cannot change his decision.

Decision.—The umpire should call a let and the service be taken again.

XXV. A ball drops near a line, the player appeals, and the umpire calls "play." The player misunderstands the call and lets the ball fall. He then claims to have the stroke played again.

Decision.—The stroke stands.

XXVI. A return strikes the cord running along the bottom of the net and bounds over. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XXVII. During play a ball is thrown into court, and the ball in play strikes it or a player steps on it. May a let be claimed?

Decision.—Yes.

XXVIII. The server's first service strikes his partner. Does he lose the stroke or is it a fault?

Decision.—A fault.

XXIX. A player serves a fault and it is then discovered that it is his partner's service. Does the fault stand?

Decision.—Yes.

XXX. In a four-handed competition one player does not appear in time to play, and his partner claims to be allowed to play single-handed against the opposing pair. May he do so?

Decision.—No.

UNOFFICIAL DECISIONS ON DOUBTFUL POINTS.

(From Lawn Tennis.)

Both of the opponents of the servers in doubles are strikers-out alternately during a game. It is optional with them which shall serve first, but they must serve alternately throughout each set.

A player does not lose a stroke for striking at a ball that ultimately falls outside his court, provided he does not touch it in doing so.

If one partner of a double team strikes at a ball and does not touch it, his partner still has the right to return it. A player or different member of a team may strike at a ball as often as they please; it is still in play until hit.

A served ball is only a "let" if otherwise good, falling in the proper court; a fault cannot be a "let."

The server must stand behind the base-line, within the limits of the side-lines of the court in which he is playing.

There is no limit to the number of "let" balls that may be made on the service, and the server continues serving in the same court until a good service is delivered or two faults are made.

The server must wait until the striker-out is ready for the second service as well as the first, and if the striker-out claims to be not ready and does not make any effort to return the second service, the server cannot claim the point, even though the service was good.

If a player's racket touches the net after the ball has struck the net, he does not lose the point. The ball is dead and the point has been won and lost as soon as the ball strikes the net, and nothing which happens afterward can affect that point. If the ball knocks the net against the player's racket the same decision holds good; it is simply a question for the referee to decide which touches the net first.

In doubles partners must receive throughout each set on the same sides of the court which they originally select when the set begins. The first server is not required to receive in the right court; he may select either side at the beginning of the set, but must hold this to the end.

A ball served with a sharp cut that bounds back over the net after having struck in the right court is a good service. The point counts in favor of the server if the striker-out fails to return it. The latter may reach over the net to return the ball, but loses the point if he touches the net in doing so.

A return made from one side of the court that passes outside of the net and posts without going over them is still good if the ball falls in the proper court.

The ball is always in play until it has struck the ground outside of the court, or the net, or has touched the ground twice. The player loses a point if the ball touches him or his clothing while still in play, no matter whether he is standing outside of the court when the ball hits him, or not.

An officially recognized decision has been rendered that makes any support of the net—the posts, the guy-ropes, or the centre fork—a part of the net itself, and any ball hitting one of the supports and still striking the right court is considered a good return (except on the service). The posts are required to stand outside of the court, and yet a ball being returned at a sharp angle from outside might well be going in and still touch one of the posts.

A ball is dead the instant it has touched the ground outside of the court, and the point must be scored at once against the other side, no matter what happens after the ball touches the ground.

Consolation matches in America are always open to any player beaten in his first match actually played. Winning by default before defeat in the first actual match does not disqualify a player from the consolation event.

The services must always come alternately from the right and left courts; if the server delivers the ball from the wrong court it is a fault.

A fault cannot be played, and the striker-out has no option in the matter; it does not make the service good if he returns it.

Regulations for the Management of Tournaments

1. At Tournaments held by clubs belonging to the United States National Lawn Tennis Association or by clubs belonging to Associations which belong to the National Association or by Associations belonging to said National Association, the Laws of Lawn Tennis as adopted for the time being by said National Association and the Regulations hereinafter contained shall be observed.
2. The Officers of the Club holding the Tournament shall have full power over all details concerning said Tournament, but shall be entitled to delegate their power to a Committee. In case no special Committee shall be appointed by the Officers of the Club holding the Tournament, the powers and functions hereinafter delegated to the Committee shall be vested in and performed by the Officers of said Club.
3. A circular shall be issued by the Committee specifying the conditions of the competition, and including names of Tournament Committee and of the Referee.
4. No cheques, orders for money or cash payments in any form shall be given as prizes, and the amount actually paid for each prize shall in no case be below the advertised value of the same, if included in circular. If any challenge cup is offered it shall be deeded to the National Lawn Tennis Association. The winner of a Challenge Cup shall be entitled to the possession of the cup until one month previous to the next competition for the cup, possession being conditional on the giving of a bond by the winner satisfactory to the Club. Should the Club give possession without such bond, it shall be liable to the National Association for the value of the cup.
5. The Committee shall elect a Referee, with power to appoint a substitute to be approved by them. The Referee or his duly appointed substitute must be present at all times when play is in progress.
6. The Referee or such other member or members of the Committee as may be selected for the purpose, shall have power to appoint Umpires and Linesmen, to assign courts and to start matches, and the Referee shall decide any point of law which an Umpire may profess himself unable to decide, or which may be referred to him on appeal from the decision of an Umpire, and such decision shall be final.
7. The Referee shall, during the Tournament, be ex-officio a member of the Committee.
8. The Committee shall help to keep order on the ground, and shall consult and decide upon any question arising out of the competition, if summoned for that purpose by the Referee or by any two of their number; and they shall have power, when so convened, the misconduct of a competitor having been reported to them by a member of the Committee or an Umpire, to disqualify the offender, and further to order him off the ground, should his misconduct appear to them to justify such action, but before such action shall be taken, an opportunity of offering an explanation shall be afforded to the competitor whose misconduct has been reported to them. When the whole of the Committee of a Club or even a quorum thereof may not be available, the members of the Committee that are available shall have power to act in cases left to the Committee of the Club.
9. It is the duty of an Umpire—
 - (a) To ascertain that the net is at the right height before the commencement of play, and to measure and adjust the net during play, if asked to do so, or if, in his opinion, its height has altered.
 - (b) To call the faults (subject to Regulation 10) and lets unless he delegates such power.
 - (c) To call the strokes when won, or when he is asked to call them, and to record them upon the Umpire's scoring sheet. (See example at bottom of following page.)

(d) To call the games and the sets at the end of each, or when asked to call them, and to record them on the Umpire's scoring sheet.

NOTE—At the end of each game the games should be called with the name of the player who is in advance, thus: "2 games to 1, B wins" or, "B leads." If the games are level the score should be called thus, "three games all," or as the case may be. At the end of each set the sets should be called in like manner.

(e) To direct the Competitors to change sides, in accordance with Law 24.

(f) When appealed to during a rally, whether a doubtful ball is "in play" or not, to call "play," and at the conclusion of the rally to give his decision (subject to Regulation 11) or direct the competitors to play the stroke again.

(g) To decide all doubtful or disputed strokes, and all points of law (subject to Regulations 10 and 11), and to be responsible for the proper conduct of the match.

(h) In handicap matches to call the odds at the commencement of each set.

(i) To sign the Umpire's scoring sheets, and to deliver them at the conclusion of the match to such person as the Committee may authorize to receive them.

Provided, that no omission of any of the foregoing duties on the part of an Umpire shall of itself invalidate any stroke, game or match.

10. It is the duty of the Linesman to call faults and to decide strokes relating to the line or lines to which he is assigned and to said line or lines only, and such decision shall be final. Should the Linesman be unable to give a decision, the Umpire shall decide or shall direct the stroke to be played again.

11. The decision of an Umpire shall be final upon every question of fact, and no competitor may appeal from it; but if an Umpire be in doubt as to a point of law, or if a competitor appeal against his decision on such a point, the Umpire shall submit it to the Referee whose decision shall be final.

NOTE—A question of fact relates to events that actually happened. A question of law is the construction and application of the laws of the game to the admitted facts.

	A. B.	1		1			1	1

The Scoring Sheet shows that in the first game the score ran, and would have been called, thus: "15—love, 30—love, 30—15, 40—15, 40—30, game (A.B.)" In the second game: "Love—15, 15 all, 15—30, 30 all, 40—30, deuce, advantage (C.D.), deuce, advantage (A.B.), deuce, advantage (C.D.), game (C.D.)."

The score of the Server should be called first.

12. The Referee shall not bet on a match nor shall an Umpire or Linesman on the match to which he is assigned. An infraction of this rule shall be followed by the immediate removal of the offending Referee, Umpire or Linesman on the complaint of any competitor.

13. No competitor may transfer his entry to another player.

14. Competitors shall have a right, by themselves or their deputies, to be present at the draw.

15. The draw shall be conducted in the following manner: Each competitor's name shall be written on a separate card or paper, and these shall be placed in a bowl or hat, drawn out one by one at random, and copied on a list in the order in which they have been drawn.

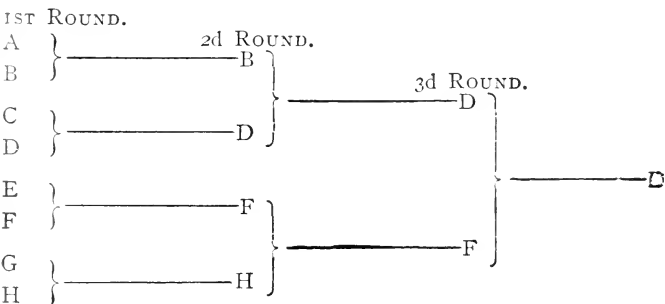

Infraction of this rule renders a Club or other organization liable to loss of its tournament for the following year; except that in invitation tournaments, and competitions between nations, states, cities, clubs and similar bodies where the competition is really between such bodies and not between the players as individuals, players may be placed in such manner as agreed upon by the management of the competition, and except that in Intercollegiate and Interscholastic matches the draw shall be arranged to prevent members of the same college or school from meeting each other in the first and second rounds, the draw in other ways being arranged absolutely by chance.

16. When the number of competitors is 4, 8, 16, 32, 64 or any higher power of 2, they shall meet in pairs, in accordance with the system shown by the diagram at top of following page.

In scoring handicap matches, the odds received should be marked by crosses on the right of the first perpendicular thick line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.					Game won by
1	A. B.	+
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+	+
3	A. B.	+
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+	+
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+	+

Here A. B. is receiving 15 and 3-sixths of 15.

17. When the number of competitors is not a power of 2, there shall be byes in the first round. The number of byes shall be equal to the difference between the number of competitors and the next higher power of 2, and the number of pairs that shall meet in the first round

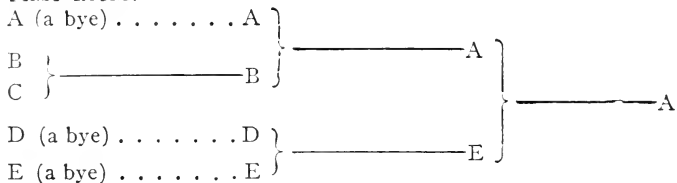

When odds are owed, they should be marked on the left of the first thick perpendicular line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.						Game won by
1	A. B.	1	1
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	1
3	A. B.	1	1
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	1
5	A. B.	1
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	1

shall be equal to the difference between the number of competitors and the next lower power of 2. The byes, if even in number, shall be divided, as the names are drawn, in equal proportions at the top and bottom of the list, above and below the pairs. If uneven in number, there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. Thus—

SERIES 1—FROM 5 TO 8 COMPETITORS.

FIRST ROUND.

With 6, there will be one bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom. With 7, 1 bye at the bottom. With 8, no byes.

and should be crossed off one by one when the player owing wins a stroke, thus:

1	A. B.	+	+
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.		+
3	A. B.	+	+
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.		+
5	A. B.		+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.		+

Here A. B. owes 15 and 2-sixths of 15.

SERIES 2—FROM 9 TO 16 COMPETITORS.

With 9, 3 byes at top, and 4 at bottom.

FIRST ROUND.

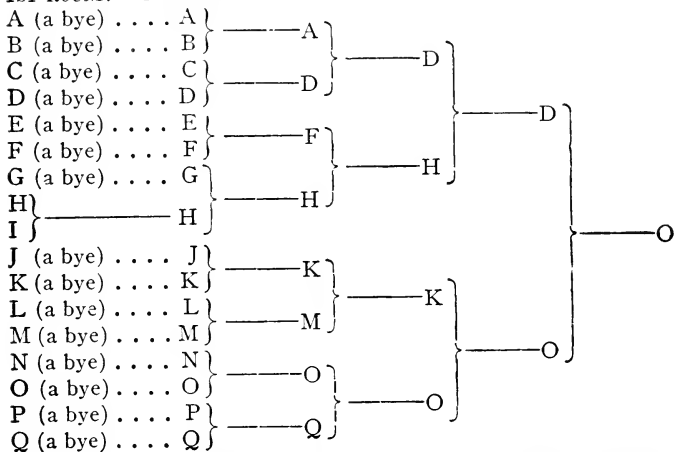

With 10, 3 byes at top, and 3 at bottom. With 11, 2 byes at top, and 3 at bottom. With 12, 2 byes at top, and 2 at bottom. With 13, 1 bye at top, and 2 at bottom. With 14, 1 bye at top, and 1 at bottom. With 15, 1 bye at bottom. With 16, no byes.

SERIES 3—FROM 17 TO 32 COMPETITORS.

With 17, 7 byes at the top, and 8 byes at the bottom.

1ST ROUND. 2ND ROUND. 3RD ROUND. 4TH ROUND. 5TH ROUND.

With 18, 7 byes at top, and 7 at bottom. With 19, 6 byes at top, and 7 at bottom. With 20, 6 byes at top, and 6 at bottom. With 21, 5 byes at top,

And so on with larger numbers in the same manner.

18. If a Competitor be absent when called upon to play, or shall refuse to play, or shall have given previous notice to the Referee or to a member of the Committee that he cannot play in the next round, his adversary shall win in that round, unless said Competitor shall have been formally excused for a definite period by the Referee.

19. In handicap matches the competitors shall be handicapped by the Committee, or by a Handicapper appointed by the Committee.

20. The method of handicapping shall be by classes as follows:

GIVEN ODDS.

Class 0—(Scratch).

Class	Receives	Class	Receives
1.....	1-sixth of 15	10.....	15 and 4-sixths of 15
2.....	2-sixths of 15	11.....	15 and 5-sixths of 15
3.....	3-sixths of 15	12.....	30
4.....	4-sixths of 15	13.....	30 and 1-sixth of 15
5.....	5-sixths of 15	14.....	30 and 2-sixths of 15
6.....	15	15.....	30 and 3-sixths of 15
7.....	15 and 1-sixth of 15	16.....	30 and 4-sixths of 15
8.....	15 and 2-sixths of 15	17.....	30 and 5-sixths of 15
9.....	15 and 3-sixths of 15	18.....	40

When two players in different classes below scratch meet, the superior player shall start from scratch, and the odds received by the inferior player are as shown by the annexed table No. 1. To use the table, find in the diagonal line of figures the number representing the class of the superior player, then travel along the horizontal column until the vertical column is reached which bears at the top the number of the class of the inferior player. The odds specified at the intersection of the two columns are the odds required.

Example.—If class 3 has to meet class 9, start from the figure 3 in the diagonal line of figures, and look horizontally until the vertical column is reached headed by the figure 9. The odds given at the point of intersection of the two columns (viz. 15 and 1-6 of 15) are the odds required.

When the difference between the best and the worst players entered is great (say more than 30), it is desirable to handicap the best players at owed odds. The players above scratch (i. e., owing odds) should be classified as follows:

OWED ODDS.

Class	Owes	Class	Owes
1.....	1-sixth of 15	10.....	15 and 4-sixths of 15
2.....	2-sixths of 15	11.....	15 and 5-sixths of 15
3.....	3-sixths of 15	12.....	30
4.....	4-sixths of 15	13.....	30 and 1-sixth of 15
5.....	5-sixths of 15	14.....	30 and 2-sixths of 15
6.....	15	15.....	30 and 3-sixths of 15
7.....	15 and 1-sixth of 15	16.....	30 and 4-sixths of 15
8.....	15 and 2-sixths of 15	17.....	30 and 5-sixths of 15
9.....	15 and 3-sixths of 15	18.....	40

HANDICAPS. TABLE No. 1. (Received Odds.)

When two players, both in receipt of odds, meet, the player receiving the smaller odds is put back to scratch. The following table shows the point at which the other should then start. The number at the left of the horizontal columns denotes the player who goes back to scratch, those at the head of the vertical columns the player who still receives odds; and the numbers within the columns show the odds to be received by the player whose number stands at the head of the column.

This table has been calculated upon the following data:—

In the case of owed odds—

The average value of 1-6 is	.2158
“ “ “ 2-6 “	.3929
“ “ “ 3-6 “	.5188
“ “ “ 4-6 “	.6448
“ “ “ 5-6 “	.7975

“ “ “ Length of a game is 4.6250 strokes.

In using this table supply throughout the word “owe” before the odds specified.

When the two players in different classes above scratch meet, the inferior player shall start from scratch, and the odds owed by the superior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 2.

This table is to be used in the same way as the former, the class of the superior player being looked for in the horizontal line of figures at the top, and the class of the inferior player in the diagonal line of figures.

Example.—If class 12 (owe 30) meet class 7 (owe 15 and 1-6 of 15), the former must owe the latter the odds of 4-6 of 15.

21. In Championship matches and handicaps by classes, as above, advantage sets shall be played throughout.

22. The Committee may, whether appealed to by any competitor or not, postpone the meeting or any match or part of a match if, in their opinion, the state of the weather, or of the light, or the condition of the ground, or other circumstances, render it advisable to do so. In cases of postponement, Law 25 must be strictly observed.

23. In all tournaments sanctioned by the Association the use of spikes longer than one-quarter of an inch is prohibited.

24. Every organization holding an event sanctioned by the United States National Lawn Tennis Association must furnish the Ranking Committee, within ten days after the completion of any such event, with a full and complete report of all matches played therein, together with the full name and, when possible, address of each contestant.

The Ranking Committee must furnish all Clubs and Associations holding any such sanctioned event with blanks for the purpose of making the returns required by Regulation 24, and immediately after the Committee shall have completed the ranking, such returns must be delivered to the Secretary of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association.

26. If any Club or Association fails to make the returns required, provided for by Regulation 24, sanction for holding by the delinquent of any tournament during the following year may be refused in the discretion of the Executive Committee.

GIVEN ODDS.

One-sixth of fifteen (1-6) is one stroke given by the better to the poorer player on the second, eighth, fourteenth and every subsequent sixth game in each set.

Two-sixths of fifteen (2-6) is one stroke given on the second, fourth, eighth, tenth and corresponding games in each set.

Three-sixths of fifteen (3-6 or one-half) is one stroke given on the second, fourth, sixth and every other alternate game on each set.

Four-sixths of fifteen (4-6) is one stroke given on the second, fourth, sixth, eighth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth and corresponding games on each set.

Five-sixths of fifteen (5-6) is one stroke given on the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth and corresponding games on each set.

Fifteen (15) is one stroke given on every game of each set.

Fifteen and one-sixth (15.1) is two strokes given on the same games as for one-sixth, and one stroke on each of the others.

Fifteen and two-sixths (15.2) is two strokes given on the same games as for two-sixths, and one stroke on each of the others.

Fifteen and three-sixths (15.3 or half-thirty) is two strokes given on the same games as for three-sixths, and one stroke on each of the others.

Fifteen and four-sixths (15.4) is two strokes given on the same games as for four-sixths, and one stroke on each of the others.

Fifteen and five-sixths (15.5) is two strokes on the same games as for five-sixths and one stroke on each of the others.

Thirty (30) is two strokes on each game.

Thirty and one-sixth (30.1), thirty and two-sixths (30.2), thirty and three-sixths (30.3 or half-forty), thirty and four-sixths (30.4), thirty and five-sixths (30.5) and forty (40), are three strokes and two given on the corresponding games of each set, as in the fifteen series.

OWED ODDS.

Owed (or minus) odds can also be used in exactly the same quantities, the chief difference being that the better player is required to earn the owed strokes before he begins to score, while, in the case of given odds, the poorer player is given his handicap before play starts. These owed odds may be used either in conjunction with the given odds or separately. In order that the handicaps may occur as seldom as possible in the same games, when two players meet, one of whom owes odds and the other receives them, the games on which owed strokes are paid differ from those on which the given strokes are taken. Here is the table for owed odds:

One-sixth (1-6) is one stroke owed on the first, seventh, thirteenth and every subsequent sixth game in each set.

Two-sixths (2-6) is one stroke owed on the first, third, seventh, ninth and corresponding games in each set.

Three-sixths (3-6 or one-half) is one stroke owed on the first, third, fifth and every other alternate game in each set.

Four-sixths (4-6) is one stroke owed on the first, third, fifth, sixth and corresponding games in each set.

Five-sixths (5-6) is one stroke owed on the first, third, fourth, fifth, sixth and corresponding games in each set.

Fifteen (15) is one stroke owed on each game.

Fifteen and one-sixth (15.1), fifteen and two-sixths (15.2), fifteen and three-sixths (15.3 or half-thirty), fifteen and four-sixths (15.4), fifteen and five-sixths (15.5), thirty (30), thirty and one-sixth (30.1), thirty and two-sixths (30.2), thirty and three-sixths (30.3 or half-forty), thirty and four-sixths (30.4), thirty and five-sixths (30.5) and forty (40), correspond to the fractions of fifteen, as do the larger handicaps in the table for given odds correspond to the fractions of fifteen in that table.

The simplest method for handicappers to pursue is to sort out the entries for the event they are to handicap into classes according to the relative skill of the players. Then select the class with the greatest number of players in it and place them on scratch, handicapping all of the other players either behind or in advance of scratch by owed or given odds, so as to make all even at the odds.

In deciding upon each player's handicap, his ability as compared with the scratch men should first be considered, and then as compared with his nearest and furthest rivals in the tables of odds. Each player might meet any of the others, and the object of handicapping is to give him an exactly even chance, no matter whom his opponent may be.

It should be remembered that it is easier to owe 15, or any fraction of it, than it is to give it, and when odds of 30 are given, the poorer player's score has already reached pretty near the end of the game, and the difference between him and the best men must be very great to give the latter an even chance, should they meet.

It is very unwise to give even the poorer players over 30.3 (half-forty), and very seldom is it safe to make the given odds run higher than 30. If the difference between the best and the poorest players is very great, place the latter as far as necessary behind scratch, but do not advance the former to more than 30, or 30.3 in the most extreme cases.

HOW TO CONDUCT A TOURNAMENT.

A tournament committee should first of all be selected, with not less than five men, and as many as possible practical workers who have the time and inclination to closely look after the interests of the club. At its first meeting, the committee should decide upon all details of the meeting. In selecting a date, it is advisable to choose one immediately before or after some established tournament in the neighborhood, for then the entries of those who are to play in the other event can generally be secured.

Application should be made to the national governing body for official sanction for the tournament, stating dates and other particulars. If any championship events are to be on the programme, official recognition must be applied for before these titles can be of any value.

A printed circular should be issued by the tournament committee, which should state plainly—(1) the name of the club and the location of the courts; (2) the date of the meeting and the hours of play; (3) the list of events, and the championship titles (if any) to be competed for, with the prizes offered for each event; (4) the amount of the entrance fees, and place and date for closing the list of entries; (5) the name of referee, handicapper and tournament committee; and (6) the time and place of the draw.

The draw should always be made by the committee in public and due notice of the time and place be given to the competitors, so that they may be present or represented when the draw is made. The draw should always be made by the Bagnall-Wilde system. (See "Tournament Regulations.")

No money or its equivalent in any form should be offered as prizes, for this would disqualify the players from future competition as amateurs. Prizes should be silver, gold, cut glass, objects of art or other souvenirs of this kind that can be marked or engraved as trophies. It is preferable to have them marked before the tournament, although lawn tennis prizes are frequently bought with the privilege of exchange, and therefore not engraved until after the tournament.

The committee should select a referee, either from among their number or outside of it. If handicaps are to be held, the referee may also be the handicapper, or a sub-committee may be appointed for this purpose. Should the referee be also a competitor, a substitute should also be appointed to act for him while he is playing.

It is important to have enough balls, and only the best quality of tournament balls should be used for matches. It is the custom at most tournaments to allow three new balls with each match, but in playing on dirt courts, the same balls can sometimes be made to do service twice. Unless there are back-stops close behind the courts, it is also well to have some small boys handy to act as ball-boys and "shack" the balls for the players.

The lines of a tournament court should be marked out fresh every day and, if easily obliterated, also between matches on the same day. The courts should always be laid north and south so that one player will not get more than his share of the glaring sunlight in his eyes. There should never be a tree within shadow distance of a tournament court either, particularly on the south side of the court.

Facilities must be provided for the players to dress, and it is a good plan to appoint one member of the committee to attend to these accommodations, and to entertain the visiting players and see that their wants are attended to.

The draw should always be posted in a conspicuous place on the grounds, where the spectators as well as the players can inspect it. If possible a programme for each day's play should be made out in advance, and due notice of all the matches of the day be posted up by the draw each day. The courts should be numbered, and a certain court and hour set for each match. One member of the committee ought also to be assigned to getting umpires for the matches and seeing that they are properly started.

It is customary to exhibit the prizes for a tournament at the club grounds during the tournament, and it generally proves an attractive feature to have them displayed on a table on the grounds, all duly labeled so that spectators can see which events they are to be given for. A refreshment tent is also an attractive feature at a tournament and the prizes are then displayed under this tent on the same or a nearby table with the punchbowl. Lemonade, or tea, crackers, cakes and sometimes small sandwiches are generally served to the players and spectators under such refreshment tent.

SCHEDULE FOR A ROUND ROBIN TOURNAMENT.

One player sits out each time. The teams play four games each round, no matter how many they win or lose. The number of games won is placed in the open brackets and the man winning the most games at the end of the fifteen frames wins the tournament.

SIMPLE METHOD OF MAKING THE DRAW.

(From American Lawn Tennis.)

Although thousands of drawings for lawn tennis tournaments are made every year only a comparatively small number of people are familiar with the subject. The matter is really very simple, and making the draw is easy if one understands the modus operandi.

The draw is made according to the Bagnall-Wild system, except in round robin and team matches. This system is designed to bring the players together in a predetermined number of rounds and ultimately reduce them to one player or one team by retiring the competitors defeated in each round. The ultimate player, or pair, is, of course, the winner of the tournament. The rules of the U.S.N.L.T.A. forbid "seeding" the draw except in the case of invitation tournaments and competitions between "nations, States, cities, clubs," etc.; and provide that the names of the competitors shall be placed in a bowl or hat and drawn out at random (see Regulation 17 on page 193).

In preparing to make the draw the number of entries are counted. If the total is 2, or a power of 2—4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, 256 or 512—there are no byes and the names are entered on the draw sheet in the order in which they are drawn. If the total is not 2, or a power of 2, there are byes, and the Bagnall-Wild method of drawing is resorted to; and this means nearly always, for the entries rarely total a power of 2. This method is really very simple if it is once thoroughly understood, but if it is not the drawing is quite a complicated matter and freedom from error is not easily obtained.

If it is once clearly understood what is the goal aimed at in drawing, all difficulties are passed. That goal is to bring into the second round a number of entries that is a power of 2. Once that is fixed in the mind everything is easy. There must be 2, 4, 8, 16, 32, etc., players (or pairs) in the second round. To secure this result is the object of the Bagnall-Wild system of drawing.

Here is a simple illustration of how to draw: There are, say, 41 entries, so the next higher power of 2 is 64; subtract 41 from 64, and you have the number of byes—23. This leaves 18 players in the first round—23 (byes) being subtracted from 41, the total number of entries. With 18 players in the first round one-half, or 9, go into the second round, where we already have 23 byes; if we add this 9 to the 23 byes we have 32, which is, of course, a power of 2 and the correct number. If the total had been 31 or 33, or any other number than a power of 2, it would be apparent that there is an error somewhere. Never forget that the number in the second round—byes and players who survive the first round—must be a power of 2, and that this "power" is obtained by doubling 2—as 4, 8, 16, 32, etc. Finally, byes are necessary only when the number of entries is not 2 or a power of 2. For this disposition of a difficulty that troubled lawn tennis players in the early years of the game we have to thank the ingenious Mr. Bagnall-Wild.

The rest is clear sailing. The names are written on slips of paper and drawn from a hat. The byes are drawn first, and it is not necessary to "copy the names on a list," as provided in Regulation 15, for the names can now be written on the draw card or sheet, thus saving time. The byes are written in the space left for the second round, beginning at the top. In the case we are citing, with 23 byes, 11 names are written at the top and 12 at the bottom, as stated in Regulation 17. As there are 18 players in the first round, that number of spaces are left on the draw card, in the center, after the byes have been disposed of, as shown.

The method of drawing for doubles is exactly the same. The only difference is that a pair is substituted for a single player.

Tennis for Girls

The famous Sutton sisters of Southern California have won so many tennis events that they are qualified to speak with authority concerning the sport. Consequently there will be more than a little interest in the opinions of Violet Sutton, now Mrs. Hope Doeg of Santa Monica, who is believed to be the only woman in the United States acting as a professional tennis instructor. She has charge of the game in a girls' school and so is interested in the sport from the standpoint of the beginner.

"To have a national championship for girls, played in connection with the women's national at Philadelphia, is an excellent idea and I strongly advocate it." Thus emphatically does the present spokesman for the Suttons endorse the action of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association in establishing the event, at its last annual meeting.

In outlining her ideas for teaching tennis she says that children should have a tennis bat and ball when they are four years old. By starting thus early they become accustomed to the "feel" of the game's implements, so that they take to instruction much more readily.

"Children should begin to learn tennis when they are ten or twelve years old," she says. "For little ones, rackets should weigh about eleven ounces; for the bigger youngsters—ten or twelve years—it is best to use a racket weighing about 12 or 13 ounces. No girl should play with a racket more than 13½ ounces in weight. As girls grow older, don't let them give up tennis. I know of two women who are between the ages of fifty and sixty—and who play a fine game.

"If full benefit is to be derived from the sport, wraps should always be put on after playing, and as soon as possible a shower should be taken, followed by a change to dry clothing." Mrs. Doeg is chary of "don'ts," but she does issue this warning to beginners:

"Avoid a heavy meal just before playing and don't take iced drinks. This advice is common knowledge to boys who have been in training, but its importance is often ignored by girls who have lacked this kind of instruction.

"Every school should have, besides a tennis court, a hand ball court for practising strokes." With this comment she shows that constant practice is essential if the sureness and accuracy are to be developed that make for success on the courts.

Summing up her argument that tennis is a splendid sport for girls and should be encouraged at every opportunity, she makes the following points:

1. It is a good, active exercise, but not too strenuous.
2. It teaches one to be quick and graceful in footwork.
3. It develops plenty of strength and muscle.
4. It reduces the weight if one is inclined to be too heavy, and makes the figure graceful.
5. It teaches quick thinking, because one must always be on the alert to find an adversary's weakness and place the shots accordingly.
6. It teaches self-control and fine standards of sportsmanship.

Supplementing this is the opinion of Martin A. Delaney, Director of Athletics of the Chicago Athletic Association, who writes under the head of "Keeping Fit," in the Hearst papers. Mr. Delaney says:

"My advice to all frail and nerve-shaken girls is to take up the game of tennis as a regular exercise. Right now is the time to make your plans. I believe that tennis is one of the best of all games if played regularly and in moderation. It develops all the muscles, but particularly the arms and legs. It also cultivates accuracy, speed, agility and endurance. Tennis is a game for all—a game for boys and girls as well as men and women. It is a game which may be made strenuous, if so desired by the players themselves, or just a moderate exercise. It gets you out in the open air and sunshine and keeps you jumping around like a grasshopper all the while. It increases circulation and sends you home with a real appetite."

How to Build and Keep a Court

Nothing is more important for the full enjoyment of lawn tennis than a satisfactory court, and none of the other accessories of the game offers a wider variety. Many important considerations come up even after the kind of court to be built, and the cost, have been decided upon. No matter how much is to be spent on the ground, nor what the surface is to be, the most important things to consider first are space, light and drainage.

The back-stop nettings should never be nearer than fifteen feet to the lines, and if good players are expected to use the court, particularly if tournament matches are to take place on it, the space behind the base-line should be 21 feet at each end. At the sides at least 6 feet, if possible 12 feet should be allowed beyond the side-lines for doubles of each court. A well-appointed court for tournament play should be centered in an unobstructed space of not less than 60 x 120 feet. Wire back-stop netting 10 or 12 feet high should surround it at these distances from the lines. If there are two or more courts together, there should be at least 12 feet between their side lines, and one netting can surround all.

In selecting a site for a court, a spot should be chosen where there is always plenty of sunlight, and where at no time of the day does any shadow cross the ground on which the court is to be laid. Green or black is a preferable background to play against, but any dark and even color will do. A court should never be laid out with any very light background within a short distance at either end, or close at either side. Nor should a site be selected with a badly mixed or moving background. Shade trees are useful near a court, only if their shadow is a solid one, not constantly checkered by flecks of sunlight glittering through moving branches, which constantly confuse the players. Never should they be allowed near enough to cast any shadows on the playing surface.

One more cardinal point should be remembered. The court should invariably be laid out north and south—never east and west. If this warning is disregarded, the player at one end or the other will be hopelessly blinded by the sun.

The question of drainage is one of the most important considerations in selecting a site of this kind. On the natural facilities depends largely the cost of laying out a good court. If the natural soil be sandy and well drained, or if it is on high ground which slopes away near by, artificial drain pipes will not have to be put in, and this saves much of the cost, but if it be thick clay that holds moisture long, or on low ground with neighboring slopes that drain toward it, the court will be useless for many hours after each rainfall unless artificial drain-pipes are put in.

After the site has been selected, it must be decided whether a grass or "dirt" court is to be built. If the natural sod is luxuriant and the soil favorable for its growth, or if the court is not to be used enough to wear off the grass, a turf court will generally be found preferable, but if the ground is to be constantly in use, the sod will wear off and become "bald" unless there is space enough on the lawn to shift the court frequently.

When good turf cannot be had or will not stand the wear, a substitute must be found, and sand or dirt courts are most often used. On well-drained land, one can sometimes cut away the top surface, level the ground and roll it until well hardened and the court is ready for use, but more preparation is necessary to build a permanent court that will not be constantly losing its proper level.

For such a court the earth should be cut away to a depth of one foot if no drains are required. After leveling it carefully with a spirit-level, to be sure that the grade is right, a layer of six inches of broken stone should first be laid and pounded down hard. Ordinary trap-rock used for macadamizing roads is perhaps the best for this purpose, but any broken stone, ranging in sizes from a walnut to an egg, will answer the purpose. This should be covered with a three-inch layer of coarse gravel or fine broken stone, which should be thoroughly pounded and watered for several days before being covered. Before any surface is put on the court, the greatest care should be taken to see that the foundation is perfectly level. Any holes or depressions that appear from rolling and pounding should be filled in before it is covered.

Every well built court should be graded either from end to end or from side to side to an extent of not over two inches, which will suffice to drain off rain water. If artificial drainage is necessary to keep the court dry, drain pipes can be laid in the foundations of the court about three feet outside the side and end lines, care being taken whereby the pipes will tilt, following the grade of the court as far as possible, thus allowing the water to run off. The best drain pipes are six-inch stone sewer pipe, cut in halves, or stone gutters used on tiled roofs, which should be sunk in the ground immediately under the foundation of broken rock and filled with pebbles or fine cracked stone.

The covering for a gravel or sand court should be not less than three nor more than six inches in thickness, and of sandy loam and clay mixed. The proportions depend on the quality of the clay. If it is very binding and sticky, one part of sand to four of clay are preferable, but for the average ingredients they should be mixed about eight parts of clay to one part of sand. When the court is finished, if it is found to be too soft but dry, more clay should be added; while if it drains poorly and stays muddy too long after rain, or its surface is too sticky for the player's feet, more sand should be added on the surface. When a court is finally covered, it should be thoroughly watered and rolled alternately twice every day for two weeks before it is played on at all, and any depressions or uneven spots corrected as fast as they appear from the settling. After the first heavy rain storm it should be gone over and leveled most carefully, for then it is most likely to develop new faults.

The fine seashore sand will seldom be found satisfactory for the surface of a court, for it works loose too quickly under the players' feet, and can only be made to bind when mixed with a larger proportion of clay, which will make the drainage more difficult, as water percolates very slowly through clay. If the soil upon which a court is being built is very rich and worms promise to work through to the surface above and injure the court, it is well to lay a layer of fine cinders, those from a railroad engine preferred, between the foundation and the sandy surface layer. These cinders effectually prevent worms from coming through to the surface. It is also well to use coarse sifted ashes mixed with the stones in the drain-pipes.

The construction of a grass court is less difficult, but varies much more in process. If cost need not be considered, it should be built by an expert, and will be laid on deep-laid foundations; if it is desired to build an economical court on an available lawn which is fairly level, the cost will not be heavy. The sod should first be carefully removed in squares of about eighteen inches, from a space at least 50 by 100 feet, cutting down to a depth of about six inches. The ground should then be turned with a spade to a depth of eighteen inches or two feet, and after all stones have been removed, and the earth carefully raked over and leveled, it should be packed and rolled with a heavy roller. It cannot have too much leveling and rolling, and the rolling should be kept up for several days with plenty of soaking by rain or hose-pipe. Any inequalities which the heavy pressure of the roller produces should be filled in or cut down before the sods are relaid.

After the ground has been rolled sufficiently the sods should be replaced. In doing this it is important to get the edges close together, so that no seams or open cracks can be found. These sods should be relaid in the afternoon and well drenched with water. The next day the ground should be rolled again; and this should be followed by alternate drenching and rolling for several days. Even when the ground finally appears firm and level, the court should not be played upon until new blades of grass appear in considerable numbers. If depressions appear, the sod at that spot should be lifted, fresh earth inserted to the proper grade and the sod replaced, watered and rolled till level and flat again.

Bad spots are often found where the grass is thin or where malignant weeds obstruct its growth, and in this case fresh sods should be bought or cut elsewhere and substituted. Sometimes large patches of ground must be renewed in this way, but it will be found much less expensive if all the turf is bad to sow the new court down with lawn seeds, and seeds will often help out thin spots in the grass if the court is not to be used too soon after the sowing. It is better to make a grass court in the fall whether it is to be sown with seed or sodded. The winter storms will then settle it thoroughly, and after a little releveling in the spring it will be ready for use.

Grass seeds should be sown between the middle of March and the first of May, or better yet, in the autumn, between the middle of August and the first of October. It takes about 20 pecks of good lawn seed to cover a space 60 by 120 feet. The sowing should be gone over twice, the second time at right angles to the first. Clover seeds should be avoided, as this grass does not wear well, and guano should not be used for fertilizing, for it tends to bring up coarse blades in patches.

As soon as the young grass is high enough to be topped, a scythe or sickle should be used, being at first better than the mowing machine. After the new grass is well hardened, however, the latter should be constantly in use, never less than once a week, and in moist warm weather nearly every day. With every precaution weeds are sure to appear, but these can generally be held in check by constant mowing. The more formidable weeds, however, must be cut with a knife one by one about an inch below the surface, and care being taken to remove as much of the root as possible. A pinch of salt dropped on the cut root will generally stop the growth. When the turf becomes worn in spots a small shift in the lines of the court will relieve the pressure and enable the grass to grow again; at the end of the season all of the bare patches should be resown.

Once the court is finally built and ready for use, it must be properly marked out. In every case, unless it be of grass, and the lines are to be constantly shifted to prevent bare spots, net-posts should be permanently sunk in the ground. They should be not less than two feet under the ground nor less than forty feet apart.

A good dirt court should be swept, watered, rolled and freshly marked out after every eight or ten sets of play, and oftener in very dry weather. Instantly a depression is discovered it should be filled in and rolled down before playing is continued, for it is almost as dangerous for the players as the court to continue with it uneven. A court should never be rolled in the condition the players leave it after play. A player's heel raises a little lump; if the roller goes over this before it is swept down even again, a hard ridge results and the ball will bound unevenly from it. It should be swept over first, until all the lumps are leveled down, before the roller is allowed on its surface.

One of the best sweepers is made of a heavy joist of wood with a dozen thicknesses of old jute bagging or coarse cloth frayed out at the bottom edges, fastened to its bottom and trailing on behind it. This should be drawn over the court with a handle or rope several times. If it is pushed, the groundsman's feet will leave tracks after it; if he goes ahead the sweeper will erase them. Before the lines are marked out fresh, the old ones should always be swept off with a broom, but if the broom is constantly used along the lines in a parallel direction, it will gradually wear away little grooves in the court where the lines are and the balls will bound improperly from them. The sweeping should be done lightly across the court, at right angles with the lines.

A grass court cannot have too much care. It is advisable to wet it thoroughly several times a week and roll it as often. It should be watered at night, cut in the morning, and rolled after cutting and before watering. The best way to repair a bare strip of ground is to lay fresh turf, and this should be done in the fall or as early as possible in the spring. Good tough turf, laid in February or early in March, will be fit for use by the first of June. In the early spring grass roots both in new turf and old may be greatly benefited by a good dressing of manure well worked in, but regular manuring should also be done in the fall.

Worm casts are very bad for good tennis turf. Particularly in fertile ground or after a storm, the little mounds will appear on the sod, and if the roller passes over them or they are trodden down little hard lumps are formed which spoil the surface of the court. The turf should always be swept before rolling, and in rich soil every morning. This scatters the mounds effectually. Where it is necessary to get rid of the worms, lime water should be sprinkled on the ground. They will then come to the surface and can be swept away.

When a horse mowing machine is used it is well to have the horse's hoofs covered with soft pads to prevent their cutting into the turf and leaving prints that affect the bound of the ball. The groundsman at work on good lawn tennis courts, particularly when the turf is soft, and always on a sand court, should be required to wear rubber-soled shoes without heels.

Of the various other kinds of courts, namely, asphalt, concrete, cinder, etc., the asphalt is probably the better type.

The asphalt court is very hard and fast, giving the ball a much higher bound than any clay or gravel court. Hence it has placed an additional premium on swift serving, smashing and volleying. Aggressiveness—that quality which is absolutely essential for first string champions—has therefore become part and parcel of the game in California. Asphalt makes the attacking game imperative.

Although the asphalt court lacks many of the attractions of the best turf and clay courts (being so very hard), it has its advantages. If it is properly constructed, the cost of its upkeep is practically nil compared to others. Aside from freshening up the lines with paint once a year and sweeping it free from dust and litter occasionally, there is no expense of cash or effort necessary. Then, too, it can be dried with brooms and mops within an hour or less after the hardest rain. In Eastern climates snow could readily be shoveled and swept off, and the spring thaw would never feaze it. Furthermore, the asphaltum surface is perfectly true. No bad bounds, except on ancient and poorly built courts.

The Fay Improvement Company of San Francisco, the leading court builders on the Coast, have kindly supplied the following specifications for the benefit of those who wish to install asphalt courts:

"The area of the court should be 60 x 120 feet. The ground should be graded so as to have a pitch of at least 9 inches in 120 feet without any crown whatsoever. The subgrade should be either rolled with a small steam roller weighing two and one-half tons, or with heavy hand rollers. Upon your subgrade place four inches of concrete, or if you can obtain good bedrock macadam, six inches of that will serve instead. Upon this, spread one inch of asphalt wearing surface, which should be made of the following proportions: Asphalt having a penetration of 70 to 90 degrees, 120 pounds; powdered limestone or cement, 150 pounds; fine sand, possessing not over three per cent loam or mica, 745 pounds. The foregoing quantities constitute nine cubic feet of finishing material, covering an area of one hundred feet square and one inch thick. Particular pains should be taken in ironing and hand rolling of the asphalt so that there will be no roughness after the final rolling. There should be two hand rollers used when the asphalt is spread, one weighing about 600 pounds, followed by a lighter one weighing close to 400 pounds. The rakers should work to a three-quarter inch surface board in spreading the material. Should the subgrade be all loam or material that opens up and cracks, it would be good to spread about two inches of sand before the concrete base or macadam is laid."
